

Warsaw Church, Socials

Mrs. Glenn Brown Phone 281-1

WARSAW CHURCH, SOCIALS

Mrs. C. F. Carroll Presents Program At U.D.C. Meet

The United Daughters of the Confederacy met on Thursday, March 24th in the home of Mrs. F. S. Berry with Mrs. L. S. Whittle, Mrs. N. A. Mitchell and Miss Mary Alice Blackmore as co-hostesses. The home was decorated throughout with lovely arrangements of spring flowers.

The meeting was opened with the Pledges to the Flags, which were led by Mrs. Fred Baars and followed by the Chapter Rituals, led by Mrs. G. P. Prigden.

Mrs. L. B. Huie, president, presided over the meeting, requesting the names of "Real Daughters" (G. D. C. Members whose fathers were in the Confederate Army). Those were Mesdames C. A. Womack, G. P. Prigden, Mills Hodges, John Barden, Joe Jordan, S. E. Hines and J. J. West.

A most interesting report was given from the nine members who attended the District meeting which was held in Goldsboro recently at the country Club. At this meeting it was announced that a silver bowl given in honor of Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., will be given to the chapter having the best attendance at the District Meeting.

Mrs. Paul Potter, Program Chairman introduced the chapter's own faithful and devoted daughter, Mrs. C. F. Carroll, who presented a most interesting and informative program "War Horses and Cavalry Leaders of the Confederacy."

The meeting was closed with the singing of "Dixie" and hostesses served a delicious coffee course with coffee to the twenty members and five visitors present.

Miss Betty Phillips of E.C.C. Greenville, spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Phillips.

Thurs. March 24 The Outcast John Derek and Joan Evans

Fri.—Sat. March 25—26 Arrowhead Starring Charlton Heston, Jack Palance and Katy Jurado — Also — Gypsy Colt

Sun.—Mon. March 27—28 Dragnet Jack Webb and Ben Alexander

Tues.—Wed. March 29—30 Sitting Bull Dale Robertson and Mary Murphy

Thurs.—Fri. March 31, April 1 Hell Below Zero Alan Ladd and Joan Tetzel

Mrs. J. T. Gresham was high scorer receiving a useful and attractive covered pie plate when Mrs. Edwin Sheffield entertained her club at bridge last Thursday afternoon. Bingo prize went to Mrs. Bill Sheffield who received 64 bulbs.

Mrs. J. T. Gresham Wins High Score

The Mineral Springs Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday afternoon at the Bowden Presbyterian Church in the recreational room with Mrs. Lillian Carter as hostess.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "This is My Father's World," followed by a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Norman Parks. During this time it was decided that the club would have a family party to be held April 7th at the Bowden Presbyterian Church 7:30.

In the absence of the home agent, a 4H girl, Miss Annette Holmes gave a most interesting demonstration on "Milk Variations," bringing out the great importance that milk plays in the diet.

Mrs. Parks gave a demonstration on framing pictures and reports were heard from Mrs. Archie Williams, Community Service Chairman and Mrs. W. H. Moore the Poultry Leader.

The meeting was closed with the repeating of the Club Collect followed by a social hour at which time the hostess served punch and assorted cookies to Mesdames Leon Taylor, Norman Parks, Wadley English, I. M. Carr, R. A. Williams, Gilbert Holmes, Mike Owens, Sylvia Peover, W. H. Moore, Charles Fredrickson and two visitors, Miss Annette Holmes and Marlene Moore.

Mrs. Elbert Mathis entertained club.

Mrs. Elbert Mathis was hostess to her bridge club last Tuesday evening with one table in play.

Mrs. F. A. Mitchell and Mrs. John A. Johnson received note paper as high and second high, respectively.

Mrs. M. H. Smith served delicious chocolate chiffon pie, topped with whipped cream and coffee to Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. J. N. West and Mrs. Bill Taylor.

Mrs. C. W. Hinson was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to the Penny Branch Home Demonstration Club with Mrs. R. M. Herring as co-hostess.

Mrs. J. B. Torrants presided over the meeting which was opened with the singing of "The Old North State," followed by an effective devotional taken from "Home Life" and presented by Mrs. Orman Grice.

