LEXINGTON — Mr. Gerald Wayne Emblar, 63, of Lexington, died Wednesday, April 28, 2010, in the Thomasville Medical Center.

Born April 8, 1947, in Davidson County, a son of the late Leon and Nancy Eddinger Emblar, he was formerly employed with Carolina Business Furniture and presently self-employed.

Funeral service will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. in J.C. Green & Sons Chapel in Thomasville. Burial will follow in Free Pilgrim Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Saturday from 6 to 8 p.m. and other times at their home.

The family request memorials be directed to Hospice of Davidson County, 202 Hospice Way, in Lexington. Online condolences may be sent to the Emblar family at www.jcgreenandsons.com.

Lindsey T. Hipp

Miss Lindsey Taylor Hipp, 12-year-old daughter of Yvonne and Brian Byrd and Keith and Cheryl Hipp, died Tuesday afternoon, April 27, 2010, at the Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center.

She was born Feb. 7, 1998, in Davidson County, a daughter of William Keith Hipp and Yvonne Cranford Hipp. She was a six grade student at Central Middle School and was a member of the cheerleading squad for Davis-Townsend Elementary School. Lindsey was a special little girl with a big heart, who loved animals and will be missed by everyone. She was a member of Wellspring Community Church, where she helped in the nursery.

Surviving are her parents, Yvonne and Brian Byrd, of 616 Liberty Drive, Thomasville, and Keith and Cheryl Hipp, of 235 Free Pilgrim Church Road, Thomasville; a sister, Nicole Hipp, of the home; step-sisters, Rebekah Byrd and Amanda Milam; step-brothers, Alex Byrd and J.T. Purdue; grandparents, Judy Petree, of Thomasville, Joe and Peggy Byrd, of Thomasville, and Bill and Peggy Hipp, of Thomasville; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. She was preceded in death by her grandfather, Joel Cranford Sr.

Funeral service will be today at 11 a.m. in Park Place Baptist Church with the Rev. Tom Campbell, the Rev. Dan Shoaf and the Rev. Lenny Stallings officiating. Burial will follow in Floral Garden Park Cemetery in High Point. Lindsey will remain at J.C. Green & Sons Funeral Home until the service hour. The family received friends at the funeral home Friday from 6 to 8 p.m. and other times at her parents' homes.

The family request any memorials contributions be made to Brenner's Children's Hospital, Medical Center Blvd., in Winston-Salem. Online condolences may be sent to the Byrd and Hipp families at www.jcgreenandsons.com.

Jerald L. Jasperse

CHARLOTTE — Jerald Leslie Jasperse died on April 28, 2010, in Charlotte.

Jerry was a devoted son, husband, father, grandfather, friend and Christian.

Jerry was born Jan. 16, 1928, in Grand Rapids, Mich., the son of George Leo Jasperse and Hazel Miller Jasperse, and raised in Ada, Mich. He graduated from Lowell High School, where he was valedictorian of his class and where he met his beloved wife, Jane. They were voted "Most in Love" their senior year and were subsequently married for 62 years until her death in Oct., 2009. He was also preceded in death by his parents and his sister, Pauline Jasperse Vereeke.

Jerry is survived by his five children: Sarah Jasperse Gillespie and husband, Don, of Charlotte; Brian Howard Jasperse, of Bucks County, Penn.; Michael Jury Jasperse, of Thomasville; Jay Leo Jasperse and wife, Marion, of Grabill, Ind.; and Jerald Martin Jasperse, of High Point.

There are eight grandchildren: Jennifer Kennedy, of Charlotte; Jorge Jasperse, of Grabill, Ind.; Nancy Jasperse Smith, of Sterling, Va.; Jon Jasperse, of Grabill, Ind.; Courtney Jasperse, of Greensboro; Shane Jasperse, of Bucks County, Penn.; Christopher Jasperse, of Greensboro; Mary Catherine Jasperse, of Thomasville, and five great grandchildren: Jake, Max, Emery, Cate and Nick.

Jerry spent his entire career in the furniture finishing business. He was well-known and respected in the business and has been described as "the Dean of Finishing". He learned the business from the ground up, starting employment with Grand Rapids Varnish in Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1947. In the years to come he mentored other young men in the business. In 1957, he was transferred to the High Point facility and the family settled in Thomasville. Jerry's career in the business spanned five decades, including working at The Lilly Co. and Reliance Universal. After retirement, Jerry worked as a consultant for a furniture manufacturer and traveled to Thailand, Singapore, China, Malaysia and other Asian countries. After their children were grown, Jane and Jerry moved to nearby High Point. Most recently Jerry resided at The Haven at Highland Creek in Charlotte.

Continuously since 1958, Jerry has been a member of Unity United Methodist Church in Thomasville. He actively participated in the life of the church working tirelessly in many capacities. He held nearly every office in the church including administrative board chairman, lay delegate to the annual conference, lay leader, membership on the Finance Committee, the Building Committee and the Worship Committee. He was a president of the United Methodist Men, taught Sunday school, delivered meals from the Masters Table, participated in "WINGS", worked in the Stephen Ministries and with senior citizens. His passion was the dream of the new sanctuary and was his focus during his last active years in the church. He started the Sanctuary Building Committee and participated in the oversight of the construction until its completion.

Throughout their lives, Jerry and Jane loved to travel. After Jerry's retirement, they travelled extensively across the world, but their favorite place in the world was the "Baker's Dozen" beach cottage in Oak Island, N.C.

J.C. Green & Sons of Thomasville is handling funeral arrangements. There will be visitation with family at the funeral home on Sunday between 6 and 8 p.m. Funeral service will be held at Unity United Methodist Church Monday 1 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Unity United Methodist Church, 608 National Highway.

The family gives thanks to the many caregivers at The Haven who treated Jerry with loving care and respect. Also, the family expresses thanks to Erica Davis, private caregiver, for her devotion to Jerry and Jane. Online condolences to www.jcgreenandsons.com.

HALL

town hall is projected to take 280 days to complete, weather permitting. He is optimistic that weather will not be a factor as much of the construction will take place during summer months, so by the time winter arrives, much of the remaining work will be done inside.

"We're getting started Monday," said Jarrell. "They had some alternates to their original plans and were able to afford that. In today's market, from what I have heard, everything is coming in either at or below budget. Very few jobs in the last six months have been over budget. Everyone's hungry and ready to work."

of last year that depicts a two-story facility with plenty of room to grow for future generations.

"We've got a good contractor and a good architect," council mem-

'We're looking forward to getting started..'

— Zane Hedgecock
Wallburg Town Councilman

We picked a good time of year to start. We're looking forward to building an infrastructure for the future. We're looking forward to getting started. There should be enough room to serve the town for many years to come."
