Citrus fruits are rich enough in Vitamin C to yield a day's supply in one average serving such as a whole orange or a half grapefruit. But according to Miss Earp, it is also present in significant quantities in other foods. She points out that the following foods have equal amounts—each enough to supply a day's needs of Vitamin C: 1 1-2 cups canned tomatoes or juice; 3 small fresh tomatoes; 1 cup grapefruit juice; 5 ounces orange juice; one whole large orange (pulp and juice); 3-4 cup fresh or frozen strawberries; 1 1-8
