

Notice Of Sale Of Land For 1945 Taxes, Orange County, North Carolina

Pursuant to the Public Laws of North Carolina, I will on Monday, September 2, 1946, offer for sale at public auction at the Court House door in Hillsboro the land listed below, and which is described more fully in the county tax scrolls, on which 1945 taxes have not been paid. The sale in each case will be for the amount of the tax shown in this advertisement plus a penalty of 4 1/2 percent and an advertising and sales cost of 75 cents.

This the 8th day of August, 1946.

CARL C. DAVIS
Orange County Tax Collector

VILLAGE ORANGE

By Betsy Brunk

Chapel Hill—HOUSING DEADLOCK. The struggle to find living quarters in the Village continues, with Billy Carmichael, University bursar, estimating that some 900 non-college families wish to establish residence here. The list of potential students desiring accommodations is over ten times that number. One extremely original would-be student wrote Mayor Bob Madry last week that he would settle for lodging in the town jail. With such desperate measures under consideration, veteran residents such as Jim and Joan Co. express concern at leaving their house unguarded for fear someone will rent it out from under them. Small wonder!

"JUDGE" F. O. BOWMAN comes from a section of the country (Berea, Ky.) rich in folklore, and I discovered last week, equally rich in language. He introduced me to an entirely new meaning of the word "
