Sandlin-Hill Vows Spoken In Hallsville Baptist Church

Sunday, September 1st at 6 o'clock in the Hallsville Baptist Church, Miss Doris June Hill became the bride of Mr. David Allen Sandlin. The Rev. Norman Aycock officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilson of Beulaville and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sandlin also of Beulaville.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Lila Lanier pianist and Miss Norma Exum, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Exum sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Vows were exchanged before a white covered altar which was graced with long leaved pines, four seven-branched candelabra entwined with ivy holding burning tapers and baskets of gladioli.

The bride entered the church wearing a white length gown of nylon and acetate lace. A lace jacket with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves ending in points over the hand covered the strapless bodice. The skirt featured alternate ruffles of lace and nylon net. Her fingertip veil of french illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible covered in lace topped with a

Norman Velma Sandlin, Jr., Weds Miss Georgia Ann Smith In Ceremony

In the presence of their immediate families, relatives and closest friends, Miss Georgia Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Smith of Wallace, and Norman Velma Sandlin, Jr., of Beulaville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sandlin, Jr., exchanged vows on Sunday, August 25th at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The wedding was performed at the home of the bride's parents, "Serene's Villa", east of Wallace, with the Rev. Horace Hilton, pastor of the Winter Park Presbyterian Church, officiating. The double ring rites were used with the couple exchanging wedding rings.

The mantle in the living room of the home formed a most appropriate background for the lovely wedding. A profusion of gladioli in bridal white, poms, southern smilax and other greenery was used in the center mantle arrangements, flanked by three branched candelabra holding burning white tapers. A white prof-dieu with white satin pillows was used.

Mrs. Francis Townsend, cousin of the bride, pianist, rendered wedding selections prior to the ceremony. Irvin Graham soloist, sang "Through the Years" and "O Promise Me" prior to the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony while the bridal couple knelt.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of ivory satin with an off-shoulder neckline filled with tulle yoke and crushed tulle fichu, trimmed with satin rosebuds. A deep tulle ruffle outlined the full skirt and long formal train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a satin band embroidered with delicate pearls in intricate design. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, centered with a deep purple throated white orchid and showered with satin streamers, tied in lovers' knots, and bridal tube roses. She wore tiny single pearl earrings and a pearl necklace which belonged to her great aunt, Mrs. Charles Fisher Taylor of Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Franklin Davis of Pulaski, Virginia was her sister's matron of honor. Her dress was of pink nylon lace over pink taffeta. It was fashioned with a deep occupied neckline in back and in front with tight sleeveless bodice and bouffant street length skirt. She wore short white gloves and white shoes and gloves and her wide-brimmed open-crowned hat was of pink chiffon with white satin ribbons. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pom poms with white nylon net and white satin streamers.

The maid of honor was the bride's other sister, Miss Betty Williams Smith of Charlotte, and her bride's maids were Miss Sammie Ann Williams, cousin of the bride, Miss Peggy Sandlin and Mrs. Jerry Cottle, both of Beulaville, and Mrs. Hal F. Sikes of Delaware, sisters of the groom.

Their gowns and flowers were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Miss Susan Carr was flower girl. She was dressed similarly to the honor attendants and her nosegay was of dainty white pom-poms and carnations, and white net.

Honorary flower girl was little Miss Jill Matthews Davis of Pulaski, niece of the bride, who was dressed in frilly pink organdy. Her nosegay was a miniature of little Miss Carr's.

Miss Smith had as her honorary bridesmaids, Misses Martha Ann Smith, Paula Owen, Sylvia Caudell, June Fisher, and Ann Herring, all of Wallace; Miss Joyce McGowan of Wallace; Mrs. Pat Turner of Nashville; Miss Dot Tharion of Jacksonville; Miss Jopica Sandlin of Beulaville; Miss Ann Quimp of Chincopquin and Miss Susan Lisk of Charlotte.

