Kenan High Downs Fayetteville; Beulaville Wins First Game In Years; Bulldogs Win

By JOE COSTIN
Times Sports Editor

Rain failed to halt the James Kenan High Tiger's last Thursday as they rolled through the mud to a 20-7 victory over the Fayetteville JV.

Speedy halfback, Gail Henderson took a hand off early in the first quarter from the little magician, QB Bill Straughan and raced 67 yards for a TD. Johnny Godbold added the extra point.

In the second quarter the Tigers marched 87 yards to a TD with Johnny (Wagon Wheel) Godbold ripping off long yardage and Straughan sneaking over from the two. Again Godbold's conversion was good.

Late in the third quarter Fayetteville fumbled on fourth down and the Tiger's took over and scored three plays later with Straughan again going over from three yards out.

Starting the fourth quarter Coach Bill Taylor sent a complete new team in and after holding the Bulldogs in check most of the quarter they began to move and with the time running out Blee went over for a TD to end a 65 yard march.

Final score, Kenan High 20—Fayetteville JV 7.

This week the Tiger's travel to the Port City where they tie up with the strong Wilmington JV on Friday night, September 13th.

Wallace - Rose Hill led by little Willie Piner triumphed over the Red Devils of Jacksonville High 18-4.

Jacksonville's Jack Cohen took the opening kickoff and sprinted 81 yards for a TD—but it was Wallace - Rose Hill's night the rest of the game.

Willie Piner, a 135 pound senior returned a punt 85 yards to tie the score in the first period. A 6 yard plant off tackle by Jerry King made it 12-6 for the Bulldogs as the half ended. In the third quarter, Piner took a reverse and raced 44 yards for the final score.

Last Thursday night, down in Beulaville the folks were mighty proud and happy about their new coach as could be expected. Coach (Continued On Back)

Teach Warsaw Christian Worker's School

Rev. B. B. SLAUGHTER, retired Minister of Durham, who will teach a course on 'Personal Christian Living' in the Christian workers school to be held at the Warsaw Methodist Church on the nights of September 23rd, 24th and 25th.

Rev. Slaughter has served the North Carolina Methodist Conference for the past 45 years during which he has served on every board and commission in the Conference. He has served two six year terms as District Superintendent. For the past twenty years he has been counselor in Youth Assemblies.

Most recent appointments served before retiring were: Morehead City, Lumberton, Rockingham and St. Paul in Durham.

Jaycee Valley Now Open For Miniature Golf

Last week end was the first time citizens have had a chance to use the Jaycee Valley, Kenansville's new miniature golf course.

The course which is an investment of around $1,000, is not paid for. All proceeds from the play will go toward paying off the $650 indebtedness.

A spokesman for the Jaycees said today that the ultimate goal of the Jaycees in Kenansville is to pay for the miniature golf course and then begin a fund which will be used to build a community swimming pool.

People of Duplin County who have not seen the new miniature golf course are missing a treat and an evening of entertainment by not taking advantage of the new source of entertainment in Kenansville.

Two members of the Ministry of Cooperatives, Thailand, are beginning a year's study in the United States by observing first hand cooperatives and agricultural programs in the United States.

Chalong Ruangsiri and Kobbial Saphanich are visiting in Duplin County on their first touch with America from the County level.

They arrived in Washington, D. C. August 9, and remained there until coming to Duplin County for one week's study and observation. When they leave Duplin, they will enroll at N. C. State College where they will study until February 7, 1958. Their studies will be centered around agricultural economics.

March 17 through May 30, they will be enrolled at Ohio University. Their schedule calls for them to attend the Agriculture Cooperatives Training Course in Washington, D. C. June 9 through July 25.

They will be in the United States one year, scheduled to depart for Thailand August 2, 1958.

Ruangsiri, chief of the Department of Producers and Consumers Wholesale division, said today that he has been 'very much impressed with the living standard of the American farmer.'

He pointed out that farmers living conditions are 'very good' and that in Thailand, 'farmers do not own automobiles.'

While in Duplin County, Ruangsiri and Saphanich visited the Kenansville Production Credit Association and talked to manager Garland King about his office's functions and association with farmers.

Ruangsiri said that in Thailand the credit cooperative loan about $10,000,000 annually (American money standard). He said there are more than 10,000 credit cooperatives in Thailand with each cooperative representing approximately 20 farmers.

