DUPLIN FARMERS URGED TO PLANT CORN

More Corn Being Used Locally Than Is Produced; Farm Storage Needed

By Paul Earwick
Duplin County corn producers are in the enviable position of not having sufficient corn produced annually to take care of the local consumption.
Farmers throughout the County are being encouraged to plant as much corn as they can this year and at the same time make an effort to construct grain storage facilities on the farm.
According to Assistant County Agent Ralph Sasser, Duplin County needs approximately one and one-half million bushels more corn now than is being produced locally. The average yield last year was 50 bushels per acre on 78,000 acres. This meant a yield of 3,900,000 bushels of corn. If all of the corn had been kept in the County, Sasser said, "We would still have needed the additional corn."
On the State level, the story is the same. From October 1957 through September 1958, 78,334,000 bushels of corn were used, but only 57,428,000 bushels were produced.
State-wide, the picture improved some from October 1958 through September, 1959. It is estimated the State will consume 82,000,000 bushels of corn this year. Production last year was 75,836,000 bushels.
If corn producers in North Carolina had sufficient on-farm storage facilities, the State's income would be increased tremendously.
Census figures show that 42 per cent of the State's production was sold at harvest time. Twenty per cent of this 42 per cent was marketed out-of-state.
N. C. State College grain specialists says that farmers last year averaged approximately $1.10 per bushel for their corn at harvest time. The State, annual average, is $1.25 per bushel. In other words, the out-of-harvest season sale of corn sells much higher than the $1.25 annual average.

Sasser points out that assistance is available throughout the State for farmers who desire to construct on the farm grain storage facilities. The ASC office will loan up to 80 percent of the unrecruited cost of the corn bins. Loans are paid back in four annual installments with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum.
Loans are also available for the purchase of mobile drying equipment. These loans are up to 75 per cent of the cost of this equipment. Loans are repaid in three annual payments with interest at four per cent per annum.
Increased yields per acre are also vital. Sasser stresses the fact that with the use of proper fertilization (farmers usually do not use enough fertilizer) and good hybrid seed corn varieties, much higher yields per acre can be achieved.
In fertilizing, proper amounts

Warsaw Rotary Club Makes Tentative Plans To Sponsor Bands In 4 Schools

At the meeting of the Warsaw Rotary Club on Thursday, the possibility and probability of a band for the Magnolia, Warsaw, Kenansville and James Kenan Schools was the main topic of discussion.
The Rotary Club has recently distributed questionnaires to about 800 students in these schools and a report was made to the Club, that 80 applications had been returned by students and approved by parents. Of these 80 students a breakdown was made as to the schools, the instruments owned by pupils, number of high school and grammar students interested.
A recommendation was then offered and adopted that the Rotary Club appoint a permanent Band Committee to work with the schools for the establishment of a band for the school term beginning in Sept. of 1959. L. T. Wilson of Warsaw was appointed Chairman with Norman Flowers and Sidney Apple as members of the band committee.
The Rotarians then adopted a "Plan of Procedure" to be followed in the establishment of the band: (1) A member of the band committee appear before the P. T. A. in each school and ask for their cooperation and support. (2) Contact, through the teacher placement service in one or more of the colleges for a possible band director (3) Have a mass meeting of the applicants and possible applicants to create interest and enthusiasm among students and parents to which a band from a neighboring town would be invited for a concert. (4) Have a representative from a music company make arrangements with parents for the rental or purchase of the instruments.
The Committee plans to ask each P. T. A. Presidents to appoint two people to serve as members on a District Band Committee.
Additional applications for band membership can be made by contacting any of the principals of the schools. Additional information will be published as the plans materialize.
Officers for the Rotary Club for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mitchell Britt; Vice-President, J. J. Armstrong; Secretary and Treasurer, Norman Flowers; Board of Directors, Milford Quinn, James Cavanaugh and J. Ed Strickland.
William L. Starling, Jr. was welcomed as a new member.

Above is Mrs. Lewis Edwards of Beulaville as she registers the birth of her 16th child at the Health Department in Kenansville, with Mrs. Gordon Kornegay, Deputy Registrar of Births and Deaths for Duplin County.
Mrs. Edwards is 45 years of age and her oldest child is 27. All of her children are living except two — one was killed in an accident. All but 5 of her living children are at home.
Mrs. Edwards enjoys good health and states that her husband delivered all of her babies except one. The baby she is holding was born on Christmas Day.

NORTH DUPLIN OPENS BASEBALL SEASON AGAINST CLINTON

Coach Richard Kaleel's North Duplin Rebels open their 1959 baseball season against the strong Clinton Dark Horses at Grubbs Field Thursday of this week. The Rebels had an over-all record of 14-2 last season, losing two to Richlands. The double loss put the Rebels out of the play-off won by Red Springs. Returning lettermen from last years squad for the Rebels are L. J. Grahman, Charles Swinson, Clayton Swinson, Doug Kennedy, Jack Freecythe, Jimmy Tadlock, David Underhill, and John Clifton. Grahman the "big gun" for the Rebels last season winning 10 out of 11 games for North Duplin will be around to torment the hitters this season. Grahman will have plenty of help in charging the hill in Tadlock, Clifton, and Underhill.

Coming up from the junior varsity to help the Kaleelmen will be Pete Warren, Milford Turner, Harrell Thompson, Joe Hollingsworth, Charles Grady, Larry Outlaw, Bobby Farrior, Glenn King, Roger Mozingo, and Marvin Swinson.
