Passion Play Story Be in Wilmington

JOSEPH MEIER As The Christ

WILMINGTON — The renowned Original Black Hills Passion Play, which reconstructs faithfully the dramatic events of the last seven days in the life of Christ on earth, will be presented in Wilmington on October 16, 17, 18 and 19.

One of the oldest of Passion Plays, it is being sponsored here by the Star-News Newspapers as a public service.

Eight performances — four matinees and four night programs — will be presented in spacious Brogden Hall of the Memorial building. The matinees, arranged especially for Southeastern North Carolina school children, will begin at 2 p.m. with the exception of the one on Saturday, which will begin at 2:30 p.m. The evening performances on an individual reserved seat basis will begin at 8:15 o'clock. A popular schedule of prices prevails and tickets may be ordered in advance from the Star-News Newspapers Passion Play committee.

Presented in English and featuring Josef Meier as the Christ, the play has been endorsed by the clergy and school authorities throughout the country. Locally it has been accorded the endorsement

Weekly Tobacco Report Eastern North Carolina Flue Cured

Demand was stronger for Eastern North Carolina flue-cured tobacco this week. Volume of sales was light during the first part of the week, but fairly heavy toward the end. Receipts by the Stabilization Corporation under the Government loan program for the week amounted to around 7 per cent of gross sales. Loans have been made on approximately 5.6 per cent of the season's gross production — this compares with about 21 per cent for the same period in 1931.

The Federal — State Market News Service reports gross sales for the week ending October 4 totaled 34,523,237 pounds for a season high average of 456.45 per hundred. The foregoing week sales for the season reached 285,449,837 pounds for a $54.40 average. During the same number of sales days last year 399 million pounds averaged $33.25.

Over half of the grade averages average was up 87 cents from the Quality of marketings improved a little. The percentage of leaf offerings was smaller, while the proportion of lugs and cutters showed a gain. Principal sales consisted of poor to good leaf, fair and good lugs and low and fair cutters.
