Kenansville Garden Club Holds Meet

The Kenansville Garden Club held its first meeting of the new year on Tuesday night of last week in the home of Mrs. Willard Brinson. This meeting was a business session to make plans for the coming year.

Each lady of the club wore a hat which she had designed from flowers. Prize for the best and most original hat was a tie between Mrs. Mattie Sadler and Mrs. Vance B. Gavin.

The president, Mrs. Christine Williams, presided. Year books were given out and projects for the coming year were discussed as follows: repairs to the tennis courts, plantings at the Spring and making scrap books for patients at the hospital. A living Christmas tree has been donated to the hospital.

During the social hour the hostess served home made cake, nuts and coffee.

Friendship Night Observed, Chapter

Friendship Night was observed here in the local chapter room on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock when Kenansville Chapter no. 215, Order of the Eastern Star of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina met for its bi-monthly meeting.

Ten visiting Stars were present representing three nearby chapters whose memberships include many of our former members. The chapters included Warsaw, Beaulieu and Pleasant Hill. The Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, Virginia and Colon Holland were in their respective stations. After the Ritualistic opening and a business session an impressive program entitled "The Book of Friendship" was presented by the Worthy Matron and Associate Matron assisted by the Conductress, Associate Conductress and Five Star Points. A social hour followed.

Mr. Charles Cheek of Norfolk, Va., arrived Monday to spend the winter with Mrs. W. M. Ingram. He will attend James Kenan High School.

Miss Carol Bell spent the week end with Miss Patricia Whitman near Mt. Olive.

Miss Sylvia Sue Prevost is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homer Prevost of Thomasville. Her engagement to Ellis Brinson Vestal, Ensign, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis V. Vestal of Kenansville, is announced by her parents. The wedding will take place October 19 in Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Thomasville.

When it met for its September meeting here on Monday afternoon at 3:30, Mrs. Boney also conducted the Opening Devotional. The Program, was in charge of the pastor, Rev. Stradford, T. Snively who made an interesting blackboard talk on "The Church A Teaching Fellowship." A goodly number of members were present. They were all urged to go to Sunday School and help observe "Rally Day" and remain for the Preaching Service and participate in the Communion Service. It was noted with much regret that this would be the last service that our pastor would hold for us in this community since he and his wife and baby girl are moving next week to Mt. Gilliard where he has accepted a Pastorate there.

H. D. Club Met With Mrs. Stroud

The regular monthly meeting of the South Kenansville Home Demonstration Club was held on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Dollie Stroud with the president, Mrs. Martha C. Barwick presiding. The opening song was "O'Master Let Me Walk With Thee" followed by the Devotional led by Mrs. Louise Boney assisted by Mrs. Celia Stroud. Ten members answered to the Roll Call. The program was in charge of Mrs. Elizabeth Ferrell. Leaders reported on Arts & Crafts, Home Beautification and Education. The Demonstration on "Eat to Keep Young" was given by Jane Fields. A game was enjoyed during the social hour. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Tina Chestnut served iced drinks and assorted cookies.

Local Girl Scouts Met Wednesday

Polly Brinson president and Cynthia Kretsch served as scribe when the Girl Scouts held their regular weekly meeting last Wednesday after school in their Scouts room.

After a short business session they were conducted on a tour of the Hospital by Mrs. V. H. Reynolds who also instructed them in the hospital way of making a bed.