They made a lovely picture in pastel shaded bouffant evening dresses as they stood on the stairs in front of the entrance of the Smith residence holding white burning cathedral tapers. The banister was entwined with smilax and garlands of flowers with a cluster of white bridal bells at the foot. The honorary bride's maids headbands were fashioned from flowers.

The groom had as his best man, his cousin, Jimmy Phillips of Beulaville, Ushers were Franklin Davis of Pulaski, Virginia, brother in law of the bride, Jerry Dean Sandlin, brother of the groom, Jerry Cottle, brother in law of the groom, and Elmore Sandlin, cousin of the groom, all of Beulaville and T. J. Baker of Wallace.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a sheath dress of crushed nylon lace over crushed chiffon in the same shade. Her hat was of draped orchid chiffon, fashioned with a wide brim with a cluster of silk and velvet roses shaded from deep purple to delicate lavender, at one side. She wore white accessories and a purple throated orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sandlin, mother of the groom was attired in an outfit of mauve lace fashioned along fitted lines, with close fitting matching hat and white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was a purple orchid.

Mr. Sandlin is a graduate of Wallace High School and attended Florida McDonald College, Red Springs, and East Carolina College, Greenville.

The groom was graduated from Beulaville High School and attended Kings Business College in Raleigh and Hardbargers in Kinston.

For traveling the bride wore an ensemble of navy blue, with silk cotton blend sheath dress, cloche hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Her going away handkerchief was of bridal illusion.

Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Sandlin will be at home in Wallace where he is employed with a local oil company.

Directing the wedding was Miss Ella McGowan of Wallace.

Out of town guests attending the Sandlin - Smith wedding were, Mrs. Albert Pope of Fayetteville, Mrs. Swift G. Boykin of Brooklyn N. Y., Miss Doris Tharion of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Davis and Jill of Pulaski, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lisk, Susan and Danny of Charlotte;

Dr. John W. Hearn, Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Register, James Smith and Miss Barbara Smith, Turkey, Miss Lois Erwin, Easley, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Holly and Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Johnson, Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilkins and Debbie of Edenton.

Miss Lillian N. Quinn, Mrs. F. J. Phillips, Miss Pauline Flowers, Judge Grady Mercer, Miss Ella Rose

RECEPTION

A reception was held at the bride's home immediately following the wedding given by the bride's parents.

Greeting guests on the front porch were Mr. and Mrs. A. McCoy Herring.

Wedding cake, punch, ice cream, and mints were served. The bride's table was thrown with a most handsome hand made taffeta cloth. The wedding cake was an artistic creation of three rectangular tiers, with the two top tiers on columns topped with a cluster of wedding bells, centered with dainty frost, pink roses and other bridal decorations.

The cake was flanked by massive three-branched silver candelabra holding burning pink tapers.

Appropriate floral arrangements were used on a side chest and on the mantle.

Mrs. William Farrier rendered selections during the reception.

BUFFET DINNER

On Saturday evening August 24, at seven o'clock, prior to the Sandlin - Smith wedding rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edward Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Davis and Miss Betty Williams Smith entertained members of the wedding party, out of town guests, parents of the groom, and those who had extended pre-nuptial courtesies to the bride-elect at a buffet dinner party at the Smith residence.

Guests were greeted on arrival by the hosts and hostesses and after they had been shown the gift room, were invited into the dining room where a beautiful "old fashioned" buffet supper was served.

Traditional southern dishes were served with the menu consisting of country cured ham, turkey, rice and giblet gravy, dressing, maccaroni and cheese, Irish potato salad, deviled eggs, candied yams, butter beans, relishes, and hot biscuits.

Hot coffee was served as the beverage while guests selected from a tray which featured their choice of cake in several different flavors.

The bridal couple - elect and the wedding party were seated at tables on the sun-porch, with the bride's table centered with a basket of white satin ribbons holding the bride elect's gifts to her attendants and the groom - elect's gifts to his attendants. These were presented at the close of the dinner party.

After all the guests had been served and had enjoyed the delicious meal, the rehearsal was held.
