WCS Hold Meet Fireside Room

The Executive Meeting of the Woman's Society met in the Fireside Room at the Methodist Church Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All business was discussed and plans made for the quarter, September, October and November.

The president, Mrs. Q. J. Sutton, presided over the meeting, with most of the General Officers being present.

At 8:00 the General Meeting went in session, with 22 members present. This was opened with a short devotional by the Spiritual Life Leader, Mrs. Park Pridden. She also gave some highlights from the School of Missions she attended at Duke University the latter part of August.

Mrs. Sutton announced that the invitation to the Business and Professional Women's club had been accepted to hold their District meeting in the Fireside Room in October. She also read a letter from Mrs. Sallie Jerome, President of the Wallace Sub-District that they would meet with Warsaw on October 13 (Wednesday) from 10:00 to 1:30. Warsaw ladies to serve free lunch to all guests. All members of the Womens Society are urged to attend this meeting. The guest speaker will be Miss Ida Hankins, retired Korean Missionary, who is now District Secretary of Spiritual Life, and Mrs. W. E. Hand District Sec. of Status of Women. Both these ladies attended the assembly in Milwaukee, Wis. and will give us the highlights of this assembly. The first Mission Study "Under Three Flags", dealing on India, Pakistan, and Ceylon will be given in the Fireside Room Monday evening September 27th at 7:30. Warsaw has extended an invitation to the Ladies of the Turkey W. S. C. S. to attend this study.

It was also voted to serve the Masonic Lodge their Monthly dinners for the Winter and fall if they wish us to do so.

Circle I gave the program. Mrs. Milton West, program chairman for Circle I led in a discussion of

NOTHING TO SNEEZE AT—Until Jack Frost "cures" all hay fever sufferers for another year, these 80 needles and some 20 serums will lock good to hapless sneezers. Used in lengthy allergy tests at Jewish Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y., they're viewed by

"Except The Lord Keep The City", she was assisted by Mrs. H. R. Hipp, and Mrs. Gordon West, after which Mrs. Pridden closed the meeting with prayer.

Mineral Springs H. D. Club Meet Wednesday P. M.

The Mineral Springs Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday afternoon, September 15, at the Bowen Community Church. Mrs. Loom Taylor and Mrs. Norman Parks were hostesses. Mrs. Parks, president, presided. The meeting opened with singing "God Bless Our Homes". Mrs. Parks was in charge of the Devotional. Mrs. R. A. Williams led in Prayer. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Taylor. During the business session it was announced that Dr. Arnold Hoffman of Raleigh would speak at Kenansville on "Church Music" on October 3 at 3 p. m. This meeting will be held at the Kenansville School.

Plans were discussed to help a needy family. The demonstration was "Furnishing Homes For Children", the importance of furnishing a home to suit a child's need was stressed. Things should be their size so that they would be able to care for their clothes and toys also other personal things.

Mrs. R. A. Williams gave a talk on "Citizenship". Mrs. E. B. Hales spoke on "You Can Bring the Bible Into the Home", bringing its teachings to bear on every human experience. To make it real use the following inscription "Christ is the Head of the House", the silent listener to

Home Gardeners Resume Meetings For Year

The Home Gardeners held their first fall meeting Wednesday afternoon, September 15, at three-thirty at the home of Mrs. Glenn Brown with Mrs. Charles Sheffield co-hostess.

Mrs. Bill Sheffield, president, presided. The meeting opened with the Club Collect. During the business Mrs. Fill Taylor, Artistic Arrangement Chairman, made a report on the practice flower show which the club is to present in October. Further plans were discussed and much enthusiasm was shown.

Mrs. Bill Taylor and Mrs. Earl Hule presented an excellent program "Helpful Hints in Flower Arranging", at which time they completed many lovely arrangements, discussing as they arranged the container, materials and the lines used in the arrangements. All members were better informed after this very enlightening program and were urged to put much thought toward the coming show.

The hostess served a salad course with hot tea to: Mrs. Bill Sheffield, Mrs. J. T. Gresham, Mrs. J. M.
