

Raffle

The Silver Valley Civitan Club is conducting a summer raffle with proceeds designated for various service projects, including those that benefit people with disabilities. The grand prize is a 32-inch flat screen television with the winning ticket to be drawn July 26. Tickets are available at $2 each or three for $5 from any Civitan member or by contacting President Roger Barker at 474-1438.

Habitat For Humanity

Habitat For Humanity is seeking volunteers to help build decent and affordable homes in Thomasville. No construction experience is necessary. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age. The work site is located at 508 Jarrett St. Work begins at 8 a.m. each Saturday and ends at noon. This Saturday's work will include painting. For further information contact Linda Berrier at 476-8570 or visit www.habitat.org.

Relay For Life

High Point's 2010 Relay For Life will take place Saturday, May 22, 2010, at Southwest High School. Relay is a major annual fund raiser sponsored by the American Cancer Society in the fight to find a cure for cancer. This event will be a character builder for participants while having a lot of fun working with peers from throughout the area and supporting a very worthwhile cause. In addition to the fundraising, there will be plenty of fun, food, ceremony, entertainment and fellowship. This is a family event.

To enter a team, contact Rich at 336-905-7954, or at rriichray@email.com.

Day in the Cemetery

The Thomasville City Cemetery, located at 203 Memorial Park Drive, will be having its annual Day in the Cemetery today from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. This day is set aside for families of those buried in the old historic cemetery to come out and meet with the Cemetery Committee Members, research their family history and tour the cemetery grounds. A genealogist will be on site to assist in family research. The cemetery museum will also be open to the public.

The day will feature various interesting displays denoting the Civil War period in which the City of Thomasville served as a hospital way station towards the last days of the war. The cemetery also features a Civil War section, perhaps the only one in the nation where both Federal and Confederate soldiers from the 1861-1865 war are buried side by side. Several local Civil War Reenactors will be on hand giving talks throughout the day about life during the Civil War. Original Civil War artifacts will also be on display during the day.

Parking is available on Memorial Park Drive. For inquiries contact Mr. Nat P Walker at (336) 596-0709.

Casino night

East Davidson Athletic Boosters will sponsor a casino night today at 12 West Main St. The event begins at 6 p.m. with heavy hor'devours and music. Games are from 7 to 10 p.m. Games will include Texas Hold Em, Black Jack, Roulette and Craps. There will also be prize drawings.

Tickets are $50 per person. For more information or for tickets, contact a Booster Club member, or Mark Blevins at 215-7173.

Beekeeper's meeting

Davidson County Beekeeper's Association will have a meeting Monday, May 17, at 7 p.m. at the Davidson County Agricultural Auditorium, 301 East Center Street, in Lexington. The meeting will feature a general discussion. June's meeting date will be June 21 at 7 p.m.

Weather program
