This year's concert, called "Music To Eat Popcorn By," features music from films. Directed by Robert Simon and Jeff Whitsett, concert highlights include medleys such as "Chillers & Thrillers," "Disney at the Oscars," "Grease," "James Bond Suite," John Williams' "Fantasy of Flight," "Mission Impossible," "Pink Panther," Theme from "Shaft" and many others. Children are invited to dress up as their favorite movie characters and walk the red carpet.

Food will also be available for purchase from a variety of local vendors.

For more information, call the PWS at (336) 722-9328, or the Children's Museum at (336) 723-9111, or visit www.piedmontwindsymphony.com or www.childrensmuseumofws.org.

Relay For Life volunteers needed

The American Cancer Society and its Davidson County committee members are currently seeking volunteers in the surrounding areas to assist with the 2011 event. The committee is responsible for organizing the event, recruiting fundraising teams, garnering community support, coordinating logistics, planning entertainment and seeking donations to ensure the continued success of Relay For Life. The first volunteer committee meeting will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 7 in Lexington. This meeting will begin the planning process for Relay, which supports the American Cancer Society's mission of saving lives by helping people stay well, by helping people get well, by finding cures and by fighting back against the disease. To join the Davidson County Relay for Life committee or for more information, e-mail name, address and phone number to DavidsonRFL@triad.rr.com or call the local ACS office at (336) 834-0844 by Sept. 6. To learn more about the American Cancer Society or to get help any time, day or night, call 800-ACS-2345 or visit cancer.org.

Relay For Life committee meeting

Relay For Life of Davidson County will hold its first Committee Meeting to begin planning the 2011 Relay on Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 6 p.m. The meeting will be held at Rich Fork Baptist Church, 3993 Old Highway 29.

To become a committee volunteer, contact DavidsonRFL@triad.rr.com or our local American Cancer Society office at (336) 834-0844.

TMC golf tournament

Thomasville Medical Center Foundation to host 16th annual golf tournament on Wednesday, Sept. 15.

The event will take place at The Hale Irwin Signature Course at Meadowlands Golf Club in Wallburg.

The tournament is a four-person captain's choice tournament. There is an $85 entry fee for each golfer. There are two shotgun starts at 8 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Lunch will take place between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. while snacks and beverages will be provided throughout the day.

Participants will also receive a goody bag. Several of the holes have been identified as the "competition holes," "longest drive" and "closest to the pin." There is also unlimited range balls, and the price includes green fees and cart.

Thomasville Medical Center Foundation pays for prescription drugs for people without means to buy their medication; renovations of the hospital; asthma camp for children; a book program called "Reach Out and Read" to help low-income families read to their children; and free clothes for the homeless who are patients in the hospital and rape victims brought to the emergency department.

Questions should be directed to Linda Hunt, TMC Foundation executive director, at lhunt@novanhealth.org or 476-2881.

This Week in History

Sept. 6, 1955

Steps toward integration on the high school level in rural Davidson County before the end of the school term of 1956 were requested by an NCAAAP spokesman county BOE meeting. The spokesman pointed out that 75 African American high school students in rural Davidson County transported to Dunbar High School in Lexington and Church Street High School in Thomasville. Dunbar and Church Street high schools served a combination rural and urban school population.

Sept. 7, 1981

Special effects artist Douglas Trumbull announced he would film a movie in Raleigh. Special effects film for Stanley Kubrick's film "2001: A Space Odyssey." Trumbull has attempted to stretch the cinema beyond the wildest dreams of anyone but himself. The director filmed "Brainstorm," a $16-million drama that went before the camera Sept. 28, 1981, at an undisclosed Raleigh location. The movie starred Natalie Wood and three Academy Award-winning actors Christopher Walken, Louise Fletcher and Cliff Robertson.

Sept. 5, 1989

Nine people, including a motorcyclist who struck a utility pole, died on North Carolina highways during the long Labor Day holiday weekend.

Sept. 5, 1995

Crooked Creek Golf Course, Thomasville's first municipal golf course built around a crooked creek, was renamed Winding Creek Golf Course. Trademark issues forced the name change, as two other courses in the state shared that name.
