shop held in the Recreation room church services at Bowden Community Presbyterian Church in April 19, 1961.

The members met for an all day workshop on upholstering chairs. Promptly at nine o'clock, they began arriving with chairs and elegant lunches.

Mrs. Norman Parks, Home Furnishing leader, was in charge of the demonstration, assisted by Mrs. Leon Taylor. Two chairs were completely upholstered beginning with springs to be repaired and strengthened.

At noon, work was temporarily laid aside and an hour of fellowship, recreation and food was enjoyed. Each member paid one dollar for lunch. This money will be donated to the Duplin County Home Demonstration treasury.

The afternoon session included a demonstration on miniature bouquets. Mrs. Leon Taylor, chairman of Arts and Crafts, was in charge of this and a number of lovely miniatures were made.

The members agreed they had accomplished much in the work, in the interest shown and in the fellowship enjoyed.
