The discussion at Kelly's store.

Yesterday as was stated in our last Thos. C. Fuller spoke at Kelly's store to enlighten the people on abolition. It was a mere rehearsal of what he used to say in our County. He spoke about two hours.

He did not know so many friends Harwell would go up or he would have made some changes. For the life of us we could not see the fruit of the suffering of the poor negro at Lucknow. He was refuted to most effectually by Geo. John Morrison the champion of democracy in Moore, he gave the people entire satisfaction.

Mr. C. C. & B. Burr have sold the Wilmington Herald to Mr. A. W. Haddell we wish Mr. W. success pecuniarily but not politically.

People of the State

Bear in mind that John W. Ellis has acquitted himself well as your Governor, & all your interests have prospered under his administration, No good reason exists why you should turn him out.

Remember these things fellow citizens when you go to the polls to vote, And let the democrats of the State especially stand firm and exert themselves between this period and the day of the election, ~~and on that day,~~ Thousands of votes are saved or lost on election day, Let us all remember that and act accordingly. ## Romantic

The Orange Times tells a good story of a fashionable lady of that village whose parents are not possessed of wealth in proportion to her pretensions and exposed herself to a visitor for doing house work there, "Mother and I do our own housework because it is so exceedingly romantic."
