Vol. 53, No. 23

Hillsboro, N. C., Thursday, July 25, 1946

(Published Weekly)

8 Pages This Weel

Interest Up

Over Freezer

Locker Plant

was manifested.

their 100 signers.

farm agent.

change in Durham.

Much interest has been aroused

Discussion groups this week

plant would be a simple matter. At Chiefs Manteo and Wanchese, Hill's noted playwright, Paul North Carolina dramatic arts facto see England, kneel before Queen left discussing the musical back- of the spectacular leaping dances Elizabeth, who lends attentive ear Hart, the organist. Hart, a native seen in previous summers by more ter and in the state as a whole; The drama was written by Chapel Fitz-Simons of the University of through September 2.

to her favorite, Sir Walter Raleigh, of Knoxville, Tenn., is on leave than 400,000 persons, the drama in a colorful scene from North from the Church of the Good is attracting thousands more to Carolina's great historical drama, Shepherd in Brooklyn for the du- Roanoke Island this year. It is The Lost Colony, now being pre- ration of the Lost Colony season. presented at 8:15 o'clock every sented in its sixth season at old Lower right, Uppowor the Indian night during the week except Fort Raleigh on Roanoke Island. medicine man, played by Foster Monday and Tuesday and will run

Legion Auxiliary Formed; Drive Is Started For New Members

Fire Destroys Barbecue Pit With 175 Pounds Of Pig; $1,800 Damage Is Done

Damage estimated at $1,800 was done Monday afternoon when fire destroyed a barbecue pit, building and contents at No. 85 Dud's Tavern near Hillsboro.

fire had already gained too much headway when it reached Mrs. D. E. Forrest, 2nd vice-presithe Tavern. Failure of the mechanical pump on the engine to operate correctly caused the firemen to form a bucket line in protecting a nearby building. The pit was the second to be destroyed by fire at the Tavern in the past two years.

J. D. Walters, owner and proprietor of the Tavern, said that he first noticed smoke coming from Thanks were issued to the in both Chapel Hill and Hillsboro by the announcement of the Farmmembers of the Hillsboro fire department by Mr. and Mrs. J. ers Mutual Exchange that they D. Walters for their efforts in would construct a freezer locker fighting the fire Monday. They in both towns if enough interest announced at an early date they would give a barbecue for the members of the department and have pointed out the fact that to others who helped fight the secure the necessary 100 signers fire. They are now using a barfrom town desiring a locker in the becue pit at the bowling alley.

last reports, the Chapel Hill backers of the plant for that section of the building, and thinking that the county had secured most of of the building to investigate. When Active campaigning for the plant he did, a draft was formed, caus- No. 85, Legion Auxiliary. for Hillsboro was expected to start ing a sheet of flame to drive him Less week with the meeting of from the building.

the Hillsbors Lions club which is sponsoring the effort in this sec-'Uncle Charlie" was not in the Contract forms were brought cooking while he went to the main into Hillshop the week and may kitchen to mix his sauce for the be secured from the office of the meat.

Destroyed in the blaze were 175 Before construction on a build- pounds of meat, a sink, stove, a ing can be started, 100 town citi- large commercial type two-door. zens and 200 farmers must signify electric refrigerator, a meat block 25. their intention to rent a locker in and other cooking utensils used in the plant by making a deposit of preparing the barbecue. Damaged was a hot water tank.

The deposits will be placed in . There was no insurance on the the Bank of Chapel Hill and the building or the contents.

G. W. Kay, comes weter branch in Hillsboro until the builda deposition of the fire department, present for the homecoming are depositor desires to reclaim his suffered a burn on his right arm the Rev. Carl Craig of Jacksonwhen hot tar from the nearby $15 deposit, he may do so in writthe farmers Mutual Ex- building which was threatened DeFuniak Springs, Fla., and Dr. popped on him.

Mrs. M. L. Allison of Hillsboro was named president of the Hillsboro Post No. 85 of the American Legion Auxiliary at an organizational meeting held Monday night in the Masonic hall.

