P.T.A. Holds Meet Monday

The P.T.A. met on Monday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Turman Albin, president, presiding. Mrs. Lauren Sharpe gave the devotional. Following the business session and reports from the committees, Mrs. Lawrence Sutherland was introduced and welcomed by Mesdames Frances Oakley, George Penney, J. H. Riverbark and Holmes Rouse in presenting the Founders Day of the Parents Teachers Association which was dated back to 1897. She brought out that the Women's Club organized the local P.T.A. in 1924.

The past presidents of the local P.T.A. were recognized. A delightful social hour was enjoyed by the guests in the Home Economics room, with Mrs. A. T. Outlaw, assisted by Home Ec girls, serving birthday cake and punch from an attractively decorated table carrying out the Valentine motif.

Girl Scouts

Troop No. 57 of the Intermediate Girl Scouts met in the Kenansville High School Auditorium on Wednesday afternoon, February 8, at 8:15. The patrol leader, Joyce Whaley presided assisted by her scribe, Florie Currie. After a short business session the girls practiced songs for the World Day of Prayer with Mrs. Florence Currie at the piano. During the social hour which followed Dianne Dail who has recently been transferred here from a Goldsboro Troop, gave her version of "Mary Had a Little Lamb". Scouts Mary Lou Reynolds and Carol Pate were co-hostesses. They served chocolate-nut cup cakes and soft drinks. Other adult members present were Mesdames N. B. Boney, Hamilton Quinn and George Penney.
