

Chapel Hill

MEN IN SERVICE

Lt. Craig Phillips, who was on an LST in the European war theater taking part in the invasions of Normandy and southern France, is here on a 30-day furlough with his wife and his parents. Captain Guy B. Phillips, Jr., of the Army Air Forces stationed in Tampa, Fla., has been here for a visit with his parents also.

Seaman Marvin M. Clark, who is stationed at Alameda, California, is here for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clark.

Jack Lasley, petty officer 3-c, instructor at the Naval Ordnance school in Memphis, Tenn., is expected this week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lasley.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McMullan of Raleigh were here with friends over the weekend.

Professor and Mrs. Lewis Patton of Duke University were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Coffin Sunday.

Lt. Irvin Newson of Ahsokie, who recently returned from England, spent some time here Monday with Garrett Jernigan, a student in the University, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker. Lt. Newsome has just received the Distinguished Service award for completing 30 flying missions over Germany.

Mrs. James Fowler is a patient in Wats hospital recuperating from a broken leg.

Misses Edna Taylor and Elizabeth Adams of Sweetbriar college, were weekend guests of Miss Betsy Anne Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fowler and family of Durham visited Mr. Fowler's mother, Mrs. J. T. Fowler, here on Saturday.

Mrs. James E. Pullen had as her guests, her sons, Sgt. William E. Pullen of Las Vegas, Nevada, Lt. and Mrs. Fred Pullen of Avon Park, Fla., and Mrs. Burkley Pullen of Eagle Rock, Va.

Mrs. W. C. Clark, her daughter, Jane, and son, Jimmy, have gone to Philadelphia for a visit with relatives while Lt. Clark is in Pensacola, Fla.

Joyce Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ferguson, of The Glen, Chapel Hill, has pneumonia.

Buy War Bonds

Loan Committees Meet In Durham

The Veteran Agriculture Loan committee from Orange county met with committees from several other counties for a one-day conference in the Washington Duke hotel in Durham last Monday to discuss veterans' privileges under the farm section of the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The Farm Security Administration has recently been authorized to appoint committees in each county to act for the department of agriculture in helping returning veterans get loans to purchase farms and farm equipment.

Those from Orange county attending the meeting were: Robert E. Hughes, T. M. Riley, and T. E. Hinson. District F.S.A. Supervisor T. F. Royster presided over the conference.

New Bethel

Mrs. Willie Gray is able to be out again after an operation at Wats hospital.

Miss Lula Wilson visited her sister, Mrs. C. U. Nichols, Sunday. Miss Alma Dean Miller is working at Bell's store in Durham.

Miss Trynis McBroom spent the weekend at home.

Miss Margaret Gates spent the weekend with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Coley Laws spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Laws.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McBroom visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gates Tuesday night in Roxboro.

Miss Frances Nichols of Duke spent the weekend at home.

Mrs. Ada Rogers is sick in bed at her home.

Miss Effie Laws spent the weekend at home.

Pete McKee of Chapel Hill spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. McKee.

Mr. and Mrs. Valley Robinson and Travis McBroom visited Mr. and Mrs. Coy Miller Friday night.

SPEAKS ON CANCER

Chapel Hill.—Mrs. George E. Marshall, state commander of the field army of the American Cancer Society, addressed a group of Chapel Hill women at a joint meeting of the Community club and the Newcomers' club Friday afternoon.

She followed up her talk on cancer by showing a moving picture "Choose to Live" which pointed up her plea for preventive measures in dealing with this disease.

Carrboro

MEN IN SERVICE

Marion Clark, Storekeeper 2-c, and Mrs. Clark came from the U. S. Naval Air station, Alameda, Cal., Tuesday, January 30, for a two-weeks leave here with relatives. Marion was storekeeper for the Navy Pre-flight school in Chapel Hill for 2 years before being transferred to California. His wife is the former Miss Margaret Liner of Hillsboro.

Preston Hogan, USN, stationed in Norfolk, Va., spent the last week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hogan, in the Orange church section. John Kirkland, also of the Navy, who has had many months of sea duty, is on leave with relatives near Orange church.

A message was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillehay stating that their son, Sgt. Austin Dillehay, has arrived safely overseas and is in France.

Pfc. Wade Meacham of Fort Bragg visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meacham, in the Mann's Chapel section last week and visited relatives in Carrboro Sunday.

Sgt. C. T. Markham, Jr., A. F. T. A. C., of Orlando, Florida, has just returned to his base after a 10-day furlough here with his wife and family.

A message received by his wife and children last Friday states that Pvt. Raymond Pickett has arrived safely overseas and is now in France.

Lloyd Senter, Chief Ph. M., in the Maritime Service, stationed in Denver, Colo., is on leave here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Senter.

Cpl. Howard Johnson of South Dakota came home on furlough last Saturday, and will be here until February 14. He is with his mother, Mrs. Lula Johnson on Greensboro street.

