"I'm going to College . . . Daddy said so."

My Daddy said a fellow has to have a college education to get someplace in the world these days. He has already made arrangements for mine by starting a Savings Plus Life Insurance Account. Daddy says it only takes a little each month and regardless of what happens to him the money will be there for me when I'm ready to start to school.

Yes, it's a fact that many devoted fathers are opening Savings Plus Life Insurance Accounts to accumulate special purpose funds because of the unique life insurance feature which provides that, live or die, if you make regular monthly payments the savings goal will be reached. If you have a young son or daughter, come in and ask for complete details today.

Funds invested with our Association are doubly protected by our membership in the Federal Home Loan Bank System and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.
