Duplin Appears To Be In For Quiet Election Year Except For Governor

By Paul Barwick
From the looks of things, Duplin County's local election in the May 28 Democratic Primary will be relatively quiet.
But on the State level election, the story is different. From all indications, a knock-down drag-out battle is assured in Duplin County for the votes for Governor. The only names mentioned in the race for Governor are John Larkins and Terry Sanford. All other candidates for Governor are getting little attention in Duplin.
With Melvin Cording, of Wallace, announcing that he will oppose Everett Jordan for the U. S. Senate Seat, Duplin promises to be right interested in this race.

In the County, Mrs. Christine Williams, incumbent, will be up for reelection for the office of Registrar of Deeds. So far, there has been no mention of opposition for Mrs. Williams and since it's as late as it is, all appearance are that she will be unopposed for the high County Office.
On the Board of Commissioners the seats now held by J. B. Stroud, of Kenansville, route 1, and Lott Korneay, of Warsaw, are up for reelection. The seats are four year terms.
Russell Lanier, County Solicitor, and David Henderson, County Judge, will also have their offices to be brought before the voters for consideration. Lanier is from Beaulaville and Henderson is from Wallace.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP
Duplin County may not have a state championship team in football, basketball or baseball but we do have a State Championship team - Co. "M" 119 Inf. Battle Group, Rifle Team.

The Warsaw unit of the North Carolina National Guard won the National Rifle Association State Championship of 1959 last year with the highest score ever recorded. Warsaw scored 1276 points out of a possible 1500 to win the state crown. The course of fire consists of ten rounds of firing from the kneeling, prone, and standing positions.

In 1958 the team won the Regimental Rifle Trophy on their way to a easy win over second place Smithfield 1256-1059. The next round of competition will be held soon in Wilson or Warsaw to determine the Battle Group Championship. Winners in this round will travel to Greensboro to compete in the state finals.

Captain Earl Huie, also team Captain, First Lt. H. C. Allen, Sgt. Raymond Blanchard, Jr., Sgt. Norman Kennedy, SFC. Donald Murphy, SFC. R. J. Lewis, SFC. Odell Brock, and Sp-4 Ben L. Taylor make up the state championship team.

Enthusiasm is the key to any championship team. I feel this fine group of young men have shown the spirit and marksmanship that deserves our greatest admiration.
If you would like to be with or a part of a championship unit and team contact Captain Earl Huie, Commanding Officer of the Warsaw and Jacksonville units or Lt. Raymond Blanchard of Warsaw. According to Captain Huie there are several openings at the present time in the Guard for fine young men.

KENANSVILLE HAS SCHOOL SAFETY PATROL

Have you traveled from Service Motors Co. to Kenansville Elementary School since early on the morning of January 12th? That day was the first day of duty for the splendid Safety Patrol. These 28 students from grades 5, 6, 7 & 8 of the Kenansville Elementary School have been trained by the local patrolman, Gene Stewart. Two boys are stationed at each of the three intersections in town and also on the school grounds.

Girls are on duty inside the school building and also on the buses. These boys and girls have pledged their time and effort and have been instructed in the ways of safety. They are there for the protection of our children. Each parent should encourage their children to obey these students. They are easily spotted by their white belts and badges which were purchased by the Kenansville Jaycees and the Parent Teacher Association, co-sponsors of the patrol.

The Captain of the patrol Hiram Brinson and co-captain is Rudy Hasty. We are very proud of these boys and girls and also of the help given by Mrs. Anne Redwine, Chairman of the Safety Committee of our PTA.

Be sure to cooperate with these students who can be a great help to our children.