During the business session, hostesses for the year were selected and a donation from the club to the Red Cross was made.

Mrs. Torrants announced the District meeting which is to be held April 14th in Kenansville.

Mrs. Pauline Johnson, Home Agent, gave a demonstration which appealed to all present. "What Is Proper to Wear?" Mrs. Johnson said that the way one dresses depends much on the locality in which one lives.

Mrs. Johnson gave the proper way to dress in the following occasions: 1. At home, dresses should be attractive to our families and easily laundered and comfortable.

2. Shopping, a suit is always good, worn with hat, gloves, large handbag and comfortable shoes.

3. At church, the dress or suit one chooses should always have that "covered look," using a small hat, gloves, worn, not carried and a

Mineral Springs H. D. Club Meets Thursday P. M.

The Mineral Springs Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday afternoon at the Bowden Presbyterian Church in the recreational room with Mrs. Lillian Carter as hostess.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "This is My Father's World," followed by a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Norman Parks. During this time it was decided that the club would have a family party to be held April 7th at the Bowden Presbyterian Church 7:30.

In the absence of the home agent, a 4H girl, Miss Annette Holmes gave a most interesting demonstration on "Milk Variations," bringing out the great importance that milk plays in the diet.

Mrs. Parks gave a demonstration on framing pictures and reports were heard from Mrs. Archie Williams, Community Service Chairman and Mrs. W. H. Moore the Poultry Leader.

The meeting was closed with the repeating of the Club Collect followed by a social hour at which time the hostess served punch and assorted cookies to Mesdames Leon Taylor, Norman Parks, Wadley English, I. M. Carr, R. A. Williams, Gilbert Holmes, Mike Owens, Sylvia Peover, W. H. Moore, Charles Fredrickson and two visitors, Miss Annette Holmes and Marlene Moore.

Mrs. O. S. Matthews entertains club.

Mrs. O. S. Matthews was hostess to her bridge club last Friday evening. The home was decorated with many lovely arrangements of spring flowers.

Mrs. Mitchell Britt was high scorer and received a lovely bridge set and Mrs. George Clark received costume jewelry as second high prize.

At the conclusion of play, Mrs. Matthews served a tempting salad plate and coffee to Mesdames Britt, Clark, W. G. Britt, Morris Jordan, John Vincent, R. D. Johnson and J. E. Strickland.

Mrs. Attila B. Vann of Clinton spent last week end with her grand children, Betty and Billy Vann.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Marr, and daughters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kenney of Pink Hill.

Did you ever feel like a "Regular Crime Wave?" Patricia did in "The Patsy."

handbag.

4. At H. D. Club meetings; dress simply, such as a sport outfit.

5. At funerals; except in the case of a close relative, black is going out of style, being replaced with some of the prettier dark colors.

Mrs. R. M. Herring, Community Service Chairman gave a good report on the Community Service Leadership meeting which was held in Kenansville recently, explaining that the Community Service Chairman is a "go between" between the club and the community, who tries to improve conditions existing in the community.

Mrs. James Sutton concluded the program with a short talk, "Care of Baby Children."

The hostess served apple pie in a mode, toasted nuts and coffee to the sixteen members and two visitors present.

Rotary Club Holds Dinner Meet

The Warsaw Rotary club met for their regular dinner meeting last Thursday at the school cafeteria.

A. M. Benton presided over the meeting and Bill Sheffield, fellowship chairman, presented Paul Potter with an anniversary gift.

A report was given on a project in which the club is to distribute "Four Way Test" plaques to be played in each of the high school classrooms and in the school library.

The Four Way Test is: (1) Is It The Truth? (2) Is It Fair To All Concerned? (3) Will It Build Good Will? (4) Better Friendships? (5) Will It Be Beneficial To All Concerned?

The program was returned over to Rev. Norman Flowers who gave an interesting talk on International Rotary.

Mission Study Taught At GA Meet

The Intermediate G. A. S. enjoyed a most interesting Home Study Course, "Through A Cuban Window" taught by Mrs. John A. Johnson in the home of their counselor, Mrs. Eugene Johnson last Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock. Mrs. Johnson gave a most vivid picture of the Cuban way of life, using most effectively attractive maps and posters, making the study even more interesting.

