Christmas Cheer Given Aged

It is more blessed to give than to receive, was the thought in the minds of individuals and groups at this Christmas time when visits were made to the home for the aged, Johnsons Church members of Circle 1 and 2 gave a program on "The Vision of the Birth of Jesus," singing carols with the group. They also brought a small attractively decorated Christmas tree for a bed room.

The young people of the Rose Hill Baptist Church led by Mrs. Rackley and Mrs. David Boney, gave an interesting program on brought individually wrapped gifts for each member of the home also an attractive box of fruits, candy and nuts.

Kenansville Dial 2881

The Warsaw Baptist Church group brought attractive packages for each member of the home, with Mrs. Kathleen Snyder's Sunday School supplying the 19 large cans of juice for their future enjoyment.

Mrs. Christine Williams and Mr. Marshburn brought a group of Cub Scouts and a tree. This they decorated attractively in the living room with the "family" assisting where they could. They also placed presents under the tree for the guests. To conclude the evening, they gave most interesting program.

Program Presented At Service Hospital

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. N. B. Boney with the local Red Cross carried Mrs. Bowing of Pink Hill, Miss Ruth Cavanaugh, Kenansville and Miss Patsy Rhodes of Beaufort to Camp Lejeune. Mrs. Bowing entertained the boys with her doll show, using dolls from twenty five different countries. The boys in the wards were most receptive and delighted with the show.

Rudy Hasty Is Party Honoree

A number of young boys in town helped Rudy Hasty celebrate his seventh birthday on last Wednesday when his mother, Mrs. Hortense Hasty entertained at a wicker roast at their home on Rutledge road. Mr. Joe Costin assisted Mrs. Hasty in cooking and serving hot dogs soft drinks and cookies. Also led the group in many games and contest.

Mrs. Williamson Is Dinner Hostess

Mrs. D. C. Williamson was hostess to a dinner party on Thursday evening last week. Christmas decorations were used throughout the home.
