

Beulaville News

Mrs. W. F. "Bud" Miller, News, Adv. Representative

Smart - Nethercutt Have Military Wedding In Alexandria, Va.

Miss Doreen Nethercutt of Washington, D. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Nethercutt of Beulaville, N. C. and Capt. Harry Smart of Quantico, Va., son of Mrs. James Arthur Smart, and the late Mr. Smart of New York, were married at 6:30 p. m., on September 18 in the Globe Baptist Church of Alexandria, Va. Rev. Charles A. Watkins performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in lace over satin, ballerina length dress with high neck and Peter Pan collar, and long pointed sleeves and lace mitts. The dress was buttoned with small satin covered buttons from the waist to the collar. She wore a waist length veil with a halo of orange blossoms and sequins. She carried a beautiful corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley with ribbons tied with miniature bunches of stephanotis.

Miss Lou Ann Nethercutt was her sister's maid of honor. She was attired in a dress styled like her sisters in blue net over taffeta, with a matching head dress and a cascade of yellow carnations and ribbons.

This was a military wedding and the best men and ushers were friends of the groom.

The mother of the bride was dressed in a white suit with brown accessories and she wore a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom wore a tan crepe dress with matching accessories and red rose corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Beulaville School and works for the government in Washington, D. C. Sgt. Smart attended military school in Tennessee and is in the U. S. Marine Corps of Quantico, Va.

After the wedding the couple left for a wedding trip to Tennessee. For her going-away outfit the bride chose a black woolen suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Cake Cutting
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams in Arlington, Va. was most beautifully decorated when they entertained the wedding party, families and close friends on the eve of the wedding. From a beautifully appointed bride's table, covered with a white linen cover and centered with an arrangement of red roses and burning tapers and a beautifully decorated three-tiered cake, Mrs. Danny Williams served cake after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. Miss Lou Ann Nethercutt served nuts and mints.

Informal Reception
Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Homer Howard of Alexandria, Virginia, entertained at an informal reception. The home

Bride-Elect Feted

Miss Julia Deane Lanier a recent bride-elect, was honored prior to her marriage on Oct. 30 when Miss Sandra Flagg, Mrs. Eugene Hoffman and Mrs. Margaret Doris entertained at the Hamilton Inn in New Brunswick with a luncheon. Upon arrival the honoree was presented with a corsage of yellow mums. She wore a dress of blue faille for the occasion.

An arrangement of white mums and greenery centered the luncheon table covered with an imported damask table cloth and bridal place cards marked. The seating arrangements for the 35 guests.

Miss Lanier was presented with many lovely gifts.

Barbecue Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Ashe Miller were hosts on Saturday night with a barbecue supper. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Smith, of Pink Hill, Pfc. and Mrs. Bobby Miller of Fort Bragg, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Freely Hall and Roger, Glenda and Betty Lou.

Rev. Morris, FWB Pastor Begins Work

Rev. Billy Morris of Four Oaks has begun his work with the Beulaville Free Will Baptist church. He completed Nashville College a year ago and came to the church as its pastor, highly recommended. Services will be held every first and third Sunday. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Terry Holds Revival Nov. 8

The Rev. T. O. Terry, pastor of the Cove Creek Free Will Baptist church in Cove City, will conduct a revival meeting at the Beulaville church beginning Nov. 8. Rev. Terry was the guest minister last year. His messages were simple and inspiring. The membership cordially invites everyone to these services of worship and fellowship each evening.

Lions Zone 2 Meet

The Beulaville Lions Club met Tuesday night at the lodge for a meeting of zone 2 District 4 with the president Ralph Jones presiding over the meeting. Lion A. J. Cavanaugh, president of the Wallace Club and past Deputy District Governor, David Henderson of Wallace, with present Deputy District Governor, Lauren Sharpe of Kenansville were among the out of town guests attending.

Attend DAR Meet

Mrs. Ray Humphrey, Mrs. Herman Miller and Mrs. Lou Belle Williams attended a meeting at the Colonel Thomas Johnston Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Monday night, Nov. 1 in the home of Mrs. D. B. Hood in Richlands.

