That little story, if true (it got into the newspapers at any rate), shows up very nicely the American state of mind. We cant believe anystate of mind. We can't believe any-thing is wrong with us, we can't see how anything can go wrong with us. People who drive out a few miles from any city in America. may see signs: Evacuation Route ... Feeding Station, and so forth. But how many Americans actually expect ever to stand hungry at a feeding station ?!

As It Wat, So It is

The prophet Amos, speaking for God, faced a nation (Israel) smaller than ours by far, but just as er than ours by far, but just as complacent, just as sure that noth-ing could go wrong, just as gently cushioned by a feeling of national security. The facts and factors that made them feel so srie and happy are familiar to any who takes time off to observe the American seems. For one thing, they were a antione operating her military ation operating by military power. Many of its kings, if not all of them, had been goverals of the trany. In case of rival claimants for the throne, the man with the most troops usually got the prire. The country had knocked off fir enemies one by one. Just at Amos's-time, the boundaries of the country were wider than at any time noce Solomon. What armies had done, armies could do again, they thought . . . and so do we. "We have never been beaten in war, we shall never be beaten." Football coaches know that no winning streak lasts for ever.

Wealth-and Buiture --The little country of Israel was not only safe at the moment from not only safe at the moment from military attack, it was prosperous. People built homes of ivory—that is to say, decorated with ivory in a lavish way. They had money for summer and winter homes. They drank the finest wines, they had money and leisure for the arts. As Amos pointed out, all this luxury was only on certain streets. There were other streets where people
