

The Moving Arm

By HERMAN CALDWELL-CUREMAN
On a certain road in Franklin County, in Maine, which once bore the name of The Dark Entry, there was a thriving lumber mill...

Of this first accident, there are strange tales even today. Accounts differ, one placing it in 1877, and another in 1890. But it is well authenticated that Bill Wing lost his arm in the mill. It was torn from his body with his shoulder blade by a belt. He was almost dead when he was found shortly afterwards by his father...

There is no record of any adult's seeing the arm until late one fall almost ten years after the accident. Young Zebe Parker was coming by after a 'time' over at East Jaloppi, and was getting thirsty after all was a long ride-way beyond Slab City, but the music was good and the cider better, and Zebe's horse brought him home safe if Zebe was still.

For some reason in July it's most apt to make an appearance. It has been seen floating over the wall going in the direction of the spring. Two or three times in the fall when the Jolly Hollow folks have been sitting around the fire, they have heard sharp raps on the window and looked up to see a white arm moving off into the darkness.

Take Soil Sample Soon As Possible

Farmers who are planning to take soil samples this season will want to get their samples into the Soil Testing Laboratory just as soon as possible. The sooner the samples go in the sooner the soil report can be received. An increasing number of farmers are sending in their samples earlier each year.

The Christian Viewpoint

Men are still guilty of the mistake of those who said in Jesus' day, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" We think great and outstanding things must come from big cities or far away places. Right in our vicinity, in Scotland County, at Wagram, one of our neighbors has written an outstanding book. How many of us have heard of it?

Christian Marks
Lesson for January 23, 1936
HOW can we tell whether a person is a Christian or not? Is there anything that marks all Christians? There is faith, of course; but only God can see faith itself. Jesus said: "By their fruits ye shall know them." What kind of "fruits" should we look for, in ourselves, to see whether we are Christians? Only God is the final Judge. We should not be too quick to say brusquely, "I know..." Better say, "I have good reason to believe..." So, what Dr. Foreman are the good reasons for believing that a person is a Christian? Sticking to our one chapter in Luke for this week, we can take note of three marks of a Christian, that is, of Jesus' followers, those who take his word as in order. They sound quite simple and ordinary; what is extraordinary about them, is the thoroughgoing quality Jesus expects.

GOD'S TENDER CARE
BY REV. C. HERMAN TRUEBLOOD
TEXT: "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." 1 Peter 5:7.
God is not a tyrant. He is all-powerful, omnipotent, and eternal; he is a righteous Judge who shall hold us all accountable for "the deeds done in the body"; but he is not a stern, cold-blooded, unsympathetic creator and ruler of mankind. The Bible pictures God as just, merciful, and of "tender compassion." "God is love." Our heavenly Father has "numbered the very hairs of your head—He takes notice of even the tiny sparrow that falls."
Our God is a God of TENDER CARE. The Bible contains many illustrations and symbols of His Tender Care—Observe.
1. THE SYMBOL OF A MOTHER'S COMFORT. "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem." Isaiah 66:13. How comforting a true mother can be; but how much more comforting can God's tender love be.
2. THE SYMBOL OF A FATHER'S PITY. "Like a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him." Psalm 103:13. An earthly father's concern for his children is natural in the case of every true father; our heavenly Father's concern is of eternal concern.
3. THE SYMBOL OF A SHEPHERD'S PROTECTING CARE. "As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day." Ezekiel 34:12.
4. THE SYMBOL OF A NURSE'S TENDER CARE. What a Christ-like service is that rendered by sympathetic, gentle, inspiring nurses. God is pictured to us as being like unto a nurse ready and eager to soothe our aches and pains. "But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cheriseth her children." 1 Thes. 2:7.
5. THE SYMBOL OF A HEN'S MATERNAL INSTINCT. "I have gathered thy children together as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings." Matt. 23:37.
6. THE SYMBOL OF THE FLUTTERING EAGLE. "As an eagle stirreth up her nest, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings; so the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange God with him." Deut. 32:11-12.
7. THE SYMBOL OF A BRIDEGROOM. "As a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee; and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee." Isaiah 62:5.