Rev. Edwards Visits

Rev. and Mrs. Linwood Edwards and their daughter of Arapahoe were here to visit their parents last weekend. Rev. Edwards recently accepted two churches in the Arapahoe field. He filled the pulpit on Sunday night at the Beulaville Free Will Baptist church.

Chapter 237 OES Entertains District Dept. Grand Patron

The Beulaville Chapter 237 entertained their District Deputy Grand Patron, Colon Holland at its regular meeting Nov. 1 in the Masonic Hall. Visitors from the Kenansville and Rehoboth chapters were present.

Mr. Herring Speaks Beulaville PTA

Mrs. J. J. Sandlin, Jr. president of the Beulaville P. T. A., has announced that Mr. Dallas Herring of Rose Hill will speak on "The Responsibility of the Parents and Teachers Toward the School." All members are urged to be present.

Rev. Goodman Holds Revival At Wilmington

The Rev. Walter H. Goodman was in Wilmington, last week to hold a revival meeting at the Cape Fear Church. Dr. L. A. Taylor, president of Home Missions, Wilmington Presbytery, filled Mr. Goodman's pulpit on Sunday morning for the eleven o'clock service.

Former Beulaville Girl Weds In N. J.

In a candlelight ceremony in the St. Paul Church in Princeton, New Jersey, Miss Julia Deane Lanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Witkowski of New Brunswick, New Jersey became the bride of Eric M. Zopf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Zopf of Princeton, New Jersey on October 30 at 3:00 p. m. The Rev. A. Henry performed the double ring ceremony. The organist played the traditional wedding march for the recessional and processional. Mr. Eugene Hoffman gave the bride in marriage.

The bride was dressed in a tiered waltz length dress of candle light lace with fitted bodice and matching mitts. Her imported veil of silk illusion was attached to a cap of lace. She carried a sheath of ecru roses showered with ivy and ecru ribbons on a prayer book. Miss Sandra Flagg of New Brunswick, New Jersey was the bride's maid-of-honor. Her dress was patterned like the brides with a green velvet fitted top with a bolero skirt of net over taffeta. Her headpiece was of green velvet and net. She carried a crescent bouquet of yellow pompons and Talisman roses showered with ribbons.

Sidney Reynolds of Princeton, New Jersey, was the groom's best man.

W Of C Met Sat.

The Presbyterian Women of the Hallsville church met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Morris Grady presiding. The meeting opened with a prayer and a hymn. Reports of the officers were given and a report of the Presbyterial.

Mrs. Herman Miller was in charge of the program called "I saw the Church in Latin America." Assisting her were Mesdames Ralph Miller, Jean Miller, W. L. Miller, and Ashe Miller. Mrs. Leland Grady pronounced the benediction.

Attend HDC Tour

Attending the tour of the Scott's Store community with the home demonstration clubs were Mesdames Otis Miller, Frank Rhodes, Harvey Rhodes, Otis J. Miller, Elizabeth Mercer and Callie Miller.

Attend DAR Meet

Mrs. Ray Humphrey, Mrs. Herman Miller and Mrs. Lou Belle Williams attended a meeting at the Colonel Thomas Johnston Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Monday night, Nov. 1 in the home of Mrs. D. B. Hood in Richlands.

Attend DAR Meet

Mrs. Ray Humphrey, Mrs. Herman Miller and Mrs. Lou Belle Williams attended a meeting at the Colonel Thomas Johnston Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Monday night, Nov. 1 in the home of Mrs. D. B. Hood in Richlands.

Issue Invitations

Mrs. and Mrs. Leon Quinn, request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Betty Gould to Mr. Treasure Rhodes on Saturday, the thirtieth of November, at five o'clock at the Free Will Baptist Church in Beulaville.

Buffet Dinner For Miss Lanier In N. J.

Miss Julia Lanier, a bride-elect, was honored in Princeton, N. J. when Miss Pat McLaughlin entertained for her with a buffet dinner at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dorothy McLaughlin.

