Nolan - Quinn Nuptials Said At Kirkland, Ky.

The wedding of Miss Betty Lou Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Nolan of Montgomery County, and George Simon Quinn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Simon Quinn of Mt. Olive, was solemnized at eleven o'clock Saturday morning at the Kirkville, Ky. Christian Church. The Reverend W. S. Teachey officiated, using the single ring ceremony.

Stand baskets of white summer flowers interspersed with baby's breath and greenery, were arranged on the altar. Seven graduated candelabra held lighted white tapers for the ceremony.

Mrs. J. T. Coy presented a program of traditional organ music preceding the ceremony. The following nuptial selections were rendered by Mrs. Edward Murphy of Richmond "At Dawning," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white suit and carried a white Bible. Her corsage was of red roses.

Miss Edwina Frances Teater was maid-of-honor, and Miss Ellen Hayes Coy and Miss Ann Curtis were bridesmaids. Little Miss Betty Ann Coy was the flower girl and Master Rodney Stevens Whitlock served as ringbearer.

Al Nolan of the United States

Marine Corps brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Paul Jones, Linden Stocker, Russell Turner and Jimmy Rop.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. A lace cloth covered the bride's table which held a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with miniature bridal figurines and flanked by lighted tapers and garden flowers.

After a wedding trip to Cumberland Falls, the couple will reside in Montgomery County.

Steed-Sutton Vows Spoken Sunday

In an afternoon candlelight ceremony solemnized in the Warsaw Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, August first, at five o'clock, Miss Helen Christine Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Sutton of Warsaw, became the bride of Julius Frank Steed, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Steed.

Dr. Alton Greenlaw officiated using the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. MacDonald Brock, organist, and Miss Betty Phillips, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of candle light satin with a dainty net yoke encrusted with tiny seed pearls. The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was draped to a brocaded calot (accented with seed pearls).

She carried a satin covered prayer book, topped with a white orchid, showered with streamers tied with net and carnations. The bride's only adornment was a small gold cross, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Rita Sutton, maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant and wore a strapless gown of white net over taffeta with a satin brocaded bodice and matching net stole. Her head dress was a matching calot and she carried an old fashioned nosegay of yellow and lavender pom poms tied with yellow ribbon and filled with lavender majine.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of navy lace over taffeta with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Virginia Strickland, wore a dress of navy crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. John Steed of Warsaw was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Harold Matthis, Johnny Todd, Arnold Jones and I. J. Quinn.

Following the ceremony, the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church.

For a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina the bride chose an ice blue silk shantung suit with white accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

Upon their return the couple will make their home in Warsaw where Mr. Steed is employed with West Auto Parts.