Seaman James Horne of Little Creek, Va., is visiting his wife, his children and other relatives here.

James Taylor, 1st Sgt., who has been overseas 3 years, is home on furlough with relatives and friends here.

Carl Crittenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crittenden, came home January 28. He has been serving overseas three years. After a 21-day furlough here, he will report to his army base in Florida for further assignment. His brother, Reddy Crittenden, who has been in the army, is here also.

James Wright, Jr., USN, is here on leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Sr. Misses Estelle and Corinne Azzart of Boston, Mass., came with him for a visit here.

Pfc. Carey Sapp is visiting his sister, Mrs. Robert Thomas, and family.

Bill Durham, USN, is home on leave with relatives here.

BEATRICE KAYE PATCH

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Patch of Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Beatrice Kaye. Mrs. Patch is the former Miss Estelle Upchurch, daughter of Mrs. W. L. Upchurch, and has been here with her mother for some time.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Childress and children visited Mrs. Childress' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clark, out on the Hillsboro highway over the last weekend. They visited other relatives in Carrboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sims, Foye Mae and Mrs. Emma Boone have just returned from Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Wanda Lou Gibbs of Durham visited relatives here over the last weekend.

Miss Eleanor Mynes Williams, R. N., from Wats hospital, Durham, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of Durham were visitors here on last Sunday, Jan. 28, and attended the birthday celebration on that date given in honor of Mrs. Marvin Ivey and Hurbert Meacham held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey.

Mrs. Lillie Ray, who has been very ill at her home on Weaver street, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Braxton and Maxine, also Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Perry and Viola, all of Graham, Rt. 2, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Braxton on Greensboro street over the last weekend. Mr. Lennie Braxton has been very ill at his home, but is now improving.

Miss Doris Bradshaw of the nursing staff at Rex hospital in Raleigh spent the past weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradshaw.

Mrs. Ira Ray of Jamestown spent last week visiting relatives here. Mrs. Aida Taylor Pate of Ohio and her daughter, Lucille, of New York, visited Mr. and Mrs. Hurbert Hackney for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lanning and Jane were recent visitors in Thomasville.

Deaths

Mrs. Maggie Bell Faucette

Mrs. Maggie Bell Dodson Faucette, 65, wife of S. L. Faucette of Route 1, died at her home, Tuesday morning, following a week of illness. She had been in declining health for the past two years.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by four sons, R. A. Faucette of Portsmouth, Va.; Samuel, Robert and Garland Faucette, all of the home; three daughters, Mrs. Jesse Cook and Mrs. Annie Bell Cook, both of Durham, and Mrs. Fannie Pope of the home; four sisters, Mrs. Bessie Pearson, Mrs. O. P. Couch and Mrs. Mamie Couch, all of this county, and Mrs. Nettie Atkinson of Alamance.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Chestnut Ridge Methodist church, three miles south of Efland. The Rev. S. F. Nicks and the Rev. E. H. Measamer will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Charlie Pendergraft

Charlie W. Pendergraft, 87, died at the home of his son, Hugh Pendergraft, Route 3, Chapel Hill, Monday night. Mr. Pendergraft had been ill for the past six months.

He is survived by one son, Hugh Pendergraft, one step-son, Sam Mincey of Alamance county; two step-daughters, Mrs. Robert Manor of Chapel Hill and Mrs. Bynum Teaney of Norfolk, Va.; one sister, Mrs. Will Manor of this county; eight grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted in the Walker Funeral chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Charles F. Hudson of Durham in charge. Burial followed immediately in the Orange Methodist church cemetery, two miles north of Chapel Hill.

Nephews, nieces, and grandchildren served as pallbearers and floral bearers.

New Hope

CHURCH NEWS

Miss Florence Root, a missionary from Korea, will teach the Woman's Bible class at New Hope on Sunday, February 11, at 10 a. m. All the women in the community are invited.

The young people's league met at the church last Sunday. An impressive devotional was led by Christine Cates. Members present were John Freeland, John Cates, Betty Lou Tapp, Ruby Freeland, Norma Foe, Sarah Freeland, Jane Cates, Virginia Nunn, Horace Powell, Christine and Helen Tapp.

PERSONALS

Tom Ray, a retired blacksmith, passed away at his home at the Bill Sharpe place Friday, February second.

Mesdames Herbert Johnson, H. R. Tapp, Louis Freeland, Lily Rochell, and John Freeland shopped in Burlington, Tuesday of last week.

People affected by the slowing up of activities in the Carrboro Munitions factory were Daisy Perkins and Eleanor Craig.

Mrs. Jim Durham has had an operation in Duke hospital and has recovered sufficiently to be at home again.

Members of the REA in this community who attended the annual meeting in Hillsboro, Saturday, Feb. 3, were Foster Tapp, Clarence and Eugene Blackwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pulley and Mrs. W. S. Nunn.

G. F. Beasley

GENERAL HAULING
Box 26
Hillsboro, N. C.

