Leak-Phillips Speak Vows In Warsaw

Miss Betty George Phillips became the bride of Frank Walter Leak on Saturday evening July 23 at seven o'clock in the Warsaw Baptist Church with the Reverend Delmar E. Parkerson officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. William James Middleton, Jr., of Warsaw, was organist. Soloists were Mrs. Tommie Phillips, the bridesmaid, of Warsaw and Carlton Frederick of Goldsboro.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Graham Albert Phillips, Sr. of Warsaw. Mr. Leak is the son of Mrs. William Clay Leak, Sr. of Rockingham and the late Mr. Leak.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess-styled gown of pure silk peau de soie and imported chantilly hand-clipped lace of rose pattern, fashioned with scalloped portrait neckline of lace, embellished with tiny seed pearls and iridescent glass beads. Wide panels of lace and peau de soie extended into a long chapel train. Her two-tiered finger-tipped veil of French illusion was attached to a Swedish pearlized scalloped crown of matching lace. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Irma Walker of Gibsonville and Madeline Hall, Watha; Mesdames Lindo Spencer, Tarboro; Pete Hill, Winston-Salem; Horace T. Ray, Faison; Roy Barwick and Frank Steed of Warsaw. Each carried a long-stemmed red rose.

William Clay Leak, Jr. of Rockingham, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Chief usher was the bride's brother, Graham Albert Phillips, Jr. of Kinston. Others were Kenneth Lambert Midyette, Kinston; Henry Ledbetter Leak, Rockingham; James Pickett Leak, Atlanta, Georgia; and Robert Edwards Leak of Raleigh.

The bride's mother wore a dress of willow green chiffon with matching accessories. Her flowers were a white orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom was attired in powder blue chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Sterling W. Marriner of Warsaw was Mistress of Ceremonies immediately following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride. Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. George D. Bennett of Warsaw. Presiding in the living room were Mesdames Tommie Phillips and Harry Lee Phillips and Mrs. Samuel A. Jones. Mrs. Herman Phillips presided at the bride's book. Assisting in the gift room was Mrs. Norwood Phillips. Mrs. Alley Linwood Hart of Kinston served punch assisted by Mrs. E. W. Williamson, Sr., Hamlet; and Mrs. Wilbur Faye, Kinston. Serving cake were Mrs. Frank Gibson, Sr., Gibson; Mrs. Henry Ledbetter Leak, Rockingham; and Mrs. F. Payne Dale, Kinston. Others assisting in the home were Mesdames Edgar D. Follock, Fred J. Baars and E. Walker Stevens, Warsaw and the honorary bridesmaids. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Hubert E. Phillips of Kennesville.

The bride attended Wake Forest College and is a graduate of East Carolina College, representing the college as May Queen and at the Azalea Festival in 1935. She was selected by the college for Who's Who among students in American Colleges for that year. For the past two years she has been a member of the faculty of the Hamlet City Schools.

The bridegroom attended Riverside Military Academy and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina where he was a member of the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity. He is now associated with the Burroughs Corporation, Charlotte, N. C.