Although inclement weather cut down the attendance of the inter-

Other officers named were: Mrs. Hillsboro fire department was called to the scene, but the Harry Woods, 1st vice-president; Mrs. B. P. Gordon, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Kennedy, treasurer; Mrs. W. Lonnie Hastings, sergeant at arms, and Miss Mary Sue Robertson, his-

> Mrs. O. S. Sloanwhite of Raleigh, department commander of the American Legion Auxiliary for North Carolina, was present for the meeting and told of the aims and the work of the Legion Aux-

She was introduced by O. S. Robertson, former Legion commander here and an active member of the post. Dr. D. E. Forrest, present commander, presided.

Dues at $2.00 per year were votd and the next meeting was set

August 19 in the Masonic hall. On Colonial Inn Plans were discussed for the starting of a membership drive under the direction of Mrs. Forrest, 2nd vice-president and membership chairman.

It was pointed out that all mem-"Uncle" Charlie Wells, Negro bers who join for a period one helper, was in it, opened the door month after July 31 will be considered charter members of Post

Later investigation revealed that Homecoming At New Hope

Special homecoming services

There will be two services with dinner on the grounds. Revival services will begin that day and continue through the week fol-

Among the invited guests who more recented the invitation to be ville, the Rev. Daniel J. Currie of

The North Carolina Medical Care Commission and Governor Cherry have received a recommendation that a four-year school of medi-cine and an affiliated hospital be located on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Chapel

The recommendation was submitted by the national committee for a medical school survey.

Five members of the committee approved the lengthy report while two members submitted a minority opinion opposing expansion of tne University's two-year medical

The roport recommended estab-lishment of the school at Chapel Hill provided "that a hospital and health center program to provide greatly enlarged facilities be carried forward and that a practicable plan for financing medical and hospital care be established."

The school should "be an integrated part of a State Univermedical center," the report "which will include:

"1. Appropriate facilities for the basic medical sciences, for research, and adequate general teaching hospital;

"2. A school of nursing; "3. A program for the preparation of essential personnel in fields ancillary to rendering medical and hospital care;

"4. The present school for public health for the training of personnel in that special field; "5. The present school of phar-

"6. An active program for gradthe first North American Indians Green, who is shown at bottom ulty, soars high into the air in one uate and postgraduate education for physicians and allied medical

> "7. Arrangements to provide hospitals throughout the state with clinical consultations; roentgenologic, pathologic and other services as may be desired by them;

nate all the activities of the cen- the merchants association either ter and integrate these on a statewide basis as needed, and desired wide basis as needed, and desired in order to insure the utmost ef- ness a member of the associationfectiveness in providing a better has received a ticket with each health program for North Caro- $1.00 purchase or with each $1.00

Former Resident Reminisces

I. H. Kirkland of St. Augustine, ested women, officers were named Fla., and M. N. Kirkland of Hamand plans made for the formation let, both former residents of Hillsof the Legion Auxiliary for Post boro, were visitors in the town this week.

spent in and near Hillsboro, I. H. Kirkland said he recalled when the prizes. dent and membership chairman; streets of Hillsboro were paved with round rocks and when a pump stood in the street near the H. Rittenhouse, chaplain; Mrs. court house. "I never came to ing and everyone who holds town," he said, "without getting myself a drink of water whether I was thirsty or not."

> Although both of them have been away from Orange county and Hillsboro for 30 to 40 years, they always return every year for visit with friends and relatives.

They are both still interested in he people here and subscribe regularly to The NEWS of Orange County.

Work Is Started

Inn in Hillsboro was started this week when workmen began work on the annex which will house a dress shop when completed.

Mrs. Della Latta, Mrs. Martha B. Henderson and Mrs. Mabel M Henderson will open the Dell-Mar Shop in the annex when the work is completed. Opening date of the shop, it was said, will depend on how soon the remodeling is completed and how soon delivery of merchandise can be affected.

