Theology of NASCAR speech

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Winston-Salem, 4055 Robinhood Road, will hear the Rev. D. Charles Davis speak on "Theology of NASCAR: Why has driving in circles captivated America?" at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. At the 9 a.m. pre-service forum, Neil Cooper will discuss "Worldwide Plant Therapy Research: The Next Major Medical Science Breakthrough."

For more information, see uufws.org.

Girl Scout Sunday

Zion United Church of Christ will celebrate Girl Scout Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. worship service on Sunday. They will lead out in the service and share some of what they have learned in Girl Scouts. The church is located at 130 Hasty School Road.

Lenten Concert

The Memorial United Methodist Church chancel choir and chamber orchestra will present a Lenten concert: "The Seven Last Words of Christ," an oratorio by Theodore Dubois. The concert will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. in the church sanctuary. All are welcome.

Scheduled soloists include Priscilla Oldaker, soprano, Neal Holladay, tenor, and Laverne Mohl, baritone. For more information, please contact the church office at (336) 472-7718, or visit www.mumctville.org.

Relay For Life

Most congregations and faith-based groups across the area have had members who have lost the fight against cancer, are currently fighting it or will sometime in the future face the possibility of fighting it. These groups are joining the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life in the fight to find a cure for this disease.

This year's relay (a walking relay) will be held in High Point at S.W. High School Saturday, May 22, from noon to midnight. Relay team meetings are normally held the third Monday of each month at 7 p.m. at the Millis Center in downtown High Point.

To enter a team, contact Rich Guillouma at (336) 905-7954 or rrichray@email.com.

Lenten Devotional Series

First Presbyterian Church will hold the Lenten Devotional Series on Tuesdays now through March 30. Worship begins at noon and ends at 12:30 so that people may attend during their lunch hour.

A light lunch will be available in the fellowship hall after the service. Lunch choices will include sandwiches, soup, salad, dessert and drink for $6. Proceeds will benefit Cooperative Community Ministry and other projects.

The series is intended to be an ecumenical worship service inclusive of the entire community.

March 16 - The Rev. Faye Herbin - Central United Methodist Church

March 23 - Dorothy Klass, pianist and soloist

March 30 - The Rev. Jonathan Conrad - Grace Lutheran Church with The Brotherhood providing music.

The church is located at 21 Randolph St. For more information, call (336) 476-4110 or e-mail info@tvillevfirstpres.org.

Spring Revival

Brown New Calvary Baptist Church will hold its Annual Spring/Youth Revival beginning Monday and going until March 17, 2010.

Santes Beatty, Youth Minister of Genesis Baptist Church, Greensboro, will be the guest minister for the week. Services will begin each night at 7pm. Thomas D. McSwain, Jr. is the host pastor.

Spring consignment sale

The Youth Enrichment Governing Board at Archdale Friends Meeting will be conducting a spring consignment sale on Thursday, March 18, from 7-9 p.m.; Friday, March 19, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and Saturday, March 20, from 8 a.m. to noon. Many items will be half-price on Saturday.

This sale will benefit the various youth enrichment programs at Archdale Friends Meeting.

For more information, call the AFYEP at 431-4147.

The Inspiration in Concert

The Inspiration in Concert will be held at 7 p.m. Friday, March 19, 2010, at the T. Austin Finch Auditorium. For more information, call Judy Ealey at (423) 245-1645.

Shadowlands

First Presbyterian Church will be showing the movie Shadowlands on March 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall. The film shows a few years in the life of C.S. Lewis, the English author best known for his books "Mere Christianity" and "The Chronicles of Narnia."

Lewis, a member of the English faculty at Oxford University, became friends with Joy Gresham, an American author. Poles apart in personality, they were nonetheless drawn to each other and eventually married. The film stars Anthony Hopkins and Debra Winger and is rated PG.

This is part of the church's continuing presentation of films that speak to Christian living and Christian values. The series generally is presented on the third Saturday night of the month. Movies are presented on a large screen with surround sound and high definition capabilities.

Free admission, free popcorn and free soft drinks. Spirited discussion of the film themes follows the showing.