A delicious supper was enjoyed at six o'clock and the study was resumed.

G. A. S. attending the study were Joyce Braswell, Juanita Hinson, Joyce Potter, Ann Straghan, Pat Hubbard, Rebecca Eason, Jackie Fuzzell, Judy Rollins, Becky House, Mavis Jones, Leitha Barnette and Nancy Johnston.

Mrs. O. S. Matthews entertains club.

Mrs. O. S. Matthews was hostess to her bridge club last Friday evening. The home was decorated with many lovely arrangements of spring flowers.

Mrs. Mitchell Britt was high scorer and received a lovely bridge set and Mrs. George Clark received costume jewelry as second high prize.

At the conclusion of play, Mrs. Matthews served a tempting salad plate and coffee to Mesdames Britt, Clark, W. G. Britt, Morris Jordan, John Vincent, R. D. Johnson and J. E. Strickland.

Local Pupils Enter Piano Contest

The following piano pupils of Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr., took part in the District Piano Senior and Junior High School Contest which was held recently at New Hanover High School at Wilmington: Warsaw, Joanne Flowers, Excellent plus

Training Union Holds Study Course

The Baptist Training Union held their annual Study Course every night last week. Rev. Herbert Baker led the study for the adults and young people which was "A Church Revival." The intermediates had as their teacher, John A. Johnson who taught "Witnessing for Christ" and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vann taught the older and younger juniors, Mrs. Vann teaching "Jesus Saves" and Mrs. Vann Teaching "The Junior Union Manual."

On Monday evening following the study, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Strickland served refreshments and Friday evening at the conclusion of the study, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vann served refreshments.

Mrs. Cleo Hobbs Presides At Meet

The Business and Professional Women's Club met for their regular dinner meeting last Monday evening at the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Cleo Hobbs presided, presiding over the meeting and the minutes were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Lottie Boyette. During the business it was announced that the Dance Raffle sponsored by the club would be on April 7th.

Mrs. Thelma Taylor, First Vice President and Chairman of the 1955 Cancer Crusade, gave a report of the planning meeting held in Kinston and other information concerning the Cancer Crusade which will begin April 1st. Mrs. Taylor appointed the following committees: Education on Cancer, Mrs. Annie Thelma Harmon, Mrs. Mary S. Frazier and Mrs. Lena Carlson; Publicity, Mrs. Hazel Sharpe, Mrs. Lib Phillips and Mrs. Ethel Kitchener.

Those attending were Mesdames Cleo Hobbs, Thelma Taylor, Nell and Ruby Askew, Dorothy Rollins, Hazel Sharpe, Annie T. Harmon, Mary Farrior, Lena Carlson, Irene Strickland, Polly Cottle, Dorcus Rogers, Mamie Beatha, Lib Phillips, Miss Mary Alice Blackmore.

Entertains At Dinner

Mr. Frank McGowan of Kenansville entertained the following at dinner at Wrightsville Beach last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Best, Miss Sadie and Mary Ella Bennett, Miss Fannie Wilson and Charles Miller all of Warsaw and Mr. and Mrs. O. Stokes, and daughter, Diana, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McGowan, Mrs. Florence Currie and daughter, Florie and Richard Best, all of Kenansville.

Receives Award

Milford Quinn, who recently attended a Wholesale's Convention in Durham, received an award for having been responsible for the largest number of new members to the convention.

Have you heard of "The Patsy"? She's coming to the Pink Hill High School, March 25th, 8 p.m.

Judy Rollins, superior, Lynn Vesch, excellent; Kenansville, Gail Newton, superior, Betty Ingram, Excellent and from Wallace, Merle Mallard, excellent.

The judge for this contest was Robert Carter of East Carolina Teachers College.

Mrs. Cleo Hobbs Presides At Meet

The Business and Professional Women's Club met for their regular dinner meeting last Monday evening at the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Cleo Hobbs presided, presiding over the meeting and the minutes were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Lottie Boyette. During the business it was announced that the Dance Raffle sponsored by the club would be on April 7th.

