The Christian Viewpoint

Prepared by Department of Bible PRESBYTERIAN JUNIOR COLLEGE
Last night I walked down a path and looked up at the stars in a clear sky above. Thirty-two years ago I remember walking that same path...

If you paddle your own canoe, there's no one to rock the boat. The road to wealth is crowded with men who are turning back. The fellow who plays to please doesn't profit from his mistakes.

The Living God Lesson for December 12, 1954

DO ALL men "yearn for God"? Plainly, they do not. Many ignore him, many wish they could be sure he did not exist...

Only the Living God Satisfies Men do cry out for the living God, as the Psalmist said. Men do not really care for dead gods...

THE PRIORITY OF LOVE By REV. C. HERMAN TRUEBLOOD
Text: "Having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end." John 13:1.
Henry Drummond said, "Love is the greatest thing in the world." Christianity is a religion of love. "God is love." 1 John 4:16. The salvation of every lost soul, as well as every "born again" soul, depends entirely upon the reality of God's love; "For God So Loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16.
The proper relationship between Christians, as well as our attitude towards lost souls, depends upon the love of Christ—"Because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us." Roman 5:5. One of the main evidences that a person is saved, that he is a child of God, is determined by the sincere love that is manifested toward God and one's fellow man. "Love one another as I have loved you." John 12:1. "We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death." 1 John 3:14.
A person may make a thousand professions of faith; he may be baptized, partake of the Lord's Supper, give a tithe of his income, attend every service at his church, teach a Sunday School class, sing in the choir, pray beautiful prayers, make fine religious talks, even preach sermons, and at the same time be a damned, doomed, lost sinner, because in his heart he harbors malice, hatred, and an unforgiving spirit toward some other person—"Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." Eph. 4:32. "If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?" 1 John 4:20.
Not only are we to love members of our own church, or all Christians, "The family of God on earth," though we may not love "their ways," or behavior; we are to love our enemies—certainly a true child of God, will love the souls of all people, and have a sincere desire in his heart to "win them to Christ." "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." Matt 5:11. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," Jesus prayed for his crucifiers.
