Exum Lucas Vows Said in Kinston

Miss Hilma Patricia Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Lucas of Kinston and Mr. Kenneth Harold Exum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Exum of Beulaville, were united in marriage at 4:00 P. M. Sunday, January 1 at the First Free Will Baptist Church in Kinston.

Rev. Stephen A. Smith officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. David Haneley. The ceremony was performed before an altar with the open Bible marked with a red rose and flanked by lighted tapers, baskets of white mums, gladiola and Pom-poms backed with fern.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Niva Grace Register, organist, and Mrs. Alfred B. C. Dew, Jr., sister of the groom, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina dress of imported chantilly lace an tulle-tunic style with chantilly lace point front and overskirt, scattered applied chantilly lace flowers scattered on the skirt with centers of iridescent sequins, long chantilly fitted sleeves with point over wrist. It had a sabrina neckline with scattered iridescent sequins and pearls and fitted basque waist forming a point in the center of the front of the waist on skirt. The bottom of the full skirt formed a pattern of chantilly lace on tulle over tulle. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a bridal crown.

Sandy Blizard made a business trip to Kinston Friday.

Mrs. Carl Horne and Tina shopped in Kinston Thursday.

of music and psalm. She carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid showered with bridal ribbons.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Donna Jan Sumner who wore a dress of blue satin. The portrait neckline and long sleeves were assisted by a full skirt and wide belt. She carried a white Testament topped with pink carnations and showered with pink ribbons.

Mr. Exum assisted his son as best man. Ushers were Floyd Jones, uncle of the bride, and Donnie Lanier, cousin of the groom.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of avocado green crepe with brown skin accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a dress of royal blue wool assisted by black accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Grainier High School and is now employed as typist at Sampson's Inc. in Kinston.

The groom is a graduate of Beulaville High School and is now employed as office clerk at Firestone.

For leaving, the bride changed into a lavender suit featuring a fur collar. Her accessories were black. She wore her orchid lifted from her Bible.

Following a wedding trip to unannounced points, Mr. and Mrs. Exum will be at home at 1402 Strande Ave. in Kinston, N. C.
