Miss Detwiler and Mr. Sutton Pledge Vows in Columbia, S. C.

A lovely wedding of wide interest was that of Miss Juliana Fairchild Detwiler, daughter of Mrs. Albert Leon Detwiler of Columbia and the late Mr. Detwiler, and Quincy Jackson Sutton, Jr., of Warsaw and Columbia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Jackson Sutton, Sr., of Warsaw which took place at 7:30 p.m. January 14 in the Shaquon Methodist Church in Columbia. Dr. Robert N. DuBose officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Palms, white gladioli and anemones, and white cathedral candles in candelabra decorated the church.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Avinger, organist, and Lou Merritt, soloist, presented the wedding music. The usher - groomsmen were William Taylor of Warsaw, cousin of the bridegroom; Francis Allen and Lloyd Johannessen, both of Columbia, and Frank Kellam of Princess Anne, Va. Pete Beck, cousin of the bride, carried the candles.

Mrs. William Ralph Lewis Jr., of Columbia and Durham, N. C. matron of honor wore a dress of aqua accordeon pleated net over taffeta, the bodice made with long fitted torso and matching detachable net stole.

An aqua velvet flower was attached to the front of the full double-tiered skirt. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and feathered carnations. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Lloyd Johannessen, Mrs. Bevan Funderburke, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. William E. Jones. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant. Miss Margaret Susan Beck, cousin of the bride and junior bridesmaid, wore an aqua accordeon pleated net dress with off-shoulder effect. Her nosegay was like those of the other attendants.

The bride entered the church with her brother, John Detwiler and was given in marriage by her mother. She was lovely in her wedding gown of heavy bridal satin with princess bodice fastened in the back with tiny satin buttons, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and square yoke with hand applied motifs of Chantilly lace.

The full skirt was embroidered with large motifs of Chantilly lace on the front and sides and extended into a cathedral train. Her waist-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a scalloped cap of Chantilly lace embroidered in seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Quincy Jackson Sutton, Sr., of Warsaw, father of the bridegroom was best man.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of Dior-blue taffeta, white gloves and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length dress of mauve taffeta with yoke embroidered in sequins and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. Assisting the bride couple in receiving were Mrs. Thurman Miller of Kinston and Mrs. Charles O'Neal of Durham.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., and upon their return will make their home in Columbia.

For traveling the bride wore a tailored suit of bright navy-blue wool, white blouse, navy hat with white satin band, suede shoes and bag and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sutton attended Wesleyan College and was graduated from the University of South Carolina with an AB degree in English. At the University she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority and she is a former member of the Spinners club of Columbia. The bride is a medical technician with United States Public Health Service.

Mr. Sutton was graduated from Duke University with an AB degree in economics. He was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. The bridegroom is a special agent for the Great American Insurance Company.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Miller, Kinston, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neal, Jr., Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Charles O'Neal Sr., Durham, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Boykin, Sumter, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Pollock, Augusta, Georgia; Mrs. Frank Kellum, Jr., Princess Anne, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Marriner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert West, Warsaw; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo E. Tyndall, Camden, S. C.