Country breakfast buffet

Hopewell United Methodist Church, 4540 Hopewell Church Road, in Trinity, will hold a country breakfast buffet Saturday, March 20, from 7 to 10 a.m. The menu will be: eggs, grits, biscuits, gravy, pancakes, bacon, sausage, ham and choice of beverage. The prices are $7 for adults, $3 for ages 6 to 12 years and free for those 5 and under. All proceeds will go to the building fund.

Teachers' Appreciation Services

Pastor Reginald M. Holiday and The Gate Church family will honor Davidson County teachers. Celebration and service invitation is extended to all city council officials and school board members. The service for Thomasville Primary School and Hasty Elementary School will be held Sunday, March 21, from 8-10 a.m.

Services are purposed to honor the individuals who give much of themselves daily in support, preparation and the strengthening of the youth of the community. The celebration includes a breakfast and recognition program at 8 a.m. followed by Sunday morning worship at 9 a.m. with a special prayer for teachers, faculty and administration at the end of service.

All teachers will be honored with certificates and keepsakes in addition to a selection of free items for the classroom such as dry eraser markers, pens/pencils, hand sanitizer, paper, calculators and more.

Blood drive

Hopewell United Methodist Church will be having a blood drive Sunday, March 21, from 1:30 to 6 p.m. The church is located at 4540 Hopewell Church Road, in Trinity. For more information, call (336) 431-9507.

Pine needle sale

Hopewell United Methodist Church Youth will be having a pine needle sale fundraiser to raise money for its mission trip this summer. The cost is $5 per bale. All orders must be placed by Sunday, March 21. Payment is due at the time of order. The pine needles will be at the church Saturday, April 10.

Pick up the order, or have it delivered home at no charge. To place an order or for more information, call (336) 472-3716. The church is located at 4540 Hopewell Church Road, in Trinity.

Computer class

First Presbyterian Church in Thomasville will be hosting a PC basics class on March 25 at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall. The presentation will cover a broad range of basic computer skills needed to comfortably navigate computer systems, back up precious memories and data, safely browse the internet, and more.

This will be a free service for the community and will gather topics of interest for future classes. Feel free to bring a laptop. The class will meet for one to two hours with discussion time strongly encouraged.

Feel free to contact the church office at (336) 476-4110. The church is located at 21 Randolph St.

Community Easter egg hunt

Fair Grove United Methodist Church, located at 138 Fairgrove Church Road, will hold a community Easter egg hunt on Saturday, March 27, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

All children from birth to fifth grade are invited. Hotdog lunch will be provided.

Easter drama, "The Witness"

Greenwood Baptist Church, 1010 Lexington Ave., will hold an Easter drama, "The Witness," on Saturday, March 27, and Sunday, March 28, at 6 p.m.

"The Witness" is the story of Jesus as told by his disciple Peter. The drama features a cast of 37 people, with Brad Liveness portraying Peter and Joseph Pugh taking on the role of Jesus.

Spring Cantata

The Memorial United Methodist Church chancel choir and orchestra presents a Spring Cantata, "Simple Gifts," featuring anthems by Mack Wilberg, Jay Rouse, Mary McDonald and Rene' Clausen. The cantata focuses on the simple gifts - life, light and peace - and includes sacred and symphonic music as well as a multi-media presentation to inspire all the senses.

The cantata will be held on Palm Sunday, March 28, at 10:55 a.m. in the church sanctuary. The performance will feature more than 75 musicians.

The Memorial United Methodist Church is located at 101 Randolph St. For more information, contact the church office at (336) 472-7718.

TAX-FREE INCOME FOR YOUR RETIREMENT

Tax-free income is the best gift you can give yourself at retirement. Converting to a Roth IRA from a traditional IRA allows for tax-free accumulation as well as tax-free withdrawals in retirement - which means you don't have to worry as much about what income tax rates will be in the future.

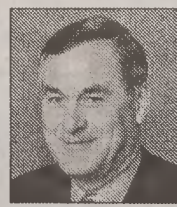

There are tax considerations and other factors that determine whether converting to a Roth IRA is right for you. And changes set for 2010 will eliminate the $100,000 modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) limit, which means anyone can convert to a Roth IRA.

Call today to schedule an appointment to learn more. We'll discuss your retirement goals to help determine if a Roth IRA makes sense for you.
