

Straight from the Shoulder — Right from the Heart of Duplin

Two Receive Highest Boy Scout Awards In Scout Services Here Sunday Morning

Two Kenansville Boy Scouts left Church Sunday full of warmth, praise and the feeling of a job well done. Sunday was annual Boy Scout Sunday in Kenansville and Rev. Strad Snively preached a very appropriate sermon for the occasion in Grove Church. His subject was "In The Beginning Was God". About thirty Scouts, the Scoutmaster, John Hall, and Cub Scouts with their Den Mother, Mrs. John Hall, occupied front seats in the congregation of nearly 125 persons.

Controversy Arises In Duplin Co. Over Ditch Drainage Tile Project Rejection In Kenansville Section

BY PAUL BARWICK
A ditch which has been draining farm land for three years, and part of it for 10 years, has come to the forefront in a Duplin County agricultural controversy because it has been tiled and a portion of it extends onto non-farm land at present.

One Still Destroyed; One Store Robbed Only One Prisoner Now In County Jail

The local Sheriff's department experienced a rather quiet week end. Several searches were made for liquor but nothing found. One still was destroyed in Wolcrape Township by Constables Rodney Thigpen and Coy Hill. A steel door outfit with copper condenser and cap and two barrels of muck were found in exactly the same spot one was destroyed by officers two years ago. It was near Deaver's Mill. Two men were seen to run from the still but the officers were unable to overtake them.

Revival Services Begin In Beulaville Next Sunday A.M.

A week and a half Revival will get underway in the Beulaville Baptist Church next Sunday morning, February 19th. Services will be held each morning and evening. The Rev. Don Austin of Greensboro will do the preaching. Rev. A. L. Brown is the pastor. The public is invited.

Garden Club Beautifies Kenansville's Old Land Mark, The Spring Site

BY RUTH P. GRADY
Kenansville's old land mark, "The Spring", has been given a new dress for Spring. It has been converted into a lovely and cozy picnic ground. The members of the Kenansville Garden Club have put forth a great deal of planning and hard work to get it ready, and now they can hardly wait for spring to better see the fruits of their efforts.

Briefs

Dollar Days
Thursday and Friday of this week are Dollar Days in Kenansville. Shoppers will be treated to a special feature of Dollar Days specials. For further details see the inside pages of this issue.

Photographs
On next Monday a photographer will be at the Holt-Simmons Store in Kenansville to make pictures of the youngsters of Kenansville and surrounding towns and sections. Free prizes will be given away. Read the ad on an inside page of this issue.

Twenty Warsaw Boy Scouts Receive Advancement, Wallace Court Of Honor Rotarians Entertain 29 Boy Scouts

At the Court of Honor, held in the Wallace High School Thursday night, twenty boys of Troop No. 20 of Warsaw received advancement. Those attaining Tenderfoot Award were Neal Mitchell, Benny Dunn, Jimmy Strickland, Billy Van, Allen Fountain, Dwight Smith and Lee West.

Clinton Firm Approved For U. S. Supplier

Phillips Ice Cream Company of Clinton has been approved as a supplier for military installations for the Third Army Area, comprising the Southeastern section of the United States.

Sweet Potato Meet Here Next Thursday

A sweet potato meeting will be held Thursday, February 23, at 10:00 a.m. in the Agriculture Building in Kenansville, N. C.

Rev. George Turner Joins Times Staff

Rev. George Turner of near Pink Hill has joined the Duplin Times staff on a part time basis. Mr. Turner will solicit advertising, subscriptions and job printing. He brings his work last week and at present is covering the eastern half of the county, but will work generally over the county. Any courtesy extended him will be appreciated. His home address is Pink Hill, route 2.

Beulaville National Guard Annual Inspection Held; Report 'Excellent'

Battery B, 150th AAA Bn, "Gun M.M." of Beulaville, held their annual armory inspection January 12, 1956. Inspecting officer Major William B. Aycock, acting assistant Army Inspector General. The unit received the grade of "Excellent" for the year.

83-Year-Old Perry Hanchey Ruled Competent

It took just 15 minutes Saturday night for a jury to decide that 83-year-old Perry Hanchey of Island Creek is competent to manage his own affairs.

Bulk Of $75,000 Estate To Go To Nephew Pearlle Hanchey; Doctors Testify On Sanity petition were Uria Hanchey, sole surviving brother of Perry Hanchey, and nephews Leland Bradshaw, Howard Hanchey and Ed Hanchey.

Hubert C. Chaney New FSA Supervisor Sturgeon Goes To Whiteville

Hubert C. Chaney has recently been transferred to Duplin County as County Supervisor of Farmers Home Administration replacing Mr. George W. Sturgeon who was transferred to Whiteville, North Carolina.

Nitrogen Talks Be Given Tuesday

Two meetings will be held on Tuesday, February 21, to discuss the use of nitrogen solutions on small farms. Dr. E. R. Collins, Extension Agronomy Specialist from State College, will be at these meetings to discuss nitrogen solutions for small grain, corn, and other crops.

Raleigh Pastor To Preach In Wallace Revival Feb. 19-24

REVIVAL SERVICES will be held in the Wallace Methodist Church February 19-24.

Operetta At Grady

An operetta, "The Magic Beans", will be given Wednesday, February 22, 1956, at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the B. F. Grady High School.

Campaign Begins To Raise Funds For F.W.B. College At Mount Olive

BY PAUL BARWICK
"A million or more in five years." That is the slogan of a financial campaign which is now being conducted in this area for Mount Olive College.

Basket Ball Tournament Opens Here Next Week And Girls Race Wide Open

The 1956 annual Duplin County Basketball Tournament will get underway in Kenan Memorial Gymnasium here on Friday night, February 24 at six o'clock with the girls playing the opening game.

Clinton Firm Approved For U. S. Supplier

Phillips Ice Cream Company of Clinton has been approved as a supplier for military installations for the Third Army Area, comprising the Southeastern section of the United States.

Hubert C. Chaney New FSA Supervisor Sturgeon Goes To Whiteville

Hubert C. Chaney has recently been transferred to Duplin County as County Supervisor of Farmers Home Administration replacing Mr. George W. Sturgeon who was transferred to Whiteville, North Carolina.

Raleigh Pastor To Preach In Wallace Revival Feb. 19-24

REVIVAL SERVICES will be held in the Wallace Methodist Church February 19-24.

Operetta At Grady

An operetta, "The Magic Beans", will be given Wednesday, February 22, 1956, at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the B. F. Grady High School.

BLOODSHED BOXSCORE
ON D.C. HIGHWAYS
Killed this year: 108.
Killed to date last year: 114.
If safety is worth a life, drive and walk carefully!