AREA SPORTS BRIEFS

COSTLY

It wasn't just that Duke (1-3) turned the ball over more than it had in any other game. It was where and when the miscues occurred that really made things easier for the Black Knights (3-1).

On Duke's third play from scrimmage, Renfree fired a pass into an area where multiple Army defenders were waiting. Linebacker Stephen Anderson intercepted and returned to the Duke 3.

"It was surely a let-down," Renfree said. "It was a bad read and a bad throw."

On the next play, Brian Cobbs scored on a 3-yard run for a 7-0 Army lead.

Army drove to the Duke 16 on its next drive before defensive end Sidney Sarmiento blocked a field-goal attempt by the Black Knights.

On the next play, with the Blue Devils feeling good, Renfree again threw a pass into coverage, where Army linebacker Donnie Dixon intercepted it and returned the ball to the Duke 5.

It took two plays for quarterback Trent Steelman to score on a 1-yard run to give Army a 14-0 lead with 5:37 left in the first quarter.

"Sean wasn't as razor-sharp as he's been," Cutcliffe said. "His accuracy wasn't quite there. We had people open all day. You saw what happened when we did hit them, but it wasn't quite there."

Duke drove 70 yards on eight plays late in the first quarter, with freshman Brandon Connette scoring on a 10-yard run to cut Army's lead in half at 14-7.

Army answered with a 57-yard drive in the second quarter, ended by a 4-yard touchdown run by Cobbs for a 21-7 halftime lead.

Any Duke comeback attempts after intermission were squashed by two more turnovers.

Duke's defense, malmaligned during the season's first three games, forced Army to punt early in the third quarter. But on Duke's second play, Renfree fired a pass that Conner Vernon caught before fumbling while trying for yards after the catch at the Duke 34.

"We're always going to fight for every inch we can get," Vernon said. "It might make the difference in the game."

"But unfortunately, I didn't protect the ball enough and let it go at a big point in the game and gave all the momentum back to them."

On the next play, Steelman tossed a 34-yard touchdown pass to Raymond Maples to put Army up 28-7.

Duke began driving on its ensuing possession, but Renfree dropped the ball while scrambling out the pocket. Army's Joshua McNary recovered at the Army 47.

The Black Knights needed seven plays to convert, but they did on Steelman's 31-yard touchdown throw to Austin Barr.

Four turnovers and four Army touchdowns meant a 35-7 third-quarter deficit that Duke couldn't possibly overcome.

"Our confidence is not good," Cutcliffe said. "So when you get behind early that's the worst thing that could happen to us. That's exactly what went through my mind. 'How are we going to rally this?'"

Duke held Army off the scoreboard the rest of the way and added two fourth-quarter scores on Renfree touchdown throws. But the outcome already was settled.

Now the Blue Devils look for new answers as they prepare for a trip to Maryland and a stretch of ACC games.

"We did a lot of really great things today," Vernon said, "but we're never going to win the ballgame when we have five turnovers and the offense comes out and plays like this."
