Dailey-Grady Vows Spoken in Faison

Miss Cecelia Elizabeth Grady, daughter of Mrs. John Gregory of Faison and the late Lionel R. Grady and Ronald B. Dailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dailey of Washington spoke their wedding vows Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Faison Presbyterian church with the Rev. R. B. McCullen, Methodist Minister officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Curtis Cates, organist, and Mrs. Donnell Taylor, soloist. The bride given in marriage by her step father, John Gregory of Faison, wore a floor length gown of silk organza and chantilly lace. The bodice featured a sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was fashioned of ruffles edged in chantilly lace. She wore a two tiered veil of silk illusion attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Amelia Calvin Grady twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue silk organza dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Ushers were Norman Leimgrueber of Camp Lejeune, Barry Singer of Cherry Point, Jack Mallard of Cherry Point was best man.

The mother of the bride wore a blue crepe and lace sheath dress with accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage.

For traveling the bride changed to a printed silk dress with white accessories. She wore the orchid lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The parents of the bride entertained the members of the wedding party and friends at a cake cutting following the rehearsal Friday night in the Fellowship hall of the church. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth centered with an arrangement of white Mums, glads and fern flanked by silver candlesticks holding light tapers. The 4 tiered wedding cake
