A Magnifying Mirror Is a Real Beauty Aid for You

BY EDNA HILES

THE advantages of a magnifying mirror as a real aid to beauty are many. Though first glance into one is always somewhat upsetting, a second glance can be both educational and rewarding, beauty-wise.

This second glance may reveal to you flaws you didn't know you had, but flaws that others have noticed. Many women fall into the poor beauty habit of taking themselves and the way they look for granted. But that's not the way observers see you; the flaws are clearly visible to them.

A magnifying mirror is, therefore, of first importance to you in learning the truth about your skin. If there are tiny blackheads, imperfections or blemishes that you thought were well concealed by make-up, the mirror will show them to you. And to good purpose. Once you're aware of them, you can correct them.

It will also provide an indisputable check on your browline, revealing to you stragglers you'd not noticed. It will tell you a complete story about the dry and oily areas of your skin, giving you a chance to treat each separately.

And finally, it's the last word on the smoothness of your make-up, telling you if you've worked well and with an expert hand.

As final check on the smoothness of her make-up, actress Virginia Mayo makes use of a magnifying mirror. It's also a reliable measure of her skin care.

News for Veterans

The Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1952, otherwise known as the Korean GI Bill, permits eligible veterans with active service anywhere in the world since...

on-farm training or other programs which combine school and job training, or (4) select correspondence school courses.

The rate of payment for veterans without dependents who are in full-time training in schools and colleges is $110 a month; for those with one dependent $135, and for those with more than one dependent, $160.

For veterans in institutional on-farm training, which combines classroom instruction with practical on-farm work, the top monthly payment for those with dependents is $95; for those with one dependent, $110, and for those with more than one dependent, $130.

VA News Letter

Veterans with active service on or after June 27, 1950, may qualify for VA guaranteed or insured loans to purchase homes, farms and businesses under the same conditions that apply to the GI loan program for World War II veterans.

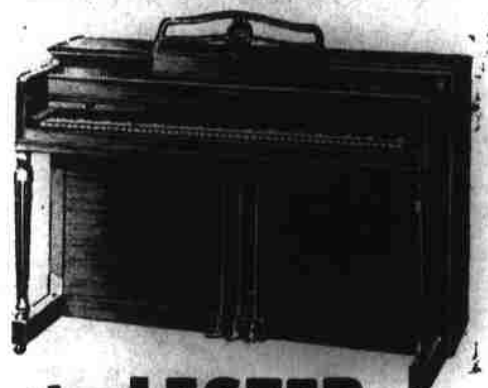

Eligibility requirements include: (1) a discharge or separation under conditions other than dishonorable; (2) active military service - any place in the world - at any time on or after June 27, 1950, and prior to the end of the present emergency, a date yet to be established by Presidential proclamation or by a concurrent resolution of the Congress; and (3) at least 90 days' total service, unless discharged sooner for disability.

Unmarried widows of men who served during that period and who died in service or as the result of a service-connected disability also may qualify.

World War II veterans who returned to active duty in the armed forces since June 27, 1950 will have their unused loan entitlement under the World War II GI Bill cancelled when they are released from active duty and will receive new entitlement under the Korean GI Bill. The result is that these World War II veterans, like all veterans eligible under the Korean GI Bill, will have 10 years from the end of the present emergency to obtain loans.
