As you read this I will be "up in dem' dar hills" probably somewhere in the cool, mountain breeze, thinking about all this hot weather and "barndays"—and might be wishing I were back in some of it. Anyway, here's hoping all of you a happy summer and prosperous year and many more to come.

Mr. John Hollingsworth celebrated his 80th birthday last Tuesday with an invited dinner out with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cavensugh and family. Mr. Hollingsworth also attended the 50th wedding anniversary of his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pierce of near Pin Hook, where his family of 12 children were present; each child's name started with the letter R. I didn't get the information if it were one of the R.R.'s which we all know as the three R's or not. A 13th child died two years ago. Mr. Pierce has been in poor health recently, but enjoyed the day among his many children.
