lor, who is averaging 16.7 points and 10.2 rebounds per game. DCCCs tallest player stands at 6-5, but the Storm do have three players at their disposal to bang down low with Taylor.

"We have got to limit his touches and if he does get it, we need to double down on him," Ridge said. "We are going to mix it up with our defenses, but regardless of what defense we play, he is going to be a handful. We cannot take one second off of one possession, because he is extremely talented."

Like the Gryphons (21-8), the Storm have four players averaging double figures led by high-flying guard Justin Glover's 19 points a game. Davidson is averaging nearly 99 points in its last seven contests, so scoring has not been a problem. If they can figure out a way to keep Montgomery's guards in front and disrupt Taylor in the post, a trip up north could be on the way.

"We are going to be ready and excited, and hopefully we can get off to a good start and our fans can provide an environment that will make it difficult on our opponent," said Ridge.

an indelible impression, and will not be forgotten.

NASCAR honors its history.

It also celebrates its future. Even as tears fell for one of the most successful and respected crew chiefs in stock car racing history, eyes lit up in another part of the country, on the very same day, as Carl Edwards and his wife Kate welcomed 8 lb., 4 oz. Anne Katherine Edwards into the world.

In a single day, NASCAR lost a piece of its past, and gained a part of its future. What a poignant, albeit bittersweet, example of the way the world renews itself.

The Edwards' baby's story is yet to be written. I'm sure we'll be seeing her at pre-race ceremonies, and maybe even in Victory Lane, before the end of the season.

Maybe she'll be the CEO of "Backflip Motorsports" someday, in the tradition of Kelley Earnhardt.

She could become a doctor like her mom, or — I say this with my fingers crossed — a race car driver like her dad. We just don't know.

But we do know this. She is part of the NASCAR community now, and fittingly, she has gotten off to a great start, with a nickname of her own — "Annie."

A flight of fancy it may be, but still it is nice to imagine that the spirits of Annie Edwards and Suitcase Jake Elder may have nodded to one another as they passed on February 24.

As one bade its final farewell to the NASCAR family and the other said hello for the very first time, perhaps they both smiled to think that on this momentous day, the circle of life was an oval.

The Denton Wesleyan Church was formerly known as the First Pilgrim Holiness Church of Denton. These two churches merged in 1968 and became the Denton Wesleyan Church. First Pilgrim Holiness Church was the original owner of the church property having received the major portion of said property in a deed in 1940. After the merger of the churches in 1968, the church and tract of land became the property of the Denton Wesleyan Church, however, a deed was never recorded to reflect the same.

Grantor is entitled to and may request an accounting of the unpaid indebtedness secured by the Deed of Trust.

The highest bidder at the sale may be required to make a cash deposit with the Substitute Trustee of up to five (5%) percent of the bid, or $750.00, whichever is greater, at the time the bid is accepted. Any successful bidder shall be required to tender the remaining balance of the successful bid amount in cash or certified funds at the time the Substitute Trustee tenders to such bidder, or attempts to deliver to such bidder, a deed for the Property. Should such successful bidder fail to pay the full balance of the successful bid at that time, that bidder shall remain liable on the bid as provided by North Carolina General Statutes 45-21.30.

The Property is being sold subject to all prior and superior deeds of trust, liens, unpaid taxes, restrictions, easements, assessments, leases and other matters, if any, which, as a matter of law, survive the foreclosure of the Deed of Trust, provided that the inclusion of this clause in this Notice of Substitute Trustee's Sale of Real Estate shall not be deemed to validate or otherwise give effect to any such matter or other right which, as a matter of law, does not survive the foreclosure of the Deed of Trust.

The Property is being sold "AS IS, WHERE IS." Neither the Substitute Trustee, Holder, nor the officers, directors, attorneys, employees or authorized agents or representatives of either Substitute Trustee or Holder make any warranty relating to title, possession, quiet enjoyment, or any physical, environmental, health or safety conditions existing in, on, at or relating to the Property and any and all responsibilities or liabilities arising out of or in any way related to such conditions are expressly disclaimed.
