Mr. T. Earl Hinson of Hillsboro and Miss Irene Brown, of Durham, were quietly married April first at the home of the bride. Hon. S. M. Gattis, of Hillsboro, was here Monday night shaking hands with old friends and incidentally reminding them of the primary election on June 3rd and the fact that he was in the race for solicitor.

Elm Grove—Mrs. Quincey Russ and child, of Kinston, who have been with their cousin, Mr. J. M. Lloyd returned to their home on Tuesday.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO THIS MONTH

The Methodist Church on the University campus was dedicated during the regular morning service. Bishop Paul B. Kern, of Greensboro, delivered the dedicatory sermon and Rev. W. A. Jenkins, the pastor, presided.

The State Scouts will hold a Silver Jubilee in Chapel Hill on April 25 to 28. The Cherokee Council will have an important part in this celebration.

The 10 Kiwanis clubs comprising the fifth division of the Carolinas Kiwanis district observed Kiwanis Progress Week in Raleigh. Debaters representing Carolina and George Washington Universities met in a no-decision debate Tuesday on the query Resolved, that the nations agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions. R. P. Russell, of Asheville and Winthrop Durfee of Boston, Mass. university representatives upheld the negative.

ONE YEAR AGO THIS MONTH

The county commissioners favored plans for 'beginning' construction of a high school building in Chapel Hill. Only one wing if the building will be built at this time, containing about twelve classrooms.

William Chance was eliminated 4 to 1 when those present at the town mass meeting Monday night nominated Ben G. Johnston as candidate for mayor of Hillsboro by a total vote of 24 to 6. Johnston is the only candidate for the meeting and is running to succeed himself to the office he has held for the past 12 years.

A chapter of Americans United for World Organization was formed by P. C. Farrar in Chapel Hill this week.

Mrs. Allen Whitaker, chairman of the war fund drive for the Orange County Red Cross chapter, revealed this week that the quota of $4,000 has been over-subscribed by $1,252.49.

New Hope—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. O'Neil Sharpe and Thomas Powell spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. John Powell.

Schley—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woods, Nina Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Martin went to Newport News during the holidays to see Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Woods.

Eno—Miss Hilda Douglas, Easter bride-elect was given a party by Mrs. Gat Walker and Mrs. Clarence Link.
