

the second meeting the club elected officers. They are as follows: President, Glinda Faye Dall, Vice President, Judy Raynor; Secretary and Treasurer, Elizabeth Swinson; Song Leader, Joyce Swinson. The third meeting was directed by the vice president. The program consisted of devotion, poems, and songs. The meeting was adjourned until March 8, 1962, at which time Jimmy Sholar will give a talk and demonstration on "How to Give Artificial Respiration."

The club plans to have its meetings at Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Casteen's home. Community improvements consist of planting flowers and plants around the church; keeping the church and the church yard clean. The older boys and girls plan to do some painting in the church also. Some of the girls plan to buy or make curtains for the church.

Along with the guidance of leaders and assistance from extension agents, the club members of Pin Hook Community 4-H Club, hope to have a large and flourishing club in just a short time.

Many Honors Received By Pleasant Grove Club Members; 40 Youths In Club

Pleasant Grove Community 4-H Club was organized early in 1957. In 1962, there are about forty members in the club. Several adults have worked with the club as adult leaders. The club is now operating under the leadership of Franklin Quinn, Mrs. Carl Korneguy, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Outlaw.

Over a period of years, Pleasant Grove 4-Hers have cooperated in many projects and activities. Signs stating a "4-H Club Member Lives Here" have been erected. Recreational equipment has been purchased or built. Work days to clean or repair or build equipment have been held. A campaign to rid area of flies by spraying breeding places was carried out. The 4-Hers have taken part in the projects and activities of the adult community development club, ranging from increasing income, home improvement, to fund raising.

Many honors have been won by individual 4-Hers at Pleasant Grove and by the club as a group. Several times, the club has been named most outstanding in the county Community Development Program. Leaders have received recognition for their efforts.

Officers for 1962 are: President Phyllis Waller; Vice-President: Denise Korneguy; Secretary - Treasurer: Judy Waller; Reporter: Bobby Goodson; Song Leader: Frederick Rouse; Historian: Mary Linda Grady.

Many 4-Hers from Pleasant Grove are always found at Community Events.

TO CLUB HOUSE Greenwood Club Converts Farm House

Enthusiasm and interest were shown by several 4-Hers in the East Rose Hill Area and a meeting place was secured for a 4-H club that was not yet formed. W. T. Blanchard agreed that the group, seeking to organize a community 4-H club could use a house on his farm for a 4-H club house. Mrs. David Rouse and Eugene Wells consented to serve as Adult Leaders.

In May, 1961, a group met in the club house, located 2 miles east of Rose Hill on the Charity Road, to form a 4-H club. Officers were elected with Patricia Rouse as president. Projects were chosen and the 4-H club was on its way.

At the second meeting, the name Greenwood Community 4-H Club was chosen by the group.

Following is a list of activities summarized by Linda Carter and Anna Lee Hawes.

In June, we held a bake sale and made $24.55 for the treasury.

In July, Stella Wells and Martha Bradshaw, teammates, and Linda Carter and Anna Lee Hawes, teammates competed in the Dairy Foods Demonstration county contest. Stella Wells and Martha Bradshaw won leased acreage. Releasing acreage he can't plant is the only way a farmer can retain planting history and keep from cutting his own future allotment.

Farmers who cannot plant their full cotton acreage this year should by all means go by their ASCS county office and release the acreage they will not use.

Justice discards party, friendship, kindred, and is therefore always represented as blind.

first place. Linda Carter and Anna Lee Hawes won third place.

During the meeting of June 22, we planned to get curtains for the club house. The Rose Hill Home Demonstration Club gave us $5.00 for them. We got them about July 15.

On July 29, Mrs. C. F. Hawes was guest speaker. She showed slides of her tour of Europe.

The group went to White Lake for swimming and weenie roast. Mrs. Rouse, Leader, and Mrs. Billy Blanchard accompanied the group.

On August 3, we discussed having a book and rummage sale. We had the sale Saturday, August 19, in front of Sam's Drug Store in Rose Hill. We made $4.53.

On September 13, we all filled out membership cards and project forms. At our meeting in October, we elected the following officers to lead during 1962: President: Patricia Rouse; Vice President: Stella Wells; Secretary: Linda Carter; Treasurer: Tony Wilson; Historian: Anna Lee Hawes; Song Leader: Martha Bradshaw.

On October 28, 13 members entered project work exhibits at Achievement Day in Kenansville. 29 ribbons and 4 awards were won by members.

At the November meeting, record books were distributed. Mrs. Lois Britt and John Clapp, Extension Agents, helped plan programs for the following year. Many 4-Hers will plan and present programs.

Plans for raising money for the treasury was planned at the next meeting. The plans were to take up 10 cent dues, have a bake sale next summer, and sell Christmas cards
