Trial Error To Speak In Greenville Saturday

It seems that everyone is getting a cleaning for their yards which was not planned or anticipated. Donna has put a new look around town. Some yards are just as neat and trim as they are in early Spring However there are some of us who have not gotten around to cleaning

Several people in Kenansville had te a bit of damage, but it seems quite a bit or damage, but it see that that we were not quite as hard hit as some other sections of the county. Phil Kretsch, cashier of Waccamaw Bank and Trust Company, lost the top off of his cottage at Topsail Beach, Mrs. Mattie Sadler lost the top and a porch from her cottage at Topsail. We haven't heard reports from all of the beach This is the second time that the top of Kretsch's cottage has been blown off and it landed in it the same place on each oc-speed.

Isn't it funny how many people have to have their coffee early in the morning? Jones' Cafe in Kenansville on Monday morning was like the Grand Central Station, Ruby and Roscoe and all of their force were as busy as "bees in a force were as busy as "bees in a tar bucket" getting breakfast for everyone and serving coffee by the gallons. How they found so much food that early in the morning I will never understand. They had even been to the Spring to get water for the coffee. Everyone at the Cafe was as excited as could be swapping tales about the horrible night be tales about the horrible night be-

We heard from our good friend, Gene Davis, this week. Gene was supply pastor in Grove Presbyterian Church for a year. He is now Chap-lain in the Navy and has been transferred from California to U.
