Duplin Must Vote Heavy For Henderson On Saturday If He Is To Be Elected

Saturday is the last opportunity the people of Duplin County have to go to the polls and elect a Congressman for the Third Congressional District from Duplin County.

Duplin County needs a Congressman and so do all of the counties from the Western end of the district. New Bern has held the seat in Congress for the past 42 years.

David Henderson is a fine outstanding young man who has always done what he could for Duplin County. He is a man at which the people of the third Congressional District can point their finger with pride, and say THAT IS OUR MAN. Henderson's platform is open and above board, and a platform that is broad enough to stand on without falling off into mire of political entanglements.

Henderson is married to the former Mary Knowles of Wallace, and they have three fine young boys: Mrs. Henderson has been so busy at home taking care of her three boys and helping David with his campaign that she has not been able to get out and knock at every door and shake the hand of each voter, but nevertheless she urges you to go to the poles and vote for DAVID HENDERSON ON SATURDAY, JUNE 25.

David Henderson cannot get elected if the people of Duplin County do not stick together and go to the polls on Saturday and vote. Your vote and support is needed. When you go to the polls, take your neighbor with you.

Henderson has not made a lot of rash promises that he could not possibly keep. He has not made a lot of promises that will raise our taxes. He has not promised bonuses which will cost the tax payers thirty-one million dollars. He has not made promises to labor unions. He has promised the people of the Third Congressional District to represent them in the best way possible, and to always put the interests of the Third Congressional District in first place, and to protect the interest of the Third District from grafting, uninterested parties.

PCA Reached New High In Service In '59, Annual Conference Held Carolina Beach

"Indications are that present trends in agriculture will continue. With the high cost of operation, investments in farm machinery, larger operations and new enterprises in some instances, they all add up to the need for more capital on farms and that generally means more credit," according to Eugene Carlton of Warsaw, president of the Kenansville Production Credit Association who has just returned from Carolina Beach where he attended the annual conference of directors of production credit associations on June 14th.

Reports at the conference indicated that production credit associations reached a new high in service rendered to agriculture during 1959. The loan volume of associations in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida totaled over $185 million in 1959 an increase of more than 12% over 1958," said Mr. Carlton.

Based on the continuation of present trends, officials of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Columbia predicted that the 1960 loan volume in the four-state area would go over $200 million and may pass the $300 million mark within five years.

"The Kenansville association served 1676 farmers with loans totaling $3,570,000.00 in 1959 in Duplin County," Mr. Carlton added.

Other directors of the Kenansville association attending the conference included L. P. Wells of Mt. Olive; Arthur Kennedy of Beulaville; Fred Outlaw of Mt. Olive; and M. W. Sutton of Seven Springs.

Garland P. King, general manager of the Kenansville PCA reports a strong demand for intermediate term loans with maturity up to five years, which are particularly suited for the purchase of machinery, equipment, or additional livestock needed to improve operations.

Mr. & Mrs. Ezzell Hospitalized From Accident

A Warsaw couple, Joseph A. Ezzell and his wife Betty Faye were hospitalized Wednesday morning as a result of an auto accident occurring Wednesday approximately 11:15 a. m. on highway 117, 1 1/2 miles south of Magnolia.

Involved in the accident was a 1955 Ford driven by John D. Wilson age 16, of Rt. 1 Rose Hill and a 1934 Chevrolet driven by Joseph Ezzell, age 29, of Warsaw.

According to State Highway Patrolman G. R. Stewart, who investigated the accident, the 1955 Ford driven by Wilson was traveling south on highway 117 and started to make a right turn into the driveway of Clarence Pope. The '54 Chevrolet driven by Ezzell was following the Wilson car and ran into the rear of the car as Wilson slowed to make his turn. The impact caused the Wilson car to turn completely over and back on its wheels into the road ditch.

John D. Wilson, driver of the Ford, and Steve Wilson age 4, passenger in the car were taken to Dr. Quinn in Magnolia and treated for bruises and released.

The Ezzells were carried to the Duplin General Hospital in Kenansville. Ezzell received chest injuries and Mrs. Ezzell received lacerations of the head.

No charges have been preferred as yet, pending further investigation of the accident.

Sanford Vs. Lake In Sat. Election Henderson And Simpkins Seek Seat

Saturday is one of the most important elections which North Carolina citizens will face in a long while in the election of a Governor for North Carolina.

In the gubernatorial election, Sanford is considered the leader and given a better than likely chance of becoming North Carolina's next Governor over his run-off rival, I. Beverly Lake.

Sanford and Lake have campaigned across North Carolina in a hotly contested battle for the Governorship.

Sanford has proposed a program of "Go Forward" in education, agriculture and industry. Lake has campaigned primarily as a segregationist and has injected the economy-in-government attack in the second primary.

Lake has in the final days of the campaign attacked North Carolina's newspaper accusing them of biased reporting of the campaign. Several newspapers have taken issue with Lake on this.

In the first primary, which Sanford led over a field of four, Sanford polled some 82,000 more votes than did Lake, who got into the second primary.

