Venuto - Smith Vows Spoken St. Charles Catholic Church, Va.

Carrying a prayer book topped with colorful orchids with stephanotis blossoms, Miss Mary Lynn Venuto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Venuto of Warsaw, was married in a beautiful ceremony on October 23 at 4 o'clock p.m. in the St. Charles Catholic Church of Arlington, Virginia to Charles Anthony Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smith of Washington, D. C.

The program of musical music was presented by Mrs. Jean Costin, organist and Michael White, vocalist of Washington, D. C.

The bride entered the church with her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of white tulle with a matching half hat and a cascade of white tulle. Her hair was styled in a classic and elegant length.

of Alencon lace encrusted in seed pearls. The full skirt had a circular train. Her veil of imported French illusion fell from a cloche of matching lace and pearls.

Mrs. Kathryn Fullerton of Havrelock was matron of honor. She wore a gown of gold crystals over tulle fashioned with a bodice and full bouffant skirt with a matching gold velvet head band and veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of brown fujii mums with matching satin ribbons.

Mrs. Jean Kelly of Arlington, Va., and Miss Mae Brock of Warsaw were bridesmaids. They were attired in gowns of bronze crystallets over tulle fashioned similar to that of the honor attendant, and carried a cascade bouquet of gold fujii mums with matching satin ribbon.

Clyde B. Rees of Washington, D. C. acted as best man and ushers were Andrew M. Barr and Anthony G. Dennis.

For her daughters, wedding Mrs. Kitchin chose a dress of bitter sweet silk satin made on empire lines with a matching half hat. Her corsage was a spray of small brown orchids.

Mrs. Venuto, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue silk dress with matching accessories and corsage of purple orchids.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Kitchin entertained the wedding guest at a reception held in the Hotel 2400.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Godwin of Warsaw presided over the guest book and Mr. and Mrs. Avon Sharpe greeted guests at the entrance to the reception room.

The serving table, covered with a white lace cloth, was centered with a four tiered wedding cake, topped with the traditional bridal couple and flanked by a silver coffee service on one side and a silver punch service on the other side. Pops of fujii mums of bronze and gold were used to circle the cake with the bride's prayer book used at the center of the floral circle. The entire reception was carried out in candlelight.

Mrs. H. C. Newman of Winston-Salem, aunt of the bride served cake.

Approximately 175 attended.

For their wedding trip the bride changed to a taupe cashmere suit, accessorized in honey beige and the orchid lifted from her prayer book. They will be at home at 1702 Chesterfield Avenue, Arlington, Va.

The bride was graduated from High Point College and a member