Saphanich, whose duties are to organize and inspect cooperative associations in the central part of the country, pointed out there are four objectives on their visit to the United States.

The objectives are: (1) to develop an understanding of the feed, seed, tools, machinery and other farm operation supply needs that farmers have and which must be obtained from reputable dealers, farmers' cooperatives, or other sources.

Two, to acquire a working knowledge of the way that farmers deal with their cooperatives when they need these supplies and how their cooperatives service them.

Three, to acquire a sense of values and a knowledge of the farm tools, equipment and other supplies that farmers should and need to purchase in order to farm efficiently and economically.

And four, to become acquainted with general and recommended farm management procedures and with the techniques of keeping farmers abreast with the latest information.

CRUSADE—WHAT IS A CRUSADE?

How can one be started? Does it create peace, happiness or chaos and trouble? Why can't it be used to create things such as the roof repaired on the Scout Hut, the necessary repairs that are needed to make the Hut more useful and convenient, a building not used will certainly fall apart. What better way can the parents and interested towns people put to use their time than working together for something that will help build future citizens, namely Scouts. It is understood the money is available for some of the projects mentioned.

Just needs a boost and a working start. Let's get a crusade started for the Scout's Hut Improvement!

Former Beulaville Resident Turns Author First Book 'Threads Of Gold' Off Press Author Be In Beulaville Saturday Sept. 21

Former Duplin Resident, Mrs. Myrtle Lee Powers, wife of Rev. J. L. Powers of Turkey has turned author and her first book is entitled 'Threads Of Gold.' It has been off the press about three weeks and reports are that it is selling good in Goldsboro, Wilmington and Dunn. Mrs. Powers was a visitor in the Times office this afternoon and tells us that it will soon be on sale at the Warsaw Drug Company, Kenansville Drug Store, Deal's Gift Shop in Beulaville and she hopes to place them on sale in stores in Faison, Magnolia, Rose Hill and Wallace.

The book grew from her first newspaper article, written several years ago for the Smithfield Herald, telling the story of a family reunion. Her story was liked so well by readers of the Herald that Mr. Rose, Clerk of Johnston County Court in Smithfield, asked her to write other articles. She did and became a regular feature writer for the Herald. After writing for several years she decided to compile her articles into a book which she called 'Threads of Gold,' and it promises to become a big success. Mrs. Powers says it is not fiction, it is true. The names are not fictitious but real life persons. There are names of many Duplinites in the second section of the book. The book is more or less of an historical nature with a Christian background.

On Saturday, September 21st, there will be an Autograph party at Deal's Gift Shop in Beulaville from 9:00 a.m. until 6 p.m. Mrs. Powers will be there during these hours to meet her friends and make new acquaintances. She will autograph the book for anyone wishing her to do.

The following letter was received by the Times from her this morning.

Dear Mr. Grady,

I am sending you one of my books 'Threads of Gold' which I hope you will look over and find it favorable for some publicity in your paper. The book is now off the press and (Continued On Back Page)

Elizabeth Ann Whaley Goes To Duke Hospital For More Examinations

BY PAUL BARWICK

Elizabeth Ann Whaley, six-years old, went to Duke Hospital yesterday where examinations began to determine the exact condition of her heart.

Doctors at Duke have indicated to Elizabeth Ann's guardians, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Horne, Magnolia, that an operation is necessary to correct a congenital heart condition.

It was learned this week from Dr. J. S. Kendall, chief of Crippled Children Section, State Board of Health, that the section does accept financing of cardiac surgery cases that it is not financially able to pay for the operation.

Dr. Kendall's office points out that if the Whaley case meets qualifications for financial assistance it is available.

A trust fund has been set up in Duplin County which is to be used to help finance Elizabeth Ann's heart operation. R. V. Wells, Clerk Superior Court in Duplin County, who is accepting contributions, said that he has received $107.25.

"When it comes to picking up a buck some fellows have an inclination in their reach.—Phil Wells.

Operation Delayed

The following story was released from Durham today by the Associated Press:

DURHAM Duke Hospital surgeons say that six months of tests and observation are necessary before they determine whether or not 6 year old Elizabeth Ann Whaley will undergo a heart operation.

The child came here for preliminary tests yesterday then returned to her foster home in Magnolia where she will be under the care and observation of a physician. She will come back to the hospital next spring for final diagnosis.