Smith Returns To Mars Hill, will be held at New Hope August Mt. Ada Churches

The Rev. W. T. Smith, former minister of Mars Hill Baptist Church, will return to Mars Hill and Mt. Ada churches next month as full-time minister, it has been announced.

Mr. Smith will preach August homecoming program, All returned soldiers who are members of the church will be the honored guests for the occasion.

James T. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero H. Jones of Hillsboro, has accepted a commission in the Regular Army in the grade of eaptain. He had formerly held a temporary commission of Captain Jones reports to Fort Belvoir, Va., on July 31 as an instructor at the Engineer Officers Candidate School.

Med Center Now Regular Hogan's Lake Scene Army Captain County-Wide Picnic, Dress Revue Saturday

Man Is Released Under $300 Bond For Embezzlement

On a charge of embezzlement of ryn Hamrick, home demonstramoney from Colonel Paul Hend- tion agent, to participate in the erson of Chapel Hill, Evis Bow- revue. They are: den of Durham was released under bond of $300 for his appearance Jean Miller, Juanita Allison, Mary in August Superior Court follow- Nell Wilson, Pattie Mae Laws, ing a hearing before Magistrate Pearl Berry, Lola Miller, Peggy ing a hearing before Magistrate Cicero H. Jones Tuesday morn- Brockwell, Bowden used money he supplied him to pay bils for his personal gain and that he was forced to Reitzel, supply extra money for the payment of the statements when it became known to him that the bills had not been paid.

At the hearing Tuesday Bowden was represented by attorney A. A. McDonald.

Colonel Henderson charged that Jacqualine Long, Carol Hunt, Joanne Lee, Vivian Horton, Hazel

Hillsboro Jubilee Month Ends On August 3; Local Merchants Plan Bargin Day

The stage was set this week for the final day of the Hillsboro merchants Jubilee Month with the announcement from the Merchants Association that the event would end on Saturday,

Next week's issue of THE NEWS will carry special ads from most members of the Merchants Association offering special bargains at greatly reduced prices during the final day of the sales promotion plan which was started Carl Durham the first week in July.

"8. A competent administrator During the past month every at the medical center to coordiperson—who is not connected with Heads List paid on account.

GOOD FOR PRIZES

These tickets Saturday, August prizes at a drawing which will be held during the afternoon. Entertainment will be provided and a big time for everyone in Hillsboro Saturday, August 3, is being promised by members of the association

Prizes such as washing machines and radios (both of which are now on display in the window of Hillsboro Flower Shop), nylon hose, electrical appliances and many district representative, headlines other hard to get articles such as a .22 automatic repeating rifle (al-Reminiscing of his boyhood days so on display with the two above Plans". named articles), will be given as

> Tickets for the drawing will be distributed by the merchants to within one hour prior to the drawticket stub, signifying either a $1.00 purchase or $1.00 paid on account, will have an opportunity to win one of the many prizes which will be given away.

MAKE PLANS NOW

So remember to make your plans August 3, for the end of the Hillsboro Jubilee Month. Bring your ticket stubs with you.

to answer, the prize is not yours. torn lands. You must be present to win.

Watch for more information concerning the big time being planned for you in next week's issue of THE NEWS and for the announcements from the mer-Restoration of the old Colonial chants on the bargains they have in store for you.

> DISCHARGED FROM NAVY William J. Beard, pharmacist's

mate, third class, USNR, has received his honorable discharge and is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Beard. He corps of the Navy.

Chapel Hill- Speakers at the two-day meeting, July 28 and 29, of the recently formed North Carolina Pharmaceutical Council were announced today by Secretary-3, can be exchanged for valuable Treasurer W. J. Smith of the State farm people during the year. pharmaceutical association,

> The council is composed of fifty representatives from over the state from the drug retailing, wholesaling and manufacturing industry. Its chief purpose is to assist the pharmaceutical association in its planning.