Duplin County has one local township race in Rose Hill Township a run-off for Constable will be held between Frank Jones who had 222 votes in the first primary and Bonnie Matthews who received 133 votes.

Of paramount interest to the Duplin County is the race for Congressman of the third Congressional district between Duplin County's David Henderson and Jimmy Simpkins of New Bern.

Henderson was high man in the May 28 Primary in a race of five contestants, 47,165 votes were counted with 14,768 for Henderson, 14,347 for Jimmy Simpkins, 9,435 for Robert L. Stallings, 7,345 for Dr. David J. Rose of Goldsboro and 1,215 for Chalk. The race is being hotly contested in the nine counties of the third Congressional district.

Tobacco Variety Demonstrations To Be Seen In Duplin County On July 1

Tobacco variety demonstrations in Duplin County will be visited on Friday, July 1, according to County Agent Vernon H. Reynolds.

Roy Bennett, Extension Tobacco Specialist, N. C. State College, will be present to direct discussions on the 15 varieties of tobacco being considered.

Farmers interested in seeing and hearing explained the demonstrations, which have 15 different varieties of tobacco in them, are to meet at Donald Konegay Farm, in the Scott's Store sector, in northwest Duplin from 9:30 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.

The second demonstration to be visited is on the George Cowan farm, in the Fork Community, near Beulaville. Discussions will begin on the Cowan farm from 11:00 a. m. to 11:30 a. m.

Tobacco varieties in the demonstrations are: Vesta 5, McNair 121, Hicks, Cokers 128, Cokers 316, N. C. 75 (which is to be released to farmers in 1961), N. C. 73, Experimental varieties 8038-3 and 8039-5, Reams 646, Reams 61-Hicks, Speight's 34, Speight's 31, Bell's 15 and Bell's 18.

"I think most tobacco farmers will be interested in seeing these varieties being grown under identical circumstances," Reynolds said. "We are getting some very interesting aspects on all the varieties."

All of the tobacco varieties have varying degrees of black shank resistant qualities, except Hicks and Bell 15.

CARL GOERCH

Goerch To Speak To Warsaw Rotarians Annual Ladies Night On June 30th

Carl Goerch, editor of the State magazine, will be the speaker at the Warsaw Rotary Club's Annual Ladies night, Annual Awards Night and Installation of officers on June 30. The program will be held at the National Guard Armory at 7:30 P. M.

Goerch, a well known speaker and humorist of North Carolina, came to North Carolina in 1914 from Tarrytown, N. Y., after having worked on his home town paper for a couple of years. He worked for papers in Washington, New Bern and Wilson until 1933, when he started his radio broadcasting of Doings of the Legislature and has had this program during every session of General Assembly since that time. He also has a regular program every Sunday evening.

It was also in that year that he started The State, a weekly magazine devoted to things of interest in North Carolina. He has been associated with it ever since.

He is author of five books and has had a number of articles published in national magazines, and has syndicated a humorous column to N. C. newspapers for a number of years.

Goerch is married, has two daughters and six grandchildren.

The Warsaw Rotarians have planned a full and interesting program for their Annual Ladies night. The active club of 29 members will present annual awards for attendance, Home Improvement and to the Rotarian of the year. New officers will be installed and the president's report will be heard.

President Mitchell Britt will preside at the meeting.

A HARD CLIMB UP - Deputy Bill Quinn of the Duplin County Sheriff's office gives Deputy W. O. "Mr. Oscar" Houston a helping hand in climbing up and out of the underground still captured last week by the Duplin County Sheriff's Dept. The 250 gallon submarine type still located in Smith's Township, was concealed under a feed storage building about 10 to 12, feet below the ground. A fake wall in the back of the building, which could be pushed open, hid the entrance to the still down below. According to the Operators, it took approximately four months to construct the still at a cost of $3,000, not including the labor.

LITTLE LEAGUE GAMES

By Joe Costin

WHAT DID YOU SAY MR. UMP? J. B. Herring, acting Manager of the Jaycees team in the absence of Manager Allen Draughan two weeks ago takes his turn with Umpire-in-chief, E. B. Boyette. Manager Herring did have a last minute scare as to the number of players his team had on hand just before game time. The Jaycees lost the game to the Rotary 11-1, but have won three straight over the Lions, Legion, and Rotary since and are now just one-half

GAMES COMING UP:

6-23	Rotary VS Lions
	Jaycees VS Legions
6-25	Lions VS Jaycees
	Legions VS Rotary
6-29	Rotary VS Jaycees
	Lions VS Legions

STANDINGS AS OF JUNE 18th.

	WON	LOST	TIED
ROTARY	3	1	1
JAYCEES	3	2	0
LEGION	2	2	1
LIONS	1	3	0

Between the rain and the fired-up Jaycee team the Warsaw Little League really took on a new look this past week. The Jaycees moved into second place one-half games of the pace of the front-running Rotary. In the first game of the doubleheader played last Wednesday, the first place Rotary team played eight innings before the game was called.