Mrs. Thelma Taylor, First Vice President and Chairman of the 1955 Cancer Crusade, gave a report of the planning meeting held in Kinston and other information concerning the Cancer Crusade which will begin April 1st. Mrs. Taylor appointed the following committees: Education on Cancer, Mrs. Annie Thelma Harmon, Mrs. Mary S. Frazier and Mrs. Lena Carlson; Publicity, Mrs. Hazel Sharpe, Mrs. Lib Phillips and Mrs. Ethel Kitchener.

Those attending were Mesdames Cleo Hobbs, Thelma Taylor, Nell and Ruby Askew, Dorothy Rollins, Hazel Sharpe, Annie T. Harmon, Mary Farrior, Lena Carlson, Irene Strickland, Polly Cottle, Dorcus Rogers, Mamie Beatha, Lib Phillips, Miss Mary Alice Blackmore.

Entertains At Dinner

Mr. Frank McGowan of Kenansville entertained the following at dinner at Wrightsville Beach last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Best, Miss Sadie and Mary Ella Bennett, Miss Fannie Wilson and Charles Miller all of Warsaw and Mr. and Mrs. O. Stokes, and daughter, Diana, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McGowan, Mrs. Florence Currie and daughter, Florie and Richard Best, all of Kenansville.

Receives Award

Milford Quinn, who recently attended a Wholesale's Convention in Durham, received an award for having been responsible for the largest number of new members to the convention.

Have you heard of "The Patsy"? She's coming to the Pink Hill High School, March 25th, 8 p.m.

Judy Rollins, superior, Lynn Vesch, excellent; Kenansville, Gail Newton, superior, Betty Ingram, Excellent and from Wallace, Merle Mallard, excellent.

The judge for this contest was Robert Carter of East Carolina Teachers College.

Chinquapin News

Mr. and Mrs. Heburn Wilkens have returned home from a few weeks' visit with a son, in Wilson. Mrs. Leslie Wilkens and family, Mr. Wilkens has been feeble recently and enjoys visits from friends.

Mrs. Minnie Stevens of Chatsworth Lake has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Billie Brinkley and family and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Gatlin and daughters, Annette, and Mary and Linda have returned home to Jacksonville, Fla., after spending last week here with her mother, Mrs. Vida Milloy and attending the funeral of Mr. Lawrence Gatlin of Norfolk, Va. in Kinston last Friday.

Mrs. Ruby Beale and Marvin of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Blumington.

Miss Helen Murphy of New York City and Thomas Murphy of New Jersey spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hackley.

Mrs. F. F. Giddings and Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Gavin accompanied Mrs. Giddings' granddaughter who has spent several days with her back to her home in Raleigh last Tuesday, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Claxton Farmer.

Mrs. F. F. Giddings and Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Gavin spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Annie Scott and Mrs. David Murray in Rose Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Garrison of Pikeville and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McManus, Jr., of Sanford spent last week end with Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Baker.

Rev. Herbert Baker is preaching in revival services at North Rocky Mount Baptist Church all of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bobbitt of Sanford spent last week end with Mrs. Bobbitt's sister, Mrs. J. B. Torrants, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vann and Major and Mr. Eugene Johnson attended the Old Dominion Bandcamp in Richmond last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Britt and children spent last Sunday with Mrs. Britt's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Gibbs in Slideman.

Mrs. John Penville and children have returned after spending several weeks with Mrs. Penville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeVine of Flint, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Rivenbark and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Rivenbark, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hule and son returned Sunday after spending last five months at Camp Gordon, Ga., where Mr. Hule attended National Guard School.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland and daughter Suzanne, have been in Kinston at intervals recently making recordings of little Suzanne's nice and wonderful voice; Suzanne you know is the "Singer" in the family and is hardly two years yet. You should hear her!

Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Beulaville was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutherland and family at their home here.

Mrs. Stedman Brown is in a Kinston hospital suffering from a serious back ailment but is getting on nicely.

shop of Portsmouth, Va., U. S. Navy spent last weekend with their mother, Mrs. V. Milloy and other friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Marcell and daughter, Annette spent Sunday near Tarboro with Mrs. W. E. Greenham and friends of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Va. spent last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. R. Futreal and family.

