What Questions Vets Are Asking

Q I am the widow of a World War I veteran and I am supporting a child under 18 years of age. My salary has just been raised to the point where I no longer will be eligible for a VA pension. Could a pension be paid in behalf of my child?
A—Yes. So long as your child's annual income does not exceed the legal maximum, he will be eligible for pension payments in his own right. The payments will begin as of the day following the date of your last payment.

Q—Is there any time limit on filing a claim for reimbursement of burial expenses of a veteran?
A—Yes. The claim must be filed within two years after the date the veteran was buried.

Q—I am a Korean veteran and I'm thinking of buying a home. I will have to wait for several years before I am ready to buy. When I'm ready, will I be able to get a GI home loan, or is the program due to expire soon?
A—You will have plenty of time

Q—Is flight training by itself allowed under the War Orphans education program?
A—Flight training by itself is prohibited. It may be taken, however, if it is part of a standard college course for which credit is given toward a degree.

NOTE: Further information regarding the above or any other VA administered benefit can be obtained at your local VA Office, Room 807 Borden Building, Goldsboro, N. C.

HOW DOES YOUR TOWN LOOK?

THE very foundation of progress for any town rests on one very simple fact — the appearance of the town.

An unkempt, dirty, careless-looking community never develops. But a town with a "clean face" becomes a proud, progressive town. It attracts citizens with self-respect, character and a talent for getting things done. That brings better living and more prosperity to the whole community and the rural area it serves.

So look at your town with a critical eye — refresh your mind with a new picture of it, as an outsider would see it. Then, if it doesn't measure up, you can start doing something about it right now. Your Finer Carolina Committee will welcome your suggestions on how to make your town one of Carolinas' Finest.