The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of fall flowers in the bridal motif. Upon her arrival the honoree was presented a corsage of red roses and an assortment of lovely gifts from the thirty guests present.

WMU Leadership Conference

The W. M. U. Leadership Conference of the Eastern Baptist Association met with the Mt. Olive Baptist church on Oct. 28 with 150 present from the various churches. Mrs. Lula Parker, associational supt. opened the meeting and presided. There were five separate conferences. Leaders for the conference were president, Mrs. Parker; stewardship, Mrs. O. S. Thigpen; mission study, Mrs. Robert Blackmore; young people, Mrs. Raymond Blanchard; and community missions, Mrs. Frank Wallace.

After lunch, with Mrs. G. S. Best leading, Mrs. P. E. Thigpen displayed posters showing the work for the entire associational year. Mrs. Louise Bratcher gave the November program from Royal Service. Assisting her were Mrs. J. Macon Brown, Mrs. Dot Thigpen and Mrs. Orzo Thigpen.

Mrs. A. E. Garner, the white cross chairman, urged all missionary societies to make contributions of linen to Baptist hospitals.

Attending from the Beulaville church were Mesdames Lula Parker, A. L. Brown, Orzo Thigpen, Adele Mathews, J. Macon Brown, Evelyn Thigpen, P. E. Thigpen, Jr. Marion Bratcher and W. N. Bostic.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Elton McGowen of Faison announce the birth of a daughter on November 1 in the Sampson Memorial Hospital. Mrs. McGowen is the former Arlene Sanderson of Beulaville.

Birthday

Little Miss Kay Jackson was graciously honored last week when her aunt, Mrs. Andrew Jackson, entertained with a party on her eighth birthday. The fifteen young guests assembled on the lawn and played games. A white cake with green and pink decorations was served with ice cream and drinks. Favors of bubble gum were given.

Kay was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

Miss Sanderson Hostess U. D. C.

The John Ivey Thomas Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met last Monday with Miss Ernie Sanderson.

The receiving rooms were decorated with lovely arrangements of fall flowers and flags. Mrs. Herman Miller presided over the meeting and called it to order. Mrs. S. P. Bostic led the chapter rituals and the flag salutes were given.

The chapter had been awarded the silver loving cup at a district meeting in Charlotte, presented by Mrs. Bill Carroll, recorder of crosses. This award was given to the chapter having the most perfect military service cross papers sent in from North Carolina in the year 1934.

Miss Sanderson served open faced sandwiches, cup cakes, nuts and iced drinks all decorated with the halloween motif.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dale Bucklew of Beulaville announce the birth of a daughter, Diana Arleen, October 28, in the Onslow County Hospital. Mrs. Bucklew is the former Jean Davison of Wilsonburg, West Va.

Organ Recital

Mr. D. D. Dawson, representative of the Mssus Company in Raleigh, gave a recital to demonstrate an organ on Wednesday night, Oct. 27 at 7:30 in the Beulaville Baptist Church.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Oxley and Jean Campbell were in West Virginia last weekend to visit Mr. Oxley's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Quinn of Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. Hector McNeil of Warsaw were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lula Parker.

Mrs. Katy Smith, Mrs. Horace Westbrook, Miss Dee Clarke, and Miss Patsy Kennedy were in LaGrange Sunday to attend the wedding of Betty Lynn Moore and Bill Elwood Carroll in Durham.

CECIL A. MILLER General Insurance Beulaville, N. C.

Office At Brown & Miller Co.

THIS WEEK ONLY

DRESSES

20% Off

Ethel's Shoppe

MT. OLIVE

Don't Sell Tobacco On A Falling Market!

IF THE PLACE YOU'VE BEEN SELLING TOBACCO IS GOING DOWN HILL, WIND UP AT THE BIG STOP ON THE MAIN. I.N.E.

THE CENTRE BRICK WAREHOUSE WILSON, N. C.

YOU CAN DEPEND ON STRONGER PRICES AT THE CENTRE BRICK RIGHT UP TO THE FINAL DAY.

THE CENTRE BRICK LEADS WILSON

WILSON LEADS THE WORLD!