Mr. T. T. Sanderson and R. Collette made a business trip to Greenville last week and spending time with friends there.

Miss Kay and Thomas Sanderson were party guests last Sunday afternoon of Miss Annette and Mary Gatlin for a children's delightful party at home of Mrs. Milloy. Dick Futreal who has been a patient in a Wilmington hospital recently is at home and we hope will be ready to resume his regular duties soon.

Mrs. Ben Batts has been celebrating his birthday with beautiful cards from his son, Robert Batts somewhere in Japan - Japanese cards - beautiful too. Mrs. Betsy Lanier recently celebrated a nice birthday also.

Mrs. Pauline Gatlin of Norfolk, Va. was a Saturday guest of Mrs. A. F. Gatlin here.

Mrs. Bula Sanderson who has been indisposed recently with cold is out and about once again, at her home.

Miss Joan Sanderson and Miss Lou Wood was a guest of Annette's and Mary Gatlin for a short visit last Sunday afternoon while Annette, the artist of the family was out sketching the Baptist church a stage scene for the Hula Theatre, Drive-in - and the Milloy homestead. Such art.

Mrs. Guy Rhodes of Richlands spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. E. Sanderson and family and friends, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Bete Brinson made a business trip to Wallace last Thursday making a few stops over here with friends.

Mrs. Elsie Dixon of New Bern, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Rodolph Morton and family. Mrs. Dixon has been ill for several days but, able to be about in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland and daughter Suzanne, have been in Kinston at intervals recently making recordings of little Suzanne's nice and wonderful voice; Suzanne you know is the "Singer" in the family and is hardly two years yet. You should hear her!

Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Beulaville was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutherland and family at their home here.

Mrs. Stedman Brown is in a Kinston hospital suffering from a serious back ailment but is getting on nicely.

shop of Portsmouth, Va., U. S. Navy spent last weekend with their mother, Mrs. V. Milloy and other friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Marcell and daughter, Annette spent Sunday near Tarboro with Mrs. W. E. Greenham and friends of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Va. spent last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. R. Futreal and family.

Mr. T. T. Sanderson and R. Collette made a business trip to Greenville last week and spending time with friends there.

Miss Kay and Thomas Sanderson were party guests last Sunday afternoon of Miss Annette and Mary Gatlin for a children's delightful party at home of Mrs. Milloy. Dick Futreal who has been a patient in a Wilmington hospital recently is at home and we hope will be ready to resume his regular duties soon.

Mrs. Ben Batts has been celebrating his birthday with beautiful cards from his son, Robert Batts somewhere in Japan - Japanese cards - beautiful too. Mrs. Betsy Lanier recently celebrated a nice birthday also.

Mrs. Pauline Gatlin of Norfolk, Va. was a Saturday guest of Mrs. A. F. Gatlin here.

Mrs. Bula Sanderson who has been indisposed recently with cold is out and about once again, at her home.

Miss Joan Sanderson and Miss Lou Wood was a guest of Annette's and Mary Gatlin for a short visit last Sunday afternoon while Annette, the artist of the family was out sketching the Baptist church a stage scene for the Hula Theatre, Drive-in - and the Milloy homestead. Such art.

Mrs. Guy Rhodes of Richlands spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. E. Sanderson and family and friends, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Bete Brinson made a business trip to Wallace last Thursday making a few stops over here with friends.

Mrs. Elsie Dixon of New Bern, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Rodolph Morton and family. Mrs. Dixon has been ill for several days but, able to be about in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland and daughter Suzanne, have been in Kinston at intervals recently making recordings of little Suzanne's nice and wonderful voice; Suzanne you know is the "Singer" in the family and is hardly two years yet. You should hear her!

Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Beulaville was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutherland and family at their home here.

Mrs. Stedman Brown is in a Kinston hospital suffering from a serious back ailment but is getting on nicely.

shop of Portsmouth, Va., U. S. Navy spent last weekend with their mother, Mrs. V. Milloy and other friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Marcell and daughter, Annette spent Sunday near Tarboro with Mrs. W. E. Greenham and friends of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Va. spent last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. R. Futreal and family.

