United Way accepting funding applications

TIMES STAFF REPORT

United Way Of Davidson County will open its funding application process to allow non-profit health and human service organizations serving Davidson County to apply for funding for year 2011. Applicants must have a 501(c)3 tax-exempt status to be eligible to submit an application. Application packets will be available Aug. 20, 2010.

Organizations interested in submitting an application will be required to attend an information workshop on Aug. 20, 2010 from 8:30 to 11 a.m. at DCCC, Gee Building, Room No. 143. At that time, application packets will be available to those interested in submitting a funding application. The deadline for submitting applications is 5 p.m. Oct. 1, 2010. Those planning to attend should notify the United Way office at 249-2532 by Aug. 16.

All new applicants must notify the United Way office at 249-2532 if they plan to attend.

For additional information, contact President Lee Jessup or Data Manager Carolyn Thompson, Data Manager at 249-2532.

Piedmont Crossing to host senior choral group

TIMES STAFF REPORT

Enjoy an afternoon at Piedmont Crossing on Tuesday, July 20, at 2 p.m. in Unity Place, as the Chair City Classics Senior Choral Group performs.
