Hawley-Ferrell Vows Are Spoken At West Durham Baptist Church

Carrboro.—The West Durham Baptist church was the scene last Saturday evening, January 25, at 7 o'clock of a formal wedding when Miss Marjorie Hawley, daughter of Mrs. James Hawley of Peace street, Durham, became the bride of A. L. Ferrell, Jr., son of Mrs. A. L. Ferrell of Carrboro.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, palms and ferns with softly glowing tapers in seven-branched candelabra. A program of wedding music was given by Miss Mildred Thomas, church organist, and Dorothy Cheek, soloist.

The officiating minister was the Rev. B. E. Morris, who used the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who wore white satin bridal gown with fingertip veil, carried a bridal bouquet centered with an orchid. Her maid of honor was her niece, Miss Evelyn Blake, who wore pale green taffeta. Bridesmaids were Misses Marie Dean and Gladys Cheek, who wore rose taffeta dresses. Matron of honor was Mrs. L. N. Graham, who wore a dress of orchid taffeta. All attendants carried bridal bouquets.

Best man for the groom was L. N. Graham. Ushers were J. B. Dail, Tommy Montjoy, Winfred Hawley and Norman Phillips. After a wedding trip to unannounced points the young couple will make their home in Durham.

Conference Is Held at Church

Carrboro.—The first quarterly conference of the Methodist church for the Carrboro charge will be held next Sunday morning in the Orange Methodist church, three miles north of Carrboro. Dr. H. C. Smith of Durham will preach the sermon at the 11 o'clock service. Dr. Smith is the district superintendent of the Durham district which includes the Carrboro charge. The Carrboro charge is made up of the Carrboro church, Orange church and Merritt's Chapel church. The Rev. J. L. Joyce is the minister in charge of these churches.

American dollars were worth 50 percent more in 1926 than in 1920 when inflation of the first World War was at its zenith.

Men Serve Meal At Church Meet

Carrboro.—The regular monthly meeting of the officers and teachers of the Carrboro Baptist Sunday school was held on Monday evening of this week in the church basement. At least once each year the men in the group prepare and serve the supper. On this occasion the men served a delicious meal and were complimented on their cooking ability by the assembled group.

Auxiliary Meets
