Roger Hill Gets Settlement From Automobile Wreck

A Superior Court jury in Kinston, last Thursday, ordered John Wylie Lee and Marion B. Rouse to pay the sum of $2500 to Roger Hill, of Pink Hill, in settlement of a claim for damages resulting from an automobile accident late in December of last year.

The young men are students at State College. They were returning to the College from Fayetteville when the accident occurred.

Hill suffered a broken ankle and was forced to wear a cast for several months. He is a son of Lenoir County Commissioner Whitford Hill and Mrs. Hill.

Rev. Lauren Sharpe Speaks At F.H.A. And F.F.A. Meeting

"First we must learn to get along with ourselves, when we come to the point that we can understand ourselves we have a purpose in life. We must have a purpose before we can have International Good Will!" thus stated Rev. Lauren Sharpe when he spoke at International Good Will at the Father - Son Mother - Daughter supper on Friday evening of last week at the Kenansville High School lunch room.

"We can understand life when we learn to share with each other and understand the scope of all of our living. When we have learned to understand ourselves we seek the better in other folks. These are the things in life that promote International Good Will, if we put up a solid fortress of loving and understanding."

Miss Barbara Mitchell, president of Kenansville F.H.A. presided at the meeting and invited the guests to enjoy a delicious supper. After the supper, the meeting was opened with group singing of "America" after which Rev. Sharpe gave his inspiring talk on International Good Will.

Mr. Blizard, local Agricultural Instructor, then showed many interesting slides taken when he was in service in Korea. The meeting marked another successful year of F.H.A. and F.F.A. work in the Kenansville School.

Tobacco Variety Demonstrations Are Set Up In Duplin For Farmers' Benefit

The Tobacco Variety Demonstrations have been set up in Duplin County for observation this year, according to Vernon H. Reynolds, Duplin Farm Agent.

Over a hundred plants of nine different varieties have been planted in identical demonstrations on the farms of Earl Smith, Pink Hill, Route 2, and R. H. Lanier, near Beulaville.

Reynolds reports that all varieties being tested are black shank resistant with the exception of Virginia Gold. The Virginia Gold is being planted to check the disease in the field on which the demonstration is being conducted.

Coker's 100 and 139, out for public consumption for the first time this year, is in the demonstration. Both varieties are black shank and Granville Wilt resistant.

Golden Gem 711, put out of Blissett's Seed Co., is black shank resistant. Dixie's Bright, 101, which has been on the market for about five years, is also being shown.

Four new and unnamed varieties are being tested through cooperation with the North Carolina State College Experiment Station.

Reynolds says some of these varieties may be released next year. By numbers the tobaccos are: 30441, 20414, 30065, and 30074.

Farmers in Duplin and surrounding counties are invited to visit the demonstration areas throughout the summer, Reynolds said.

Demonstration On Tobacco Scheduled Friday In Duplin

A tobacco irrigation demonstration will be held on the Aaron Williams farm, Friday, at 2 p.m., according to Vernon H. Reynolds, Duplin Farm Agent.

Williams' farm is located three miles from Chinquapin and four miles from Beulaville on N. C. Highway 41.

R. R. Bennett, Extension Tobacco Specialist from N. C. State College, will conduct the demonstration. Some of the things to be demonstrated will be water holding capacity of the soils, water penetration and water loss.

"Irrigation is new in North Carolina and farmers who plan to irrigate will need to know as much as possible about when to apply water, how much to apply and how fast to apply it," Reynolds said.

All farmers who plan to irrigate their tobacco and all other interested persons are urged to attend the demonstration.

B. F. Grady Cub Pack Holds Monthly Pack Meeting; May Plans Are Made

B. F. Grady, Pack 40, held its monthly Pack Meeting April 28, at B. F. Grady School.

To open the program, presided over by Cubmaster N. A. Morrison, parents and Cubs gathered around the flag and recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the United States flag, after which the group sang "America the Beautiful."

All Cubs remained around the flag and read the Conservation Pledge. The group sang "America." Skits were given by the B. F. Grady Den and the Outlaw's Bridge Den, after which the Cubs told of their visit to the Calypso Veneer Plant.

Awards were made by Cubmaster Morrison.

Plans for May include the Pack Meeting at Maxwell's Mill, Legion Hut, a "Circus Theme" will be followed. Each Den is to prepare a feature attraction, feat of skill, home game and a "Circus Band" and play.

The Pack meeting is scheduled for June 2.

Negro Woman Is Being Held For Faison Shooting

Frances Gause, 33 Negro woman from Virginia is being held by Duplin County Sheriff's Department without bond for the shooting of a Fowler Negro, near Faison, Monday around 6:30 p.m.

Sheriff Ralph Miller said today that Fowler is in a Clinton Hospital in "critical condition" after being shot in the stomach by Gause with a .12 gauge shotgun.

Gause, from Virginia, was at Faison, when the accident occurred. Sheriff Miller said that Gause developed appendicitis while in the Kenansville jail and was removed to the Duplin General Hospital for an operation Tuesday.

She is charged with "assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill."

Investigation into the shooting is continuing. The initial arrest was made by Deputy Murray Byrd.

Mrs. Cavenaugh Dies; Husband Is Stricken Also

Mrs. Rovene Quinn Cavenaugh, wife of A. L. Cavenaugh of Warsaw, died early Monday morning in the Hospital at Virginia Beach after suffering a heart attack a few hours earlier.

She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Owen Quinn of Beulaville.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock from the Warsaw Presbyterian Church by Rev. Norman Flowers. Burial was in Pinecrest Cemetery there.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Kitchen of Virginia Beach, two grand children. Three sisters Mrs. J. S. Miller of New Bern, Mrs. J. O. Miller of Kinston and Mrs. Lula Quinn Parker of Beulaville and a number of nieces and nephews.

Returning home from Virginia Beach Mr. Cavenaugh suffered a coronary heart attack in Murphreesboro. No doctor was in town. A Baptist preacher rushed him to Ahoakie, the nearest hospital, where he is now. Dr. Ewers of Warsaw, went to see him Wednesday afternoon. He will stay in the Ahoakie hospital a week or ten days. Dr. Ewers said, and then will be brought to Kenansville or carried to the hospital at Virginia Beach. Dr. Ewers said his condition seemed fairly good. Mr. Cavenaugh is in his early sixties.

Bad luck usually pursues the person with bad habits. It usually makes a man hot under the collar when he gets frozen out of a good deal.

FISH LUCK — Brad Minshew, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Belton Minshew, of Warsaw, went fishing for the first time and landed a two pound — 13 and one-half ounce fish. The fish measured 18 inches in length. The catch was made in Milton West's Pond, near Warsaw last Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew Patterson attended the District College of Beauty Knowledge held at the Cherry Hotel in Wilson, last week end. Classes were under the direction of leading hair stylist and cosmetologist.