Mr. T. T. Sanderson and R. Collette made a business trip to Greenville last week and spending time with friends there.

Miss Kay and Thomas Sanderson were party guests last Sunday afternoon of Miss Annette and Mary Gatlin for a children's delightful party at home of Mrs. Milloy. Dick Futreal who has been a patient in a Wilmington hospital recently is at home and we hope will be ready to resume his regular duties soon.

Mrs. Ben Batts has been celebrating his birthday with beautiful cards from his son, Robert Batts somewhere in Japan - Japanese cards - beautiful too. Mrs. Betsy Lanier recently celebrated a nice birthday also.

Mrs. Pauline Gatlin of Norfolk, Va. was a Saturday guest of Mrs. A. F. Gatlin here.

Mrs. Bula Sanderson who has been indisposed recently with cold is out and about once again, at her home.

Miss Joan Sanderson and Miss Lou Wood was a guest of Annette's and Mary Gatlin for a short visit last Sunday afternoon while Annette, the artist of the family was out sketching the Baptist church a stage scene for the Hula Theatre, Drive-in - and the Milloy homestead. Such art.

Mrs. Guy Rhodes of Richlands spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. E. Sanderson and family and friends, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Bete Brinson made a business trip to Wallace last Thursday making a few stops over here with friends.

Mrs. Elsie Dixon of New Bern, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Rodolph Morton and family. Mrs. Dixon has been ill for several days but, able to be about in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland and daughter Suzanne, have been in Kinston at intervals recently making recordings of little Suzanne's nice and wonderful voice; Suzanne you know is the "Singer" in the family and is hardly two years yet. You should hear her!

Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Beulaville was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutherland and family at their home here.

Mrs. Stedman Brown is in a Kinston hospital suffering from a serious back ailment but is getting on nicely.

shop of Portsmouth, Va., U. S. Navy spent last weekend with their mother, Mrs. V. Milloy and other friends.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Marcell and daughter, Annette spent Sunday near Tarboro with Mrs. W. E. Greenham and friends of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Va. spent last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. R. Futreal and family.

Mr. T. T. Sanderson and R. Collette made a business trip to Greenville last week and spending time with friends there.

Miss Kay and Thomas Sanderson were party guests last Sunday afternoon of Miss Annette and Mary Gatlin for a children's delightful party at home of Mrs. Milloy. Dick Futreal who has been a patient in a Wilmington hospital recently is at home and we hope will be ready to resume his regular duties soon.

Mrs. Ben Batts has been celebrating his birthday with beautiful cards from his son, Robert Batts somewhere in Japan - Japanese cards - beautiful too. Mrs. Betsy Lanier recently celebrated a nice birthday also.

Mrs. Pauline Gatlin of Norfolk, Va. was a Saturday guest of Mrs. A. F. Gatlin here.

Mrs. Bula Sanderson who has been indisposed recently with cold is out and about once again, at her home.

Miss Joan Sanderson and Miss Lou Wood was a guest of Annette's and Mary Gatlin for a short visit last Sunday afternoon while Annette, the artist of the family was out sketching the Baptist church a stage scene for the Hula Theatre, Drive-in - and the Milloy homestead. Such art.

Mrs. Guy Rhodes of Richlands spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. E. Sanderson and family and friends, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Bete Brinson made a business trip to Wallace last Thursday making a few stops over here with friends.

Mrs. Elsie Dixon of New Bern, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Rodolph Morton and family. Mrs. Dixon has been ill for several days but, able to be about in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutherland and daughter Suzanne, have been in Kinston at intervals recently making recordings of little Suzanne's nice and wonderful voice; Suzanne you know is the "Singer" in the family and is hardly two years yet. You should hear her!

Mrs. Cora Sanderson of Beulaville was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sutherland and family at their home here.

Mrs. Stedman Brown is in a Kinston hospital suffering from a serious back ailment but is getting on nicely.

shop of Portsmouth, Va., U. S. Navy spent last weekend with their mother, Mrs. V. Milloy and other friends.