BOWL A HIGH SCORE
IN HEALTH
FAIRVIEW
Bowling Alley

Cedar Grove

PARTIES

The juniors of Aycob high school gave a surprise party Saturday night to the senior class in honor of Buck Liner who is entering the army Friday. The party was held at the Liner home.

Miss Mary Alice Boland and Miss Hazel Tate had a birthday party at the Boland home Wednesday.

STILL IN HOSPITAL

John Finley still remains in the hospital at Duke where he has been ill for six weeks. R. E. Hughes, Mrs. Della Allison and R. L. Oliver went to see him last Sunday.

FUNERAL FOR W. M. MOORE

William M. Moore, formerly of this section, who was killed at his home in Caswell county Wednesday, Jan. 31, by a falling tree, was buried Thursday at the Cedar Grove Methodist church. He was the father of Dr. H. W. Moore of Hillsboro.

MEN IN SERVICE

Aubrey Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Terry, who was wounded in France recently, has returned to the States and is in a government hospital. He hopes to visit home soon. He was wounded in the leg when shrapnel hit him.

Memorial services for Glenn Kennedy, who was killed overseas, were held Sunday at 2:30 with the Rev. S. F. Nicks, Rev. J. C. Williams and the Rev. K. F. Duval, officiating.

Relatives of Gordon Liner have received a card from him somewhere in a German prison camp.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woods of Hillsboro were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Cook last Sunday.

Miss Mary Ruth Ward spent Wednesday night with Patsy Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Allison and daughter, Donna Kaye, have just returned from Shelby after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allan for more than a week.

Miss Elizabeth Hughes of Mebane, and Miss Betty Hayes of Durham spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hughes.

Mrs. Ellis Dorsett and Mrs. Percy Allison and daughter, Donna, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murphy Wednesday.

Durham Bank & Trust Co.
HILLSBORO

CHAPEL HILL STUDENTS COLLECTED $585.65 FOR MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE

Chapel Hill, Feb. 7.—Students of Chapel Hill public schools collected a total of $585.65 during the recent "March of Dimes" drive.

Orange County Training school students contributed $258.80 and the white school children gave $326.85.

HONEYCUTT TO PRESENT PAPER AS PART OF SERIES OF COMMITTEE REPORTS

Chapel Hill, Feb. 7.—Due to the cancelling of its annual convention by request of War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes, the American Association of School Administrators will publish the reports of its committees.

Among these reports will be one by A. W. Honeycutt of Chapel Hill, chairman of the regional geography committee.

OPERATION FOR MRS. MANN

Carrboro, Feb. 6.—Mrs. T. N. Mann, who underwent a major operation in Duke hospital two weeks ago, was able to come home last Sunday. She had to return to Durham and on last Saturday morning underwent a very serious operation on her right eye.

MRS. BROWN'S BROTHER HAS HEART ATTACK

Lucius L. Glascock, prominent Greensboro citizen and brother of Mrs. Nate W. Brown of Hillsboro, succumbed at his home last week following a heart attack. He was vice president and secretary of Glascock Stove and Foundry company of Greensboro.

HUGGINS TO SPEAK

Carrboro.—M. A. Huggins, general secretary of the State Baptist Board; will be the guest speaker at the eleven o'clock morning service next Sunday at the Carrboro Baptist church. Everybody cordially invited to hear him.

P-H-O-T-O-S

While You Wait
Also Enlargements
FROM 2 FOR 25c UP
Harris Photos

J. L. LOCKHART

INSURANCE AND
REAL ESTATE
Hillsboro, N. C.

Win her heart with flowers—beautiful bouquets and potted flowers that will tell her more elegantly than words that she is your Valentine. Place your order with us today for that beautifully arranged Valentine greeting.

WEST'S FLOWER SHOP

PHONE 9906 CARRBORO

"Tell him we're cutting pulpwood!"

I SEE here in the paper that the government says the shortage of pulpwood may hold up the supply of munitions, I'm going to cut every darn stick I can.

"That's the way I like to hear our generals talk because that 'single soldier' might be our boy. So when the government says the shortage of pulpwood may hold up the supply of munitions, I'm going to cut every darn stick I can. "You just tell the boy to keep on doing his best over there and we'll do our best to back him up over here."

VICTORY PULPWOOD COMMITTEE

C. G. ROSEMOND

J. ROY PARKER

DON S. MATHESON

Your Utilities Company Is Proud to Have A Part In Forwarding War Production and More Efficient, More Economical Living!

You can help insure better service and help to conserve vital war materials by calling our service men only when it is unavoidable.

Do you have spare fuses on hand? In many cases you can quickly restore your service by testing and replacing a blown-out fuse.

For continued satisfactory service, take doubly good care of your cords and appliances these days.

DUKE POWER CO.

You Can Find Most Anything You'd Expect at a No. 1 Department Store

... in These War Times ... at BERMAN'S in Chapel Hill