E. E. Smith Negro School Honor Roll

E. E. Smith High School of Kenansville, under the direction of the Student Council is releasing the names of students who made the Honor Roll last month.

The Honor Roll System is based on a point system, and each student must have at least five subjects of which he is studying. No student who has dropped a subject will be considered an honor student by the Student Council.

Points are determined in the following manner: A, three points, B, two points, C, one point, D, one point. These points are added together and divided by the total number of subjects the student is registered in.

A "B" average is necessary for Honor Roll recognition. An "A" average is determined from 2.00 up. Those persons making an average of "A" are as follows: Susie Branch, Floria Burnette, Deborah Glaspie, Levonzel Glaspie, Estella Mathis, Jennie Miller, Mary Moore, Mildred Southerland, Mary Catherine Williams, Wilma Giles, Lowell Carr, Samuel Miller, Samuel Smith, Bettie Earden, Maybelle Bryant, Samuel Carr, Lussie Moore, Geneva Vann, Maybelle Earden, Joseph T. Williams, Benjamin Mathis, Rosa McArthur, Margaret A. Faison, Lauretta James, Carl Joyner, Lucille Baines and Evelyn Newkirk.

The "B" Honor Roll: Bertha L. Brite, Ietha Herring, Marient Moore, Delois Southerland, Clarence Davis, Larry Davis, Mary Bixell, Bertice Glaspie, James Mainor, Helen C. Miller, Geraldine Moore, Hazel Middleton, Charles Nobles, Lawrence Smith, Margaret Miller, Emma C. Farrior, Thomas Graham, Mollie James, Bernice Outlaw Napoleon Branch, Bettie Glaspie, Stella Hall, Bettie M. Gillespie, Clara Dobson, Donnie Farrior, Harold Outlaw, Minnie Southerland, Roy Southerland, Betty Keenan, George Hall, Hester James, Irene Miller, Rosa E. James, Sarah Rodgers, Lila Stokes and Pattie Vann.

The Christmas Story will be presented in a play "And Lo, The Star" with music by the Glee Club and the Band on December 19, 1937 at 8:00 p.m. in the gymnasium.

On December 20, 1937 the Student Council will sponsor a Christmas Party for the High School Body whereby each student who has purchased a ticket will receive a Christmas bag.
