Wayne Rural Fire Department Sell Tickets To Aid

Thirteen Wayne Rural Fire Departments have banded together and are selling tickets on a 1959 Ford to help raise money for the rural fire departments throughout Wayne County.

Seven Springs and New Hope Fire Departments are among those taking part in the program. The car will be given away on September 20, the last night of the Wayne County Agriculture Fair.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets on the car will go toward helping finance the rural fire departments and the upkeep of equipment.

Henry Belk Is In Accident

Seven persons were injured at 10:20 p. m. Saturday in a two car collision at Little Baltimore, two miles east of LaGrange on highway 70.

They included Editor Henry Belk of the Goldsboro News-Argus, and Mrs. Belk, who were enroute home after attending a wedding in Kinston.

Three of the injured were hospitalized. Admitted for treatment at Wayne Memorial Hospital were Mrs. Seth B. Hollowell, wife of the driver of the Goldsboro vehicle, and Mrs. Hershel Hockett, another passenger in the car. They both sustained chest - and body injuries which were not believed serious.

Transferred to Lenoir Memorial Hospital for treatment was Coy Flemming, Negro, 49, of LaGrange Route 3. A passenger in the second car driven by Roy Powell, Negro of LaGrange Route 3, Flemming sustained an injured back.

Mr. and Mrs. Belk sustained slight abrasions and bruises. Others injured were identified as Hollowell and Mrs. Hockett's husband. Highway Patrolman W. D. Parrish said the mishap occurred at Baltimore Service Station as Powell drove onto U. S. 70 from a rural paved road. Parrish quoted Powell as saying he had halted at the intersection and then proceeded onto the highway when he failed to see Hollowell's west bound vehicle. Hollowell applied brakes, put right of way were lodged against Powell's car after adding about 18 inches. Charges of driving without a license and failure to yield the right of way were lodged against Powell.
