

Senior Center cookbooks

Davidson County Department of Senior Services has collected recipes from seniors and the community and compiled them into an attractive cookbook, "Tasty Traditions II."

The cookbook contains 546 delicious recipes, including main dishes, appetizers, desserts and many others. Each recipe will feature the contributor's name so everyone can easily locate the favorite recipes of their family and friends.

Books are $10 each. For more information, call (336) 242-2290 or visit the Lexington Senior Center at 555-B West Center Street Extension or the Thomasville Senior Center at 211 W. Colonial Drive. Cash and checks acceptable. For cash purchases, have the correct change.

Proceeds will benefit the Davidson County Senior Centers of Lexington and Thomasville.

Taste of the Town advance tickets

Advance tickets for Hospice of the Piedmont's 22nd annual Taste of the Town fundraiser are on sale. The event is Tuesday, Aug. 17, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Showplace in downtown High Point.

Tickets may be purchased at the Hospice office, 1801 Westchester Drive, in High Point, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and at www.hospicetaste.com. Tickets purchased online will be at Will Call on the evening of the event.

Entry tickets are $5 each — children six 6 under enter free — and food "taste" tickets are $1 each. Samples range from one to four tickets depending on the item. More than 60 Triad restaurants, caterers, bakeries and beverage vendors are participating. All proceeds benefit the local Hospice.

Tickets will be sold at the entrance to Showplace, 211 E. Commerce Ave., in High Point, on the evening of the event beginning at 5:30 p.m., but advance ticket holders receive express entrance. Each entry ticket is also a chance to win the grand prize drawing of a $250 shopping spree at Belk Oak Hollow. The winner does not need to be present to win. Some restrictions apply.

Democratic Women of Davidson County will meet on Aug. 10 at 7 p.m. at Grace Episcopal Church, 419 South Main St., Lexington. Membership is open to all registered Democrats in the county. For more information, contact Faye Powell at (336) 475-1247.

Senior Chorus

After a summer break, the Senior Chorus group will resume its weekly practice at the Lexington Senior Center, 555-B West Center St. Ext, on Aug. 10 at 1:30 p.m. and will meet each Tuesday thereafter.

Senior chorus is comprised of senior adults from Davidson County who perform for various nursing homes and civic groups. New voices are always welcomed. This program is sponsored by the Davidson County Senior Services Senior Dynamics program.

For more information, call (336) 242-2290 or e-mail stefanie.poore@davidsoncountync.gov.

Monthly book club

Davidson County Department of Senior Services Senior Dynamics program will hold a free book club for folks who love to read and get together to discuss their thoughts and interpretations. This month's meeting is Aug. 19 and will meet each third Thursday of the month thereafter from 2 to 4 p.m. The book club will meet at the Lexington Senior Center located at 555-B West Center Street Extension.

The August selection is "Walking Across Egypt" by Clyde Edgerton. Participants must secure their own book copy.

Have the book completed by the program date. Advance registration is required. Class is open to all Davidson County residents age 55 and up. For more information or to register, call (336) 242-2290 or e-mail Stefanie.Poore@davidsoncountync.gov. Deadline for registration is Aug. 16.

This Week in History Aug. 1-7

Aug. 1, 1978

Kill Devil Hills, N.C. — A massive waterspout rose from the Atlantic Ocean at Kill Devil Hills and roared ashore, ripping the roof from an unoccupied motel and killing one person. Three other people sustained minor injuries.

Aug. 3, 2001

Fireworks that followed the Hi-Tom's game at Finch Field were the first city-sanctioned fireworks in 15 years.

Aug. 4, 1998

Mark Cryan, director of operations for Coastal Plain Baseball Associations, met with Thomasville Parks and Recreation Commission to formally request use of Finch Field and present the opportunity of bringing a CPL team to Thomasville. CPL, wrapping up its second season at the time, lies somewhere in between collegiate baseball and minor league baseball. Players are recruited from colleges throughout the Southeast and all over the country to play a 50-game schedule.

Aug. 7, 1989

N.C. Senate approved a bill to develop a state lottery. Polls indicated that 64-89 percent of the state's residents favored a lottery. The Senate killed similar lottery measures in 1983 and 1985. The bill transferred to the state House.
