Sixteen giant warehouses operating daily are now ready to serve you. The reputation for high prices, service and fairness of the operators of these warehouses is well known and praised by tobacco growers throughout North Carolina and the border states. Most of them have been in Whiteville for years and apparently have pretty much the same experienced staff from year to year to serve your every need. This certainly speaks well for the stability of our market. These men are both experienced and respected throughout the entire industry and know how to get the farmer the high dollar for his crop. The warenousemen and their operators are: Raymond and Gaither Crutchfield at Crutchfield's, John and Oliver Nelson at Nelson's No. 1 and 2, Norwood Newman, Bill and Harold Perkins operating Perkins - Newman, A.H.