Duke surgeons explained that she probably suffers from an opening between two arteries leading from the heart, which normally close at birth.

They said the waiting period will give ample time for positive diagnosis and to observe her general physical condition.

The child first caught public focus when her non-legal guardians, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Horne launched a search for her father in order to get his consent for the operation. The father, Johnny Whaley, signed a consent affidavit at an unindicted Army base.

Mount Olive College Gets $2,500 Gift

Mount Olive, Sept. 9 — A gift in the amount of $2,500.00 to Mount Olive Junior College from Dr. C. C. Henderson, a local physician was announced today by W. Burkette Raper, president.

The purpose of the gift Mr. Raper stated, is to purchase the necessary scientific supplies for the inclusion of Chemistry in the curriculum of the College beginning with the fall semester.

In announcing the gift, President Raper declared, "Dr. Henderson has been an ardent supporter of Mount Olive Junior College ever since the College opened here in 1954. Two years ago he gave the College an endowment fund in the amount of $5,000 and since then has made numerous smaller contributions. In addition to his gifts of money, Dr. Henderson has served as College physician without charge from the beginning of the institution."

Cliffs State Park One Of State's Fastest Growing Park Facilities

'Cliffs of the Neuse State Park is one of the fastest developing and growing parks in the State's Park System.'

Bruce Price, superintendent of the Cliffs Park said that an indication of the need for expansion of facilities and the use of facilities already at the Park is seen especially during the past season.

"We have had to let people leave the Park every Sunday because of insufficient parking space," Price said. "We have gone so far as to fill the parking lots and then take up every available parking space along the roadsides within the Park."

He added, "Expansion is absolutely necessary to take care of the increased attendance and demand of the people on the Cliffs of the Neuse State Park."

The 1957-58 budget calls for $22,150 to be spent in Park improvement.

The Museum is to be completed with exhibits depicting the history and geology of the Cliffs. Final plans call for three wings to be constructed for the Museum; but, for the time being the one structure now at the Cliffs which is part of the total Museum plan, will be completed.

Swimming and fishing started at the Cliffs' lake in 1955. The lake had been completed the previous year. Boating has not been allowed on the lake until now because of a State regulation which does not permit private boats on such a lake as that at the Cliffs.

The 1957-58 budget has an appropriation within it for the construction of a boat house and purchase of boats.

Facilities at the bathhouse are to be increased in order for 1,300 swimmers to be accommodated at any one time. In the past, the 900 swimmers available have permitted 1,000 swimmers to use the lake daily. With the increase of 300 boats, it means that the Park can now accommodate a total of 2,000 swimmers daily during the 1958 season.

Figures at the Cliffs' office show that 15,450 swimmers used bathhouse facilities in 1955. The latest figures compiled show that 22,774 persons had paid to swim in the Cliffs' lake through August 18.

A new parking area is to be constructed this fall and winter. It (Continued From Front)

Feeder Calf Sale To Be Held Friday

Goldsboro Feeder Calf Sale will be held Friday, September 20, at Hobbs Stockyards, on highway 117, Goldsboro.

The sale is sponsored by the N. C. State College Extension Service, Wayne County Livestock Association and N. C. Cattle Association.

Four hundred heifers and steers will be on sale. These animals weigh from 300 pounds to about 600 pounds, Vernon Reynolds, Duplin County Farm Agent, said "This is a good time for people to get some good calves for feeding out. This is really good stuff."

Four Men Inducted In August

The following men were inducted by the local board, in August, according to Mrs. Francis F. Oakley, clerk.

George Lonnie Denning, Robert Oneil McIver, Emanuel Coston and Samuel Jackson Stroud.

The September call for induction is for five men on September 24th. There will be no registrants examined in September.

Wallace-Rose Hill Will Not Play Off

Wallace - Rose Hill will not represent the East Central conference this year if it should win the championship leaving this honor to the runner-up.

The announcement was made by Thell Overman, coach of the Bulldogs, at a meeting of the conference coaches last week.

Mount Olive Coach Dave McCleny, loop president, presided. Among the business disposed of was a new method for selecting all-conference players. It was voted that each coach is to bring the name of three players to the next meeting November 4, when the all-conference team will be selected, for the consideration of all coaches.

The coaches also voted to pay the officials at half - time rather than wait until the end of the games.