Congresman Carl T. Durham, 6th the opening day program with a discusion of "National Health

See (PHARMACY) on Page 4

157 Pounds Relief Clothing Given By Hillsboro

cently from Mrs. James Webb of now to be in Hillsboro Saturday, Hillsboro by the United Church Service Center in New Windsor, Md. These goods, which consist of usable clothes, bedding, and Remember, also, if your number shoes, have already been sorted, s called and you are not present baled and shipped for use in war-

Exactly 157 pounds of relief

The United Church Service Center is one of the largest church relief goods depots in the United States. Not only are clothing, bedding, canned foods and money received, but also soap, candles, shoes, kitchen utensils, table ware, Reunion Sunday dolls, carpenter tools, cotton feed bags, and a number of other items needed abroad in war-stricken Goods sent here are usually packed and shipped within 48 hours after their receipt. Over 700 pairs of shoes are reconditioned served 18 months in the medical each week in shoe-repair shop be-

A dress revue will be the principal part of a program to be presented at the county-wide 4-H picnic Saturday, July 27, at Hogan's Lake, it was announced this week from the farm agent's office. The following girls in the county

Peggy McKee, Peggy Lou Berry,

have been invited by Mrs. Kath-

Clara Jo Riggsbee, Sandra Mann, Catharine Smith, Frances Reitzel,

Lois Liner, Peggy Caruthers, Hilda Elmore, Freida Dority, Marian Abee, Doris Taylor, Nell Mc-Adams, Mary Jo Harris, Mary Catherine Hines, Mary Elizabeth

Kenyon, Margaret Brown, Peggy Strayhorn, Patsy Martin, Florence Mays, Nancy Lloyd, Mary Franklin, Vivian MacPherson, Emma Jean Thompson, Betty Mae Bradshaw, Elanor Thompson, Peggy Bowden, Rachel Thompson, Jeanne Stanford, Jane Stanford, Carolyn Zachary.

All 4-H club members, parents of members, home demonstration club members and other interested farm people in the county are being urged by the farm extension workers to attend the picnic. All are asked to bring a basket with

Swimming will be principal sport for the day, but other games and contests such as hog calling, softball and nail driving are being arranged. Lunch will be served at noon followed by the dress revue.

Adding to the many attractions of the day will be a "carnival" spirit supplied by such entertainment for wes as Madame Zula-Zuic, a fortune teller; a house of horrors and many other acts.

The "carnival" will open after lunch and along with the dress revue will make the occasion one of the largest for Orange county

Exam Set For Postmaster At Hillsboro

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination for postmaster for the Hillsboro post According to the announcement, applications must be properly executed on Form 10 and on file in the Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the hour of closing business on August 21. All necessary information concerning the examination may be secured from the Hillsboro post clothing has just been received re- office or by writing United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. The examination is being held to name a postmaster to succeed S. Strudwick who resigned several months ago. Mrs. Cora Lynch has been acting postmaster for the Hillsboro post office since the resignation of Strudwick.

Jordan Family

The Jordan family reunion will be held July 28 at the Colonel W. H. Jordan homeplace, Jordan's Grove, now the home of Mrs. Jennie Jordan McDade.

All direct descendants of John Jordan, who settled in northern Orange county about 1790, are

Youth Dies In Truck Crash Near Chapel Hill Monday

Perry James Hayes, 19-year-old curve. youth of Dublin, met almost inroad and crashed into a ditch. Coroner H. J. Walker, who was completed experimentally the youth had gone to sleep at the wheel of the truck after making one curve, failing to make the second loop of an S-

5:40 on the Chapel Hill-Pittsboro the accident, was the first to reach University. highway near Chapel Hill when the youth who was trapped in the

J. B. Bennett, who lives not more being erected to house veterans stant death Monday morning at than 300 yards from the scene of who are attending school at the

The force of the impact caused the truck he was driving left the cab of the truck. The young man the load on the truck trailer to was not dead when Bennett reach- crash into and over the cab of the