Click it or ticket campaign underway

TIMES STAFF REPORT

RALEIGH North ----Carolina Transportation Secretary Gene Conti announced today the launch of a state-wide "Click It or Ticket" mobilization to crack down on motorists who are not wearing their seat belts. State and local law enforcement officers began the campaign to increase seat belt enforcement activities on Monday and it will continue through June 6.

buckle up, every trip, every time," said Conti. "Wearing a seat belt no matter where you are seated in a vehicle is the law in North Carolina, so I remind all citizens to Click it or Ticket."

Regular seat belt use is the single most effective way to protect people and reduce fatalities in motor vehicle crashes. In 2009, 438 unbuckled motorists died in North Carolina. In 2009, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration reported that North Carolina's seat belt usage rate was 89.5 percent. The state's usage rate was 65 percent when the program started 17 years ago.

"Click It or Ticket" is administered by the N.C. Governor's Highway Safety Program. GHSP will sponsor "Click It or Ticket" night locally on Tuesday, June 1 at 7:05
