Morning Club Enjoys Christmas Party

The Morning Club met at the club house, Dec. 15, at 7:30 P. M. The President called the meeting to order by singing the Christmas Carol, "Joy To The World". The devotional was given by Mrs. Rivers Winstead and she read Luke 2:1-19, the story of the Birth of the Lord Jesus. Prayer was led by Mrs. D. F. Chambers.

During the business session the President appointed Mrs. Archie Benson, Mrs. Bob Quinn and Mrs. Rivers Winstead to get fruit baskets for the shut-ins in the community for Christmas.

The following club women received perfect attendance pins, Mrs. Archie Benson, Mrs. D. F. Chambers, Mrs. Herman Quinn, Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Mrs. Garland Whitman and Mrs. T. P. Quinn.

The club house was decorated in the Christmas motif. The serving table had a red cloth with candles and a lovely round cake iced in white and red. The gift table had a white cloth with a small tree and Santa Claus, Stockings. The club women enjoyed exchanging club gifts.

Family, life leader, Mrs. Archie Benson, gave an interesting report about family get-togethers during the Christmas holidays.

The hostesses Mrs. Herman Quinn and Mrs. Pat Phillips served round cake with whipped cream and coffee to the 14 members present. Everyone enjoyed the fellowship together.

Post 148 Explorers' Camp at Penn AFB

Fourteen Explorers of Post 148 spent a three-day encampment at Pope AFB, North Carolina. During their visit the boys were shown films and received briefings on combat operations, base operations, 3d Aerial Port Operations, Aero-medical Evacuation, the C-123 Aircraft Weather Station, instrument flying, Jungle Survival, and a demonstration of air craft crash and rescue procedures.

An informal talk by the base commander, Col. John A. Cosgrove, explained Pope's mission and responsibility to Tactical Air Command (TAC), and the Composite Air Strike Force (CASF).

High light of the encampment was a one-hour orientation flight in a C-123 PROVIDAIR, which flew the boys to Warsaw and made several circles over the town Saturday morning at 11:30 A. M. Other features of the trip included a dance Saturday evening from 7 till 9:30 P. M. at the Service Club, with more than 50 high school girls from the city of Fayetteville, and a special church service Sunday morning at Sitterson, Woodrow Brinson, Z. W. Frazelle and Miss Margaret Williams.

Post Chapel Number 4.

Escort officers for the three-day encampment were Capt. Thomas J. Smith, 46th Opns. Sq., and 1st Lt. Odell F. Smith, 46th A P Sq. Commander.

Explorers making the trip were: Henry Jeter, William Savage, Lawrence Darden, Rufus Hodges, Willie Carrell, William H. Frederick, Joseph McIver, Bobby Smith, William E. Herring, James Bell, Clarence Davis, Everett Wilson, Henry Lloyd Stevens, and Alonza Best. The explorers were accompanied by James C. Henry, Post 146 Advisor.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinking) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Files have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters—money back guarantee.

Faculty Honors Miss Stokes

When the principal, Z. W. Frazelle, called a meeting of the Kenansville school faculty for immediately after school on Thursday in the home room of Mrs. J. B. Wallace, Miss Dianne Stokes thought it was just that - a teachers meeting until she arrived in the room, attractively decorated in the Christmas motif and was given a kitchen corsage.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a Christmas cloth and centered with a tinsel tree. Assorted Christmas cookies, cheese wafers and nuts were enjoyed by the guest with Mrs. Amos Brinson pouring coffee.

Following the refreshment hour, Santa paid a visit to Miss Stokes. A pack filled with all necessary items for the kitchen was delivered. The faculty's gift to Dianne was a leather covered recipe box in which were favorite recipes of the guest. Mrs. J. O. Stokes, Mrs. Z. W. Frazelle and Mrs. Lauren Sharpe were additional guests.

Miss Stokes Is Honored

The wedding ring motif in the traditional green and white, the colorful Christmas red with accents of pink was used attractively in the home of Mrs. C. B. Guthrie on Thursday evening when Mrs. Joseph J. Wells was co-hostess with Mrs. Guthrie at a card party honoring Miss Dianne Stokes. Upon the arrival of the guest, Miss Stokes was given an old fashioned nosegay of Better Times roses, her mother was given a corsage of the same. Individual rose corsage graced the refreshment plate for each guest present.

Mrs. Phil Kretsch assisted the hostesses in serving Christmas salad topped with whipped cream and cherries in grapefruit cups, cheese biscuits, fruit cake cookies and coffee to Miss Stokes, Mrs. Stokes, Miss Florrie Currie, Mesdames Florence Currie, J. B. Wallace, George Penny, I. C. Burch, A. T. Outlaw, E. A. Newton, O. P. Johnson, Lauren Sharpe, I. R. Caison and F. W. McGowan.

After serfval progression of bridge and rummy, Mrs. George Penny was given a china refreshment set for bridge high, Miss Stokes, sachet for rummy high score and Miss Currie a serving tray for the surprise gift. These were given to Dianne along with a silver gravy boat and a crystal fruit bowl by her hostesses.

Mrs. Sitterson Has Club Party

Red and white tree, red candles and Nandina berries were used attractively in Mrs. Martha P. Sitterson's living room on Wednesday evening when she entertained her bridge club. Mrs. Mattie Sadler was given an attractive gift for high score with Mrs. Bill Helton being remembered with a gift as runner up.

Miss Sykes assisted the hostess in serving ambrosia, fruit cake and coffee to Mesdames Mattie Sadler, Bill Helton, William Craft, Jack